

CLASSIC DAY SATURDAY AT ARLINGTON

Good Weather, Large Crowds, Big Mutuel Play This Season

The eyes of the turf world are centered upon Arlington Park this week where on Saturday afternoon the Arlington Classic, greatest three year old race of the year will be run before a crowd of probably upwards of 30,000 fans.

The Classic will decide the three year old championship of the year and will bring together Omaha and Black Helen, for the first time this season.

While most of the early interest is centered around Mr. Woodward's Omaha and Col. Bradley's Black Helen, there are some other mighty fine horses who are going to try to turn back both of these outstanding champions.

There will be Mrs. Hertz Count Arthur, which has thundered home in hot pursuit of Black Helen on several occasions and there will be Roman Sodier, a big winner on the winter tracks and winner of the Detroit Derby.

There will also be Teatout, Whiskala, Advantage, Sun Portland and other lesser lights all of whom their owners hope may furnish the big upset of the year by coming home in front of the outstanding stars of the year.

At any rate the Classic shapes up as the greatest horse race of the year and if the track stays fast it would not be surprising to see a new track record hung up in the race.

Society people, horse owners and plain ordinary racing fans are flocking to Arlington from all over the country for this great race and Arlington Park will be the center of the turf world on Classic day.

Good weather and a fast track during the last week has brought added interest in the Arlington races and fine week day crowds are on hand daily.

Last Saturday 18,000 people turned out for the running of the Lassie stakes and saw just about the hottest finish of the season when the Milky Way stables Forever Yours won the rich two year old feature by a nose and a head from the Vanderbilt entry of Balcony and Parade Girl.

The mutuel handle on Saturday was the second largest of the season, over $500,000 passing through the machines.

The daily programs at Arlington Park continues to be of high class and these attractive programs coupled with good weather and the vacation season are bringing crowds to Arlington which presages the most successful meeting in years in the Chicago area.

Palatine Glider Expert Caught in N. Y. Floods

Elmira, N. Y., July 15. Cook County Herald

It might be of interest to my friends in Palatine, to know that I have been here in Elmira, N. Y. for the past three weeks attending the National Gliding and Soaring contest as a contestant. It so happens that we have been in the center of the New York flood area which I can say, is very, very bad.

For two days all of us were marooned on the mountain from which we do our soaring. Food and water was dropped to us from an airplane. On the second evening several of us started walking down the mountains for the town of "Big Flats". This was only a distance of some six miles, but because of heavy rains and landslides, we did not arrive at that town until five-thirty the following morning.

When we did arrive, the main street was under five feet of water, all persons with the exception of two men, had been sent or taken to Elmira. All in all, it was a great experience. I took some fine pictures.

Credits Cook County Herald for Increased Used Car Business

Purnell & Wilson, Ford dealers at Arlington Heights and Des Plaines, announce one of the best years on record. They have moved a large volume of both new and used cars this spring and summer. Mr. Wilson, who believes in advertising and is a regular advertiser in the Paddock newspapers credits the Cook County Herald with bringing them a large portion of their business.

"Through persistent advertising in the Cook County Herald this spring and summer," he states, "we have moved the greatest volume of used cars in our history, which means a great number of satisfied customers who become familiar with our service. We certainly owe a vote of thanks to the Cook County Herald and associate papers for the results we have obtained."

Elks Plan Another Good Time at Annual Picnic Next Sunday

Again the Elks and their friends will frolic all day long at Northwestern Park, Des Plaines, Sunday, July 21. The Des Plaines lodge is staging their ninth annual picnic and they have planned something to do every minute of the day. The features of the day are games and races with plenty of refreshments, and a 100 free prizes given away. The All-Stars of Arlington Heights and Des Plaines will meet in a softball game. Dancing will occupy the evening. Admission to the grove is free. Everybody is invited.

JAIL ROSELLE FARMHAND FOR CHECK FORGERY

Harry Thomas Buys New Car With Bum Check; Passes Others

Authorities have finally apprehended the whereabouts of Harry Thomas, erstwhile farmhand and now check forger extraordinaire. He was nabbed in Minnesota last Friday and brought back to Illinois by Chief of Police Ernest Baade of Barrington. Thomas who was employed on the farm of H. C. Wilkening one half mile north of Roselle, set out on a check forging spree June 20, and since that time has passed about a dozen bad ones amounting to about $1,000.

Many of the checks have been drawn on the Roselle state bank. One of the checks cashed at the Herman Lohse filling station in Roselle on which Henry Wilkening's name was forged was for $15. It was drawn on the Roselle State bank and cashed in Glen Ellyn.

Thomas began his first adventure with the purchase of a brand new Plymouth sedan at Barrington. He gave Percy Drover, the Plymouth dealer there, a check for $830 in payment. The check drawn on the DuPage Trust Company at Glen Ellyn was cashed in Barrington and immediately bounced back as Thomas had no account at this bank.

Since then many other checks were passed for amounts from $15 to $20 and drawn on the Roselle State bank and the DuPage Trust Company. The latest one which arrived last Friday at the Roselle State bank from Plainview, Neb., indicated that Thomas covered considerable ground. On June 28, a similar check arrived from Heathen, Minn. Both are for amounts of $15.

Thomas did not use the Roselle bank blank checks. Instead, he picked up a blank check anywhere, crossed out the name of the bank, wherever it happened to be, and wrote "Roselle State Bank." The checks are made out in pencil. He signed his name "Harry Thomas," "Ira Thomas" and "Ira T. Thomas."

Before leaving Roselle, Thomas worked at the Wilkening farm for about a week, and a half month. He is 45 years of age, and has a daughter living in Chicago.

Red Wings Meet Guy Bush Gassers Sunday

The Arlington Red Wings will be hosted by a strong Chicago aggregation, the Guy Bush Gassers, this Sunday. The local team will have to be at their best if they expect to out-run these reputed players from Chicago.

The Red Wings met defeat at the hands of the Peters Colored Union Giants last Sunday. The home club was held to four hits while the opposing team collected nine hits to win 4 to 0. Schaefer and Diederich pitched for the Red Wings, with Bolte behind the plate.

New Motorcycle Arrives Cruising Speed 90 M.P.H.

No longer will drivers of high speed cars be able to laugh at Arlington Heights. That village received this week a new Indian motorcycle, the cruising speed of which is 90 miles per hour. The police department of that village, however, has not been waiting for a new motorcycle to stop speeders as 43 arrests were made since the first of June.

Paddock Club Under New Management

The Paddock Club, located on Rand road west of Wilke road, is now under new management. Ed. Wayne, new proprietor, is the owner of the Noosgow Cafe, 2521 Milwaukee Ave., and has had much experience in running popular dine and dance halls. For the present, the place will be open every Friday and Saturday evening, with four floor shows nightly. Free fish fry Friday night.

FINES PROVE ACTIVITY OF POLICE DEPT.

Arlington buys new Street Truck; Appropriations To Be Made Next

The Arlington Heights village board held a busy meeting Monday night, completing the session in time to view the eclipse of the moon, between 11 and 12 o'clock.

The police department of Arlington Heights has been conducting an active campaign against speeders and other violators of the motor vehicle law. The report of that department gave a total of $149 received in fines since June 1 with 12 cases pending. A total of 43 arrests have been made. The special motorcycle fund will soon be able to pay the cost of the new motorcycle, reported Alderman Schneberger, chairman of that committee.

The Chicago Motor Club has promised to send a safetyman to Arlington Heights to investigate general safety conditions here.

Five bids for furnishing fire hose were reported to the board, the lowest being 72c a foot for double strength. Upon motion the matter was referred to the fire and water committee and a committee from the fire department.

Attorney Thal reported that the PWA had acknowledged receipt of letter regarding plea of village that bond No. 3 be included as among those to be cancelled by the government, in place of a bond of later issue.

Spencer White & Co., with the approval of Attorney Cassidy, has asked that the village enter into an arrangement whereby receipts to be credited to the big sewer, can be used to pay bonds in the order in which they are issued, in place of pro rating said amount to all the bonds. Attorney Thal was directed to inform the contractors that the board was agreeable to such a plan provided the bond holders would connect. Spencer White & Co. control all of the outstanding bonds, except about $50,000, which are held more or less locally.

Auditor Laurin reported that the treasurer had been accepting anticipated warrants in payment for water rentals, business licenses and vehicle tags and at the present time there are $1300 of 1932 warrants held as cash.

Mayor Flentje reported that the repairs had been made by the village to the concrete mixer that had been borrowed from the owner, who now offered to sell it to the village for $100. A motion was passed directing its purchase for that amount.

Alderman Schneberger reported that the hospital bill and the physician fee in the Skoog accident still remained unsettled. An investigation was ordered with inquiry to be made of the insurance company.

The board offered the contract for a new street truck to the International people, whose bid of $1,115 with an allowance of $115 for the old truck, was accepted with the provision that the truck manufacturers return the old truck to the village without cost to them. Trustee Schaefer voting no.

Bids opened at previous meeting about the 25th of June, Thomas had ranked from $885 for a Ford truck to $1,146 for a Studebaker truck. Allowance for trade-in ranged from $200 offered by Chevrolet to $50 in the bid of G. M. C.

The street committee reported the laying of 1532 square feet of sidewalk with the aid of relief labor. Three-quarters of the July 1 water bills were paid within the discount period, reported trustee Burns.

An invitation was read asking that the village be represented at a meeting to be held Thursday night in Geneva, when members of the state sanitary water board and engineers will be present to discuss treatment problems. The matter was referred to the sanitary committee, of which G. Framberg is chairman with the recommendation that operator Geo. Harris attend with any others who can do so.

Bills and payroll amounting to $1,060.20 were passed. The treasurer's report was referred to the finance committee.

The board was informed that the Workman's liability insurance extended to all employees, but the village would have to reimburse the insurance company for any payments made on account of a relief laborer.

The board adjourned to Wednesday evening when the annual appropriation ordinance will be considered and passed.

Many Bargains at Hagenbring Coupon Clearance Sale

Hagenbring's 5c to $1 store, the home of bargains in Arlington Heights every day in the year, is holding a clearance coupon sale starting Friday and continuing until next Wednesday night. Many of the items are closeouts upon which especially low prices are quoted. There is probably not a home that does not have use for some of the items shown in the adv. upon page 5 of this issue.

THREE-YEAR-OLD CHAMPIONSHIP

OMAHA BLACK HELEN

WILLIAM WOODWARD'S Omaha, outstanding among the three-year-old colts by virtue of victories in the Kentucky Derby, Preknass, Belmont Stakes and Dwyer Stakes, and Col. E. R. Bradley's Black Helen, queen of the fillies with triumphs in the American Derby, Coaching Club American Oaks and Florida Derby, are the principals in the seventh running of the $40,000 Classic Stakes at Arlington Park Saturday, July 20. A victory for either will give Omaha or Black Helen undisputed possession of the three-year-old title. They will be opposed by about ten others over the testing route of one mile and a quarter.

Railroad Engineers and Village Agree on Width Of Three Cross Streets

There is something more than just laying the concrete to the widening with relief labor of Vail, Dunton and Evergreen streets across the railroad property. An engineer from the North Western railroad was in Arlington Heights Tuesday and reached a tentative agreement with Mayor Flentje relative to this work. It will be necessary to change crossing gates, as well as stop signs. Vail street widening will only be six feet on each side of the present pavement.

Dunton and Evergreen streets will be widened an additional 20 feet, making them the same width as adjoining portions of those streets. Actual work on the widening was started Tuesday under direction of street commissioner Luehring.

Wife of Barrington Theatre Owner Burned To Death in Garage

Mrs. Wright Catlow, wife of Barrington theatre owner, met a tragic death Friday evening when fire broke out in the garage, which was partially destroyed by fire. When the firemen arrived upon the scene they were not aware that a body was within the building. Mr. Catlow was called to the scene of the fire, only to learn a few minutes later that his wife had met her death. It is supposed that she was killed with naphtha, which occasioned the fire.

The funeral services were held at the Baptist church Monday afternoon.

Old Age Pension Provisions Announced By Secretary State

Due to the widespread interest in the passage of the Old Age Security Act which was promptly signed by Gov. Horner and which is to go into effect January 1, 1936, the Paddock Publications are publishing the essential features of the law, a copy of which has been sent by the secretary of state to all newspapers in Illinois.

Those who had painted a roseate picture of the benevolence that was being bestowed upon the aged by a bounteous legislature are going to be a trifle chagrined when they examine the Old Age Security Act closely. They will find it "not so hot." The condition of the aged, propertyless people without income, the completely destitute, will be improved somewhat. Outside of that, the new act provides practically nothing.

A recipient of the pension must be 65 years of age, a citizen of the United States, a resident of the state at least ten of the last fifteen years and not an inmate of any municipal, state, county or national institution.

The amount of the pension will be fixed with due regard to conditions existing in each case, but in no case shall it exceed one dollar per day.

To receive the pension, no applicant may have an income in excess of $5 per week nor possess property amounting to more than $5,000 in value.

The net income of the applicant and the pension he receives shall in no case when added together exceed $550 per year.

At the death of the recipient of a pension the total amount paid under this act shall be allowed as a claim against his estate. If the recipient was possessed of income or property in excess of the amount provided by the Act or obtained relief by false representation, double the amount paid in excess of what he was legally entitled shall be allowed as a claim against the estate.

But no claim shall be enforced against any real estate of a recipient while it is occupied by a surviving spouse, provided the spouse is not more than 15 years younger and does not remarry. If a recipient should come into possession of property or income in excess of the amount provided by this Act, he shall notify the state department of administration.

Wedding Ceremony for Libertyville Couple Was Performed Here

Mr. Arthur E. Armstrong and Miss Ruby E. Williams of Libertyville, Ill., were happily united at a pretty wedding celebrated at the Methodist parsonage on Thursday afternoon. The happy couple were accompanied by the bride's mother and friends from Libertyville where the bride and groom are popular young people.

Mr. Armstrong is manager for the Quaker Oats Experimental farm located west of their home town where they will reside after August 1. After a drive into Canada the young housekeepers will be at home to their friends.

Former Des Plaines Treasurers Defendants In $90,000 Suit

Seven former treasurers and collectors of Des Plaines will be included as defendants in the suit involving $90,000 in eight special assessments. The complaint alleges that the city has used special assessment funds for general corporate purposes. The suit may include officials from the year 1925 to date, along with individuals and bonding corporations who signed their respective bonds. Plaintiff in the suit, which will be heard before Judge Epstein in the Circuit Court of Cook County, is the Cedar Rapids Life Insurance company and a list of other holders of unpaid bonds and interest in the eight assessments involved.

Swimming Popular Recreation for Many Children

The summertime recreation which the boys and girls of Arlington Heights are enjoying, is proving still more popular. The need of a swimming pool in Arlington Heights is especially being demonstrated by the increasing number of young people who join the parties to the Barrington pool. Transportation is furnished and the fee for swimming for children is only ten cents.

Public Invited to Meeting

The general public is invited to attend the next meeting of the Arlington Heights recreation association, which will be held in the municipal building Monday evening. Parents are especially invited.

FISH DAY IS EVERY DAY AT THE A & P

It is fish day every day at the A & P store. Meeting a demand for choice fish other than Fridays, special fish refrigerated counters have been placed in these stores. John Angelloff, manager of the Campbell street store, says, "there is no reason why the public can not enjoy desired fish food oftener than once a week"—and his customers are welcoming the opportunity. From three to five kinds are received fresh daily.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Collignon are parents of an 8 pound son, born Sunday morning.

SCHAUMBURG WOMAN DIES BY OWN HAND

Miss Amanda Fasse Was Found Dead in Basement by Sister

Miss Amanda Fasse, age 42 years, of Schaumburg, took her life last Thursday afternoon at the farm of her sister, Mrs. Lichthardt, on Bode road, in Schaumburg township. Mrs. Lichthardt found the body suspended from the rafter in the basement. An inspection of the corpse by Dr. J. C. Schmidtke of Palatine, who was immediately called indicated that death had occurred about an hour before his arrival.

An inquest held by Coroner English last Friday concluded that Miss Fasse had committed suicide while temporarily insane during despondency. The jury consisted of O. C. Taege, Herbert Kelle, Geo. Dunton, Gilbert and Charles Lackey, and O. G. Bolte.

Miss Fasse has been living at her sister's home for the past two months. Since the death of her mother in January, she had been strangely moody and depressed, testimony revealed.

War or No War, Tire Prices are Low at Gaare Palatine Station

Whether or not it is another tire war or not, the writer does not know but Otto Gaare of the Daisy Service Station and Gaare Oil Co. at Palatine says that he is selling tires cheaper today than at any other period this summer. He is also prepared to meet all competition. This all sounds rather good to the autoist who needs new tires before starting upon that vacation trip. A year's guarantee goes with the tires sold by Gaare. A few of the low prices are given in the adv. on page two of this issue.

St. John's Church Plans Summer Program

The pastor of the St. John's Evangelical church of Arlington Heights is planning to overcome the summer-slump in church interest by creating a series of Sunday morning programs which will become a special inducement to the congregation.

A choir concert was the feature of the service last Sunday. Rev. Recht of Prairie View is on the program this Sunday, July 28. Left open for a sermon by Rev. M. L. Straube, and the following service will be taken up by Rev. and Mrs. M. Albrecht, Missionaries from India. Rev. Prof. C. Bauer of Elmhurst college will be the speaker August 11. Rev. J. Ellerbrake is scheduled for August 18. Plans are also under way for a great September rally. Announcements will be made.

CCC Boys Home on Leave, Report Many Experiences in camp

Four Arlington Heights boys who have been members of 635th company of the CCC stationed at Camp Ontonagon, Michigan, have been home the past two weeks having completed their six months period. A number of them are returning to camp well satisfied with the treatment accorded them. There are a few dull moments in the camp, but the boys put on weight. There are a number of extra activities, including the publication of a camp newspaper.

All of the expenses of the boys are paid and they receive $30 a month as salary. Five dollars is given them for incidental expenses and the remainder is sent home to their parents.

Six Arlington Heights boys went to camp last January. Christopher Dettman and Charles Weisenbach returned home in April. The others, Clarence Schaeffer, George Sheldon, Fred Durni and Louis Van Gelder remained the full six months.

NEW DIRECTORY SHOWS GAINS IN POPULATION

Descendants of German Pioneers Predominate; A Town of Meyers

A perusal of the 1935 municipal directory of Arlington Heights shows a gain in population of an even hundred since the 1930 census when the last directory was issued. It also shows that the majority of the Arlington Heights citizens are of German parentage. There are over sixty citizens, over 18 years of age whose last name is Meyer. The total number in these families is 94. There is no other family name that approaches that one in numbers. The nearest is Johnson, with a score of 18, and Niemeyer with 16. The Garms and Gieseke family have 11 and 10 respectively. There are a great many other families in the nine and ten bracket. Incidentally there are only seven Busses in Arlington Heights, compared with several times that number who reside in Elk Grove.

The Smiths, who usually head the list in most communities have only six in Arlington Heights, although their German cousins, Schmidt or Schmitt, number as many more.

The 1935 municipal directory will be ready for distribution within the next few days. It was compiled by Daisy Daniels and printed by H. C. Paddock & Sons. It is made possible by local business firms who contracted for advertising space. The business directory in the center of the book is a new innovation and received the cooperation of the majority of business houses, although there are a few business and professional vocations that are not represented.

Outside firms are listed only where such trades are not represented in Arlington Heights.

The books will be distributed free to every home in Arlington Heights with an additional copy to every business house cooperating.

COMPETITION

IT IS an excellent human quality, this ambition to excel. It is the stimulus of growth. Few of us can run our best without a pacemaker and a goal with a prize in view. Teachers found this out long ago and made the most of it.

"Look at this, John Smith. Five right out of ten. Fifty per cent. Harold, you got a hundred. That's a mark to be proud of. If I were you, John Smith, I wouldn't let Harold show me up like that. Maybe he is smarter than you are?"

"Finished already, Caroline? Always the first. Gertrude, aren't you ever going to catch up to your friend? She's leaving you far behind. Don't let her beat you like that."

Such prodding stirs the competitive instinct to action.

Ambition has been stirred but it was of that kind of ambition worthy men have died. It is an unworthy ambition. It rested on personal grudging, fear, and finally hatred. Bitter feeling is the certain result of such competition. The children take sides, the parents take sides and soon the community is involved in a wasteful struggle to place their entry first. Victory costs too much.

Competition is essential to sturdy ambition but the competition should be centered upon one's self. It is much harder to get a child to compete with his self of yesterday than it is to stir him to fight against his classmate. But when we consider the aim of this competition there can be no question about the sort we want to foster. We will put a soft pedal on any competition that pits one child against another, one class against another. The only growth the child is concerned in is his own. It should be that growth he competes against and for.

Let each child have a plotting sheet. Teach him how to make a curve of his progress in the subjects that you think he needs to cultivate. Spur his interest on with all your might but keep it on that red line he is tracing on the sheet. He will be just as thrilled to see it take on heights as ever he could be to see himself downing a classmate.

Even then we have to be on guard against the wrong sort of competition. One child will have a higher peak than another, and more of them but if you have made the meaning of the chart plain no harm can be done.

Novel Suicide Cure

Up to the beginning of the Nineteenth century, England hanged anyone found guilty of attempting suicide. Thus it tried to stop its citizens from taking their lives—by guaranteeing death to those who sought it.—Collier's Weekly.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

"Sacrament" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, July 14.

The Golden Text was, "Whether therefore ye eat, or drink, or whatsoever ye do, do all to the glory of God" (1 Cor. 10:31).

Among the citations which composed the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "Moreover, brethren, I would not that ye should be ignorant, how that all our fathers were under the cloud, and all baptized unto Moses in the cloud and in the sea; And did all eat the same spiritual meat; And did all drink the same spiritual drink; for they drank of that spiritual Rock that followed them: and that Rock was Christ" (1 Cor. 10:1-4).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "Our Master taught no mere theory, doctrine, or belief. It was the divine principle of all real being which he taught and practiced. His proof of Christianity was no form or system of religion and worship, but Christian Science, working out the harmony of Life and Love" (p. 26).

What is the news folks please excuse
The wavelenghts of our skyline views;
All day, all night kept up the row,
Of when the shadow went and how,
Why patter o'er a moon's eclipse?
If suddenly the balance tips
Our town may hear news fly about,
Of big star mortals jolted out;
And fortunes wheel may turn some day.
To help true builders clear the way;
When no eclipse shall dim the light,
Of noble souls who build for right.

This the day after the eclipse, J. V. 15-16 and it was staged exactly on scheduled time, not a flaw in the presentation. Hot weather had been a few days preceding the show, but the night sky of 15 and 16 was clear and perfect. The movement of stars and moon wonderful.

Vacation days are here—"One flew east and one flew west" and think of the family groups in the grandest latest model auto seeing America first. All sending cards with the cherrio "Wish you were here."

Mrs. C. F. Becker and family have gone up to Northern Wisconsin to enjoy the blueberry season and share in harvesting them.

Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Capps have gone for their summer vacation, leaving home last of the week.

The J. A. Daltens of North Belmont avenue started last week to join the sights and summer breezes of some more delightful place than this old prairie town.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Mitzlaff leased their home in Stonegate for the park season and have gone to spend the time at Camp Barrington.

Last Sunday the Emmanuel Reimer family, Mr. and Mrs. Schnurstein and Mr. Poedicker from Chicago, spent the day as guests of the Allen Schulte family.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Landmeier returned home last week from their vacation outing.
Don't forget the luncheon served by the Presbyterian Aid Society in the church dining hall Wednesday each week in July from 11:30 morning to 1:30 afternoon, wholesome, satisfying menu—35 cents.

Barbara McWharter and her classmate, Mary Mors, spent three days this week with Barbara's grandmother, Mrs. A. F. Volz, in her summer home, Geneva Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter H. Dick of North State Road returned home last week after spending some time at Hayward, Northern Wisconsin. They enjoyed a pleasant time camping and fishing, and they brought home fish to prove their fishing brought results, besides giving a rare cosmetic that gave them a complexion brown as berries.

The Arthur Schmitz family are again at their summer camp on the Fox River at Cary, where they enjoy a variety of summer pastime and change.

Mrs. William Schoepke's birthday was on Friday, July 12, when she entertained a company of her friends to leave a happy memory of the date in her home on South Vail. Choice refreshments, games and pleasant evening with their genial hosts who received sincere wishes for many returns of her birthday, each one happier than the last.

Miss Marion Fessler spent several days recently the guest of relatives in Chicago.

This cool northwest breeze is delightful today, but it may not be good for corn.

Mrs. J. D. Flentie and her daughter, Mrs. G. H. Wilke, spent a fortnight or longer up at Potter's Lake in the Northland. A delightful place to go in hot weather.

Miss Elizabeth Bray and Miss Bella Grimm of Mount Prospect, are spending their vacation among the scenic wonders of the west, including the Worlds Fair at San Diego, California.

Mr. George F. Peterson returned to his work in Chicago, after enjoying a two weeks vacation with his wife at Long Lake, Wisconsin. With them were two friends from Evanston. They rented a summer cottage and enjoyed every passing minute of the change and freedom of the out of doors.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Schulte and family accompanied by Miss Ruth Karstens, have gone to visit friends and relatives at Logansville and Reedsburg in Wisconsin.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Flentie have leased their home for the Park season and are making their home for a vacation change with his parents, Mayor and Mrs. J. D. Flentie on North Belmont avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Crane spent most of their vacation in side trip around their home vicinity. One day at Milwaukee, one day at Geneva to visit Mrs. Volz in her lake side home.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Palmer came home last week from their pleasant stay in the vicinity of the White mountains, where they could from a lofty height, gain a wonderful view of the ocean. Their stay in that beautiful place was with their daughters, whose home is there.

Mr. and Mrs. George Prasinos returned first of this week from their wedding tour. The bride's parents were in their home on West Euclid to welcome their returning, where they stayed to keep the home fires burning during their tour.

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Wilke of No. Belmont avenue have leased their home during the Park season to the people whom they knew, and in the meantime will rest and enjoy the hospitality of his parents on North Wilke road.

The Social Five Hundred meet with Mrs. August Schulenburg in her home on South Evergreen avenue Thursday this week.

More July babies, Mr. and Mrs. Steven Kovick are the parents of a little daughter born July 5, 1935.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Kosmin are parents of a little daughter, born July 6, 1935.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Graham are the parents of a little son born July 9, 1935.

The Little Flower Club were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Albert Goedke Thursday last week in their home on West Wing street.

Miss Myrtle Thomas entertained a group of seven friends from Chicago last Sunday in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Thomas on Kensington Road. It was a delightful day in the pure country air, and an ideal party with an ideal hostess.

The Friendly class of the Presbyterian church are giving a dinner in the church hall Tuesday next week, served from 5:30 to 7:30 evening—choice menu, don't miss it.

Mrs. Edna Held returned Monday this week to her employment in the city after a week's vacation spent at home.

Miss K. J. Kealey spent last Sunday with her friend, Mrs. Huldah Beth in her home in Michigan.

Mrs. Richard Wilcox was a guest in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Watson, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Schmitz entertained a family gathering of relatives and friends in their home July 4. It was indeed one of the Schmitz frequent "Open House" days and there were more than 60 guests who enjoyed their cheerful "open air" hospitality. Athletic games and bountiful refreshments. Their son, Earl Schmitz, came from Rockford, bringing one of his friends to share the family party. The large grounds about the old family home and the cheerful hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Schmitz, make their entertainment a joy to their guests.

Mrs. Martin Wilke and her two daughters are spending this week with relatives at Kaneville and Geneva.

Mr. Nathan Richardson spent Sunday in Chicago with his cousins, the Reed brothers.

Little Donald, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Cunningham of North Vail, who has been ill for several weeks past, is now convalescing. A recent visit from his grandfather and aunt, Dorothy, from Indianapolis, helped to cheer the little invalid.

Mrs. Hefferen and her daughter, Miss Ruth, had a happy surprise visit Sunday from Mrs. Whitehead from St. Louis. They had not seen her for some time and were joyful to have her as their guest. Mrs. Whitehead was formerly forelady of the department when Miss Ruth worked in the Benjamin Electric.

In all your pleasant summer activities, don't forget to be hoarded white elephants for that autumn rummage sale.

The auxiliary of V. F. W. went to Elgin one day last week to carry cheer and friendly greetings to our boys in the hospital there. Ice cream, cup cakes as "cats." The people whom they knew, and in the meantime will rest and enjoy the hospitality of his parents on North Wilke road.

Mr. Charles Kenny and his wife were staying for the Park season with the Roy Dickersons in the home of Mrs. Fred Schmitt, who spent the time as a vacation with friends. Mr. Kenny was taken sick last week and his parents, Dr. and Mrs. Kenny came up and took him home to Kentucky last of the week.

The Friendly class are giving a dinner Tuesday next week in the Parish dining hall from 5:30 to 7:30. A fine menu is to be prepared, be sure and get tickets early from the class—price 50 cents.

Fan Death Notices Used
In the days when there were no newspapers in the Henderson (N. C.) section to announce deaths, it was the custom to write notices longhand, faster them to a palm leaf fan and have a servant carry them to the doors of friends.

NOTES FROM THE PALATINE COMMUNITY HOSPITAL

The Community hospital at Palatine is used by so many Arlington Heights people, this paper will hereafter give reports in this column of local people who are receiving care at that institution.

Edwin H. Meyer, of Arlington Heights, was operated upon for a acute appendicitis Wednesday morning.

Miss Clare Maede of Arlington Heights, had an operation for chronic appendicitis at Community hospital recently and is doing well.

Irwin Niemeyer after convalescing nicely from a recent operation for acute appendicitis has returned to his home in Arlington Heights.

Verlie Wickenkamp, a victim of a recent automobile crash, is recovering from her injuries at Community hospital. During the past week she had an operation for open wiring of two fractures of the lower jaw.

Mrs. John Haenker of Arlington Heights who has been a patient at the hospital for medical treatment, has returned home.

Bert Blomquist has returned home from the local hospital where he received treatment for automobile injuries.

University Sunday At Lutheran Church Dr. Baur will Preach

St. Peter Lutheran church has set aside both services Sunday morning in the interest of the Lutheran university at Valparaiso, Indiana. This institution of higher learning has been in the hands of the Lutheran people since 1925, and since that time it has been completely transformed into one of the outstanding universities of the country on the basis of scholastic achievements. It has become known as "the poor man's university" because of the opportunities it offers to young people of moderate means to acquire a college education. Several young men of Arlington Heights are now students of this school, Robert Meyer, Fred Giesecke, Lester Malzahn and Edgar Flentie. The latter acquired his degree and was graduated in June.

The purpose of the special services Sunday is to stimulate on the part of the Lutheran public an active interest in their school of higher learning. Dr. John Baur, a representative of Valparaiso University, will deliver the sermons on the subject of "Christian College Education" in German at 9:30 and in English at 11 a. m. All friends of religious education are cordially invited to hear this noted speaker make a plea for a Christ-centered education.

Pure Carbon
Pure carbon exists in three modifications — amorphous (charcoal, lampblack, or coke), graphite, and diamond. Needless to say, the first form burns quite readily. The other two can be burned, but not under ordinary conditions. Compressed oxygen and a fairly high ignition temperature are usually necessary for their combustion. The heat given off in burning, however, is much the same for all three forms. The minerals or ash of coal contribute nothing to its heat value. The heat comes entirely from the oxidation of the coal's carbon and hydrogen, and chiefly from the former.

Once Called Sommer
Beranda has not always had its present name. According to an old record, it was first called "Sommer Island," as well in respect to the continual temporal area as in remembrance of Sir George Sommer.

Fifteen-Foot Tusk Found
The American Museum of Natural History received from Texas an imperial mammoth tusk 15 feet 4 inches long, believed to have weighed as fresh ivory almost 300 pounds.

Indians Were Planters
When the first explorers came to the lower Mississippi River valley they found the aborigines skillfully growing maize, beans, potatoes, artichokes, squash, peanuts, tobacco and cabbage.

Dinosaurs Short-Lived
Dinosaurs were short-lived, large-headed creatures some six feet in length and mere miniatures when compared with some of the reptiles which later dominated earth and water.

Scout Leaders Attend Mid Summer Training Course

A good group of Scout leaders and officials attended the opening of the mid-summer Training Course in Scouting Administration at the Mary Wilson House last Tuesday evening. Under the direction of Scout Executive Nintz these men will discuss the various phases and features of Scouting, its program, organization and purpose. At last Tuesday's session the evening was given over to the discussion of the philosophy of Scouting and the organization that has made it possible to provide a program for the world over. The course is the world over. The next session will be held next Tuesday evening, July 23, at which time the discussion will be continued and the fundamentals of the administration of scouting in the troop will be the major part of the work. The course is open to all men and national training certificates will be issued to those that complete the work. The course is conducted under the leadership of the leadership and training committee of the Northwest Suburban Council.

Local Delegation Growing

Scout Executive C. O. Nintz announced that 15 local Scouts were already registered with the Northwest Suburban Council contingent, six more boys have made tentative registrations and several others are contemplating registering before the deadline next Sunday. At least five Scout leaders will accompany the local contingent which is headed by Mr. Edw. H. Stehman,
Scoutmaster of Troop 1 of Park Ridge. Serving with him in leadership capacity will be Scoutmaster R. H. Boettcher of Troop 2 of Morton Grove and Asst. Scoutmaster Edw. Fritz of Troop 2 of Park Ridge. President of the Council, Clifford C. Gregg and Scout Executive Nintz will also accompany the group and it is expected other members of the Executive Board and local scout group will make reservations. The local contingent will leave for Washington, Monday evening, August 19, arriving there the afternoon of the following day after a short stopover at Harpers Ferry. They will travel in special air-conditioned coaches. They will leave Washington Saturday, August 31, arriving home on Sunday morning.

Two Local Leaders Added to Camp Staff

Due to the large enrollment at Camp Oh-Da-Ko-Ta the summer home of Northwest Suburban Scouts at Dyer Lake, Wisconsin, two additional leaders have been added to the already large camp staff. Both are from the Northwest Suburban Council. Asst. Scoutmaster, Fred Cheever, of troop 20, Des Plaines, will assist in the water front work and the administration of the nautical unit. Eagle Scout Geo. Hand of troop 1 of Park Ridge will assist in the base camp and help in the direction of the two troops making up that unit.

The camp is filled to capacity this week with the registrations constantly increasing for the remaining two weeks which may be necessary to extend the camp season for another week. All Scouts desiring to attend camp are urged to get registrations in to the local Scout Headquarters so that they may be assured places in the unit of their choice.

Honor Camper
Robt. Frankhauser of Troop 20 of Des Plaines was selected as the honor camper for last week. This selection is made on the basis of best all around camper and will entitle Scout Frankhauser to a medal which will be awarded at the first Court of Honor of the season this fall. Due to the details involved in preparation for the Scout Jamboree the usual honor campers trip will not be possible this year.

Those in camp at the present time are: George Johnson, Duane Rowe, Jack Sweeney, Robt. White, Kent Burgess, Wm. Steiner, Howard Ward, Lewis Sale, Wm. Johnson, Geo. Pasternak, Frank Gregg, Grant Watson, Robt. Mielke, Ed.
Lawson of Park Ridge.

Erwin Blaha, Billy Raymond,
Billy Kinder, Geo. Hackmeister, Albert Hackmeister, Howard Yates, Alex Campbell, Dick Richards and
R. Frankhauser of Des Plaines.

Chas. Proctor and Alan Reinshag-en of Arlington Heights; A. Fassbender, Edw. Vaelik, Arthur Miller, Jas. Utpadel, Elwin Kruse of Wheeling, Wm. Saul of Barrington.
John Harpham of Park Ridge and Ted Foster of Niles Center have been on the camp staff since the camp opened.

MRS. ALICE B. WHITING

From the Tribune last week we quote the following: "Alice B.
Whiting, July 12; daughter of the late David and Hattie Barringer, sister of Walter M. Barringer. Funeral services private, in chapel, 4227 Cottage Grove avenue, Saturday, July 13. Private interment in Mount Hope cemetery."

In Arlington she was known as Mrs. J. V. Whiting, their home beautiful and made into a slightly modern home by Mr. and Mrs.
Whiting. One of the features to mark it as an American home was a large flag of enduring beauty and material, the pride of J. V. Whit-ing's heart, always unfurled on our national holidays. This flag was given to the public school where Mr. Whiting was often a member of the board. There are many here who can sincerely testify to the kindness of Mrs. Alice Whiting's heart and who remember as helping many in need of a kind friend have heard of her going with regret. The former home of Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Whiting on Campbell street, is now known as the American Legion Home.

AMANDA FASSE

Amanda Fasse was born February 20, 1893 in Schaumburg, Ill., and was baptized and confirmed in the Schaumburg Lutheran church.
She passed away Thursday afternoon, July 11, 1935, at the home of her sister, Mrs. August Licht-hardt, at Schaumburg, at the age of 42 years, 4 months and 21 days.
She leaves to mourn her departure, one sister, Mrs. Aug. Licht-hardt of Schaumburg; one brother,
Mr. Herman Fasse of Elgin; one sister-in-law; two brothers-in-law.
Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at Karstens Funeral Home at Arlington Heights, at 1:00
p. m., and interment was in Schaumburg cemetery.

following year he received Holy Baptism and was confirmed in 1875.
At the age of 22 he came to America with his parents in 1883, where they located in Arlington Heights.
February 15, 1892, he was united into the bonds of holy matrimony with Mrs. Catherine Koebemmann, nee Kuehling, who survives him.
This union was blessed with six children, three sons and three daughters, of whom one daughter, Elsie preceded her father in death at the age of 17 years in 1918.
After their marriage, Mr. and Mrs.
Krueger lived for several years on a farm in Town Elk Grove. From there they removed to near Bensenville, where they resided about 20 years. The last 8 years Mr. Krueger had retired from farm life to Arlington Heights. Since last winter his health began to fail and in the last months he was very weak and feeble. He passed away Friday afternoon, July 5, about 2 p. m., thus attaining the age of 73 years,
6 months and 15 days.

TO REBUILD SEWAGE PLANT

Due to the fact that the State Board of Health has notified Deerfield that its sewage disposal plants must be rebuilt, the city has passed its annual appropriation bill with $125,000 set aside for that purpose.
The U. S. government will give as a gift forty-five per cent of the total cost.

New Law to End
Non-District Problems
At High School

An end to the tuition problem as concerns students from non-high school districts is seen in the passage on June 20 of House Bill 297 which provided for the assessing of seventy-five cents per one hundred dollars assessed value for high school purposes in non-high school districts. The former limit was fifty cents.

It is believed that this will allow the non-high school board, which must pay the tuition of students living outside the district, to raise sufficient funds for the pur-

OBSERVER'S NOTES

"Grow old gracefully," this phrase it's irony who shall explain? The lofty mountain wins your gaze Yet you seek life and growth in vain. Grow old gracefully as a tree Upward and outward it's spread Shade and shelter ever to be A boon to the weary ones head, On life's pathway ever to trace Kindness and joy—the spirit of grace.

Is this better to not think about self or age too much, just keep on growing. If the spirit of grace rules your acts, and your purposes, it will be sure to radiate from you to bless the lives about you.

We know how Jane Addams grew old gracefully, thinking of others more than of self. Not one bit worrying about the grace of outward appearance, not her added years. The spirit never grows old. Though the poor house it lives in does bother us getting out of repair.

Along comes the moon staging a total eclipse at an unconscionable hour Monday night and Tuesday morning. Whether Madam Luna wears a jeweled wrist watch or the latest radioed Bulova her dates are rigidly kept. If you as me, I think she is a part old dame to shut off her glim at such an hour. Anyway be sure and see the eclipse.

There is so much of intense interest going on, picnics, banquets and private parties, and best of all came my good old Kentucky friend "Mac" with gentle wife, one of my own children. And besides themselves a luscious water melon, to share with us for Vera would eat too much of it.

This perfect weather, so many pleasant things come to pass, and so many kind friends are sharing their wealth of pleasant happenings and experiences within the week past. One going up in Michigan to spend the day with a dear friend, another had a raise in wages. Others wrote or told of little joy all unexpected which came to them.

This is the sharing of real riches. If only our newspapers could learn that the telling and glowing over crime suggest and bring about more crime. One of our daily papers, (and all do the same) had a whole page of pictures showing those who had taken part or were to be witnesses, a gory tale of horror. Will not some wise journalist do the world a favor by giving us a paper devoted to telling of good accomplished and pictures of good people, who are making the world a better place to live in.

Had a letter from a dear friend the other day who used to breeze in and tell us the latest rumor especially if it held a touch of humor. In her letter she sent a clipping from some paper or magazine, pretty soon I am going to share it with you, just as that kind friend shared her cheery riches with me. Here it is:

"A big silver dollar and a little brown cent, Rolling along together went; Rolling along on the smooth sidewalk. When the dollar remarked (for dollars do talk) 'You poor little cent, you cheap little mite I am bigger, and twice as bright, I'm worth more than you a hundred fold. And written on me in letters bold In a motto drawn from a pious creed In God we trust which all may read.' 'Yes, I know,' said the cent, 'I'm a cheap little mite. And I know I'm not big nor good nor bright. And yet, said the cent with a meek little sigh, You don't go to church as often as I.'"

Pretty cute wasn't it? When more people will cultivate sharing the good deeds they hear of our own people doing, when more of us gloomy minded folks will be urged to look on the bright side, to think of good and kindly deeds and most of all to cultivate cheerfulness and a sense of humor, and share their best thoughts, the world will grow better for all.

Sunday, July 14, the St. James R. C. church held a picnic in Meyers Park and St. Peters held their Altenheimfest. Strains of music come to us over the air in perfect 1893. We attended the first one given, as the home was dedicated. It was an impressive service. Many were there who are no more in the earthly congregation.

Arlington Heights citizens have cause to be thankful that the races are not carried on Sunday. I trust there are those in town who look after the strangers here and invite them into our churches. There may be those who are far from home and in trouble.

Why be grumbling and brooding over trouble. Why find fault when something has gone wrong? Don't you know "From the day you are born 'till you ride in your hearse, there is nothing so bad that might not be worse." This is a good old world, the best you ever lived in. Cheer up, don't be a grouch.

You get up in the morning, Ready to jaw and flout, First your coffee you are scorning, You've a mind to throw it out.

You pick up the morning paper, Ready to read the news, Of Congress' latest caper And that Eagle with the "blues."

Your church is in a muddle, Heels overhead in debt; The church board in a huddle Give you greater grouches yet.

You grouch about the weather, The assessments and the taxes, Politicians altogether Are now grinding axes.

O can't you cease complaining? Cheer up! Come help us try. Our standards high maintaining, If you will, so will I.

In true cooperation Let us at once begin; Thus in church, in town and nation, We shall as victors win.

It is a pleasure to have surprise visits from friends, old or young. Such a surprise we enjoyed one day last week when Miss Margaret Telfer, who so completely belongs, breezed in with three of her cousins, one of them Mrs. Davies, who bought us a sketch of the life of Prof. Jesse Lowe Smith as printed in the Highland Park Press at the time of his death, April, 1934. As this wonderful humanitarian and nature lover had given two or three of his informing talks in this town and is known to many, we quote a brief extract from this sketch.

"Thirty-two years over the schools in Highland Park, half of his lifetime. What one got from him was not limited or restricted by what he was willing to give, but only by what one was capable of receiving." He was a public spirited citizen; in him was finely manifested that thing America must recover, an interest in the community, its organized life. Just before going to the hospital he said to one of his assistants, "Take care of the children's garden, the garden in which they worked, played and grew." Mrs. Davies, whose husband was Prof. Smith's assistant, loaned us this sketch.

Other old friends heard from last week were the W. Don Smiths. Yes, a letter from another branch of the Smith family, well known, respected and beloved by many in Arlington Heights, where Mr. Smith was for eight years in charge of our public school and in example, teaching and influence has never been excelled. Mrs. Smith was Mistress of the "Permanent waves" of good cheer and humor.

Yes, Mrs. Maude Smith, when all seemed down and out would breeze in with some amusing gossip, some picturesque account of our towns highlights or "Old Best families." How we missed Smiths, always glad to hear from them and that they are well. Would be glad yet for a good old time visit from them.

Reckon will be compelled to close the chapter about the Smith family that though numerous, has no blot on its essence and dates back to the first Smith who hammered out the gold for the crown of England's first king. Could you beat that for a family record. Its now time to preach a bit.

A few years ago a great tidal wave destroyed many lives, homes and vast wealth on the coast of Texas. In speaking of this sad destruction of life and property, several Christian ministers referred to it as coming "In the Providence of God." And one whom never forgets stood up bravely and said the terrible was caused not by the Providence of God, but was "due to the improvidence of man." They builded on a spot known to have been often swept by tidal waves, yet in their foolish improvidence, headed not the danger.

So do we abuse the things which, if used sanely and right are for our good. In our improvidence we allow people on the highways to drive autos who are mentally unfit either by nature or a drink that upsets the nerves of their brains and death and destruction result. We read so many tragic tales of automobile accidents and sometimes question whether the motor car has brought to us more of good than of evil. However, when we think of the number of families in Arlington Heights who have taken motor trips north, south, east and west, seeing America first, the appeal of the automobile, rightly used outweighs the evil.

Swiftly over the great highway, Happy families ride today; Father, mother, daughter and son, Glad in their going, everyone.

Into the lands of spruce and pine, Round the rims of lakes that shine; Cool are the breezes, blue the skies, Quickly the glad vacation flies.

Who can measure the good that flows Where the family auto goes? On and on, where billows break Over the shores of our greatest lake.

On to the mammoth waterfalls, Where the voice of ceaseless wonder calls, On where historic scenes are spread, Mountains towering overhead.

Into the heart of our cities great, Crown of the proud old Empire state;

Through the hub of the universe, Boston famed in story and verse. Then to our Nations capitol, Pride of patriots, great or small; Some may swing to the southern clime, Of palms and endless summer time.

Home then, drive through each changing scene, Rocky hillsides and forests green; Home with a treasured store of

Oldest Symbol
The fish is considered the oldest symbol of Christianity. When the pagans first became Christians they were afraid of being persecuted and put to death by those who still believed in pagan gods; so they invented a secret sign, giving it the form of a fish. When they wanted to make their new and beautiful belief known to each other and wanted to find out whether the man with whom they associated was pagan or Christian, they drew the sign of the fish in the sand, and if the person responded in the same way, they felt safe to speak of their new faith.

Arctic Trips Traced to 330 B. C.
Arctic explorations may have begun with Pytheas, Greek navigator, who about 330 B. C., sailed from Massilia, now Marseilles, and discovered the British Isles, possibly reaching Norway.

Curry is defined as a kind of condiment introduced from India, containing turmeric (which gives it a yellow color), curry leaves, garlic, pepper, ginger and other strong spices.

Reveille

Of more than unusual interest will be the raising of the main Camp Flag at the Boy Scouts' Jamboree in Washington, August 21-30, for that flag will have been the first dedicated by having one of its stars sewn on by none other than the great-great grand niece of The Flag's maker, Betsy Ross, in the very home in Philadelphia where Betsy Ross received General Washington when he came to ask her to design the emblem for the new country, and, first flown from the 80-foot steel flag staff standing in the park about that humble cottage. Other than the very first flag which Betsy Ross made for General Washington, it is probable that no other flag ever flown has received such a notable christening. The Boy Scouts of America should feel proud that they will be the first to gaze upon these Country's Colors, when they are raised to their camp's main staff, at the Jamboree.

Timely Garden Hints

By MR. and MRS. C. H. MARBACH

To combat mildew and black spot on roses which are fungus diseases use nine parts of dusting sulphur and one part of powdered lead arsenate, mix these two dusts together. Then dust both sides of the leaves. Continue this process once a week until you are positive you have conquered these blights. The fine hairs of the leaves will hold the dust to be already for the spores of the diseases as they come about.

Aphis, or lice is a pest that likes to live on the young stems of rose growth and can be destroyed by nicotine in some form.

One part of tobacco dust added to the two above dusts will take care of all these troubles.

A prepared fungicide called Triogen, costs more than the dust, but the result is worth the difference. Dusting or spraying should be done before a rain as the fungus weather is damp.

An old fashioned flower of grandmothers' day that is becoming popular and is easy of culture and free of disease is the Hemerocallis or Day Lily. They can be had now in colors from near white through many shades of yellow, orange and near red on stems five feet in height. Their blooming period lasts about a month during July and August.

A morning glory that is very prominent and popular now is the Heavenly Blue that makes a desirable climbing vine. Whenever seen growing and in bloom, you are amazed by its beautiful shade of heavenly blue from which it derives its name.

Shed Leaves Early

When water is scarce from drouth or some such cause, deciduous trees shed their leaves early as a protective device, since it is through its leaves that a tree loses most of its moisture.

Mount Prospect

Mrs. P. H. Frey entertained friends from Chicago on Wednesday at a 1 o'clock luncheon.

Ray and Billie Salzman left Thursday morning with their grandmother, Mrs. Bush for a vacation trip to Greenville, Texas. They arrived at their destination early Friday afternoon.

Robert Landeck, son of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Landeck, preached last Sunday at Park Ridge. The Sunday before he occupied the pulpit at Barrington, and next Sunday he will conduct the services in the Elk Grove church.

Mrs. J. Bernhard was the guest of Palmer Unit of the American Legion Auxiliary on Tuesday evening.

Mr. E. T. Wolfe and family left Monday for a three-day trip to the Indiana State Park at Turkey Run.

The Misses Viola Holste, Evelyn Holste, Dorothy Landeck, Leona Malesko, Elvira Meyn, and Emma Seidel enjoyed a week's stay at Devils Lake, Wisconsin, returning last Sunday. The six young ladies drove up and occupied a beautiful cottage for the week, and returned enthusiastic over the fine time they had enjoyed at the popular Wisconsin resort.

Miss Phyllis Frey of Chicago, spent a few days visiting her grandmother, Mrs. P. H. Frey.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Schirmer were callers in Mt. Prospect on Friday evening.

NINTH DISTRICT AMERICAN LEGION AUXILIARY

The Ninth District Board meeting was held at the home of Mrs. I. Gahl of Park Ridge. At that time our membership was 1723.

Mrs. Helen Klock, rehabilitation chairman, is planning on taking cigarettes to the boys at Elgin.

We, of the District, were sorry to learn of the death of Mrs. Melin. She was a member of Melin and Rorer unit. We extend sympathy to the family.

The next meeting of the District will be held at Barrington, with Barrington unit the hostess. This will be past director's night. We expect to have as our guest Mrs. Bessie Smith, past president of the state.

COOK COUNTY BOYS STATE SUCCESSFUL39 Boys from this County Take Part in Gov't; 9th Dist. Represented

Thirty-nine Cook County boys have been conspicuous in bringing to an unusually brilliant conclusion the first Boys' State ever attempted as an instruction in actual operation of government, which closed June 29 with a ceremonial visit to Lincoln's tomb, where a wreath, bought by pennies of the boys, was placed upon the sarcophagus of the Emancipator.

The Cook county lads showed their political sagacity in capturing four of the six top "state" offices in the general election.

The camp was divided into six cities and three counties. The boys divided into two political parties called the Nationals, or conservative element; and the Federals, or liberals.

While the Nationals won the three top state offices, the liberal Federals caught the money offices and an overwhelming majority in both houses of the general assembly.

A state police force under Superintendent W. S. Schlentz displayed a diligence in camp discipline which caused their Illinois state police mentors to say they, rather, were learning from the boys.

Two corporations were recognized and issued certificates by the Secretary of State. One was for a newspaper called the Boys' State, and the other for a telephone company, which, though only 24 feet long, won from the boys industrial commission on a certificate of necessity and convenience.

The State Supreme Court issued certificates to lawyers to practice in the courts. Police Chiefs struggled with the original sin of the citizenry. Health officials checked food and sanitary conditions.

In honor of a deceased state Legion commander, the camp's first aid hospital, manned daily by doctors and nurses, who had little to do, was named the Bullington Memorial Hospital.

When the boys had organized their governments, their elders ceased all work except supervision and guidance. The national headquarters of the Legion at Indianapolis sent three national officers to watch the unique experiment in teaching good government. The camp was incorporated under Illinois laws and will be introduced all over the nation.

The boys attending from the 9th district were Joseph J. Bernhard of Mt. Prospect and John La Rocco of Melin and Rorer.

Wonderful Show In Sky Monday Night

After seeing the complete eclipse of the moon which took place on Monday night, beginning at 10:11 o'clock one may well sympathize with the ancients who believed at such times that a great catastrophe was at hand. A few hundreds of years ago, and perhaps even less than that in more backward communities, local prophets brought many converts into the fold by predicting the end of the world at a date and time which coincided with a total eclipse. Even today there are tribes of benighted humans who gather together and pound on drums, blow hideous horns and use all manner of noise making instruments to keep the dragon from devouring the moon.

At ten-fifteen, when the eclipse was first very noticeable, radios were playing all over the Village, people were talking and laughing and going about their ordinary affairs as if nothing unusual was happening, except for a few who had enormous curiosity about natural phenomena to be interested.

At ten-thirty the eclipse was well under way, the shadow was deepening over the face of the moon. Train-men were blowing their locomotive whistles just a little louder and longer because of the lessening visibility.

At eleven o'clock only a small part of the moon was visible. The dragon had almost completely swallowed the moon. At eleven-fifteen, the moon was completely in the shadow of the earth. The cloudless sky showed little of the reflected rays of the moon, and the stars shone in all their glory unhampered by any greater light. The moon was visible as a mere outline after the eclipse was complete. Before then it looked like an extremely large yellow Japanese lantern very far away. The eclipse lasted until almost one o'clock, then the moon gradually began its emergence from the shadow.

No one was excited, except a few astronomers gathered at observatories where they could see the effects of the light through their instruments. And yet some pessimists say that the human race is not progressing. Years ago an eclipse of the moon would have been in the nature of a major catastrophe, but not in this scientific age. Monday night astronomers grasped the opportunity to observe the moon because this is the first total eclipse since 1928, and the last until 1938, and for the ordinary non-scientific man it was a wonderful sight.

If you missed it, you'll have a chance again in 1938 to make up for an opportunity lost on Monday night, July 15.

Lions Club Annual Picnic Will Take Place Sunday In Forest Preserve

The annual Lions picnic will be this next Sunday in the Elk Grove Forest Preserve, at the same spot as in previous years. The picnic will begin about one o'clock in the afternoon, when all Lions and their families and friends will gather for an afternoon of fun and merriment. There will be a basket dinner in the evening, and refreshments will be served in addition.

The committee to arrange for the picnic as appointed by Lion President, Fred Meeske is E. T. Wolfe, Fred W. Busse, and Henry Kruse. A good time is assured to all who attend with such a committee in charge.

Games of all sorts will be played in the afternoon to whet jaded appetites. A soft ball game is promised for the devotees of that sport and many other games will be played. All Lions and their families are urged to attend the picnic. Those who have attended in previous years know what a good time is to be had and will need no urging.

FHA TITLE II LOANS IN THIS AREA ACTIVEReport of Week Ending July 3 Shows Active Building Continues

For the week ending July 3, commitments and new applications for FHA Title II insured mortgage loans totaled 19 in amount of $136,520 for the northern Illinois district, which comprises 16 counties, according to Carroll H. Sudler, district director. This brings the total to date of approved loans and applications for the district to 276 amounting to $1,432,595.

Title II covers government-insured loans in two divisions; one, loans for new construction and the other, loans for the refinancing of old mortgages on existing structures.

Of the total, 11 are approved loan commitments for $65,400 and the remaining 8 are new applications totaling $71,030. The 11 commitments are divided into 7 loans amounting to $40,450 for refinancing old mortgages on existing construction, and 4 loans amounting to $25,000 for new home construction. The 8 new applications are all for new construction and, adding these to the loans previously approved by the northern Illinois office, the total reaches $394,734 for new home construction to date.

Attention is directed to the fact that five of the new applications average more than $11,600 each, which makes the week "a record," said Mr. Sudler, "not for number of applications received, but for quality of the home to be built."

The applications for the week are one from each town as follows: De Kalb, $11,400; Hinsdale, $10,200; Winnetka, $10,880; Kenilworth, $12,500; Glenview, $12,650; Des Plaines, $4,400; Oregon, $4,500; Elgin, $4,500.

Percy Wilson, FHA regional director, reports that June commitments for new home construction and refinancing in the 7th region, which comprises the states of Illinois, Indiana, Iowa and Wisconsin, show a 54 per cent increase over the figure for May. New applications in June for the region amounted to $6,569,946, a 29 per cent increase over May.

Number of Mad Dogs Sets Record This Year

During the current season Illinois has had the greatest crop of mad dogs in several years, according to Dr. Frank J. Jirka, of the Department of Public Health. The report shows that for the first six months of 1935 no less than 459 dogs' heads have been examined for rabies and one half of that number showed positive evidence of the disease. Many hundreds of people have been exposed to hydrophobia through the bites of mad dogs.

At an expense of about $15,000, the State Department furnished the Pasteur treatment for 1,220 people who have been bitten during the first six months. In addition to this cost there was an additional expense of medical fees for giving the treatments which consist of fourteen to twenty-one doses for each person.

Golf Stages A Come-back

Golf is again becoming popular. Like other things which are not absolute necessities the ancient honorable game lost followers during the past several years. Now the managers of the courses around the Village report a very decided gain in the number of players engaged in this maddening yet fascinating sport.

The American Legion is playing at Rob Roy every Thursday night, and Doc Cunningham has said to swing a mean club. Rob Roy has its followers and is enjoying quite a bit of play from the neighboring towns.

The Northwest Hills Country Club course offers inducements to the golfer far beyond the ordinary. The course is an extremely sporty one, and the management is very accommodating.

Old Orchard is one course which the golf-playing reporter of the REVIEW has not yet played, but it has its followers also, who are very enthusiastic.

The pros at the courses visited proved to be very accommodating gentlemen. They are willing to take time to discuss golfing in all its phases with the rank amateur.

AT THE CATLOW

"The Informer" which plays the Catlow theatre Friday night, gives Victor McLaglen an outstanding story, well produced and enhanced by very fine photography. The situations are laid in Ireland, and concerns the betrayal by McLaglen of his best friend, Saturday night brings Heather Angel and Lyle Talbot in "It Happened In New York." It is a comedy drama, rapid and light, built around the attempt of a movie star to steal a little steno-grapher's boy friend. A 9:00 p. m. feature, both Friday and Saturday night will be an item of importance to all patrons who are holding registration numbers.

Ring Lardner's classic of baseball and blondes "Alibi Ike" is scheduled for the Sunday-Monday spot with Joe E. Brown as the dizzy miracle man in the box. It will be a near call for the great game on account of laughter as fans howl, "What a pitcher! what a pitcher!" Charlie Chase in "Poker At 8," Mickey Mouse in "Service Station," News Band Act and Community singing will build the Sunday-Monday program to a new high in light entertainment.

Bargain night offering next Tuesday will be a return showing of Gary Cooper's, "Lives of a Bengal Lancer," a production rated among the best of the entire year, —one that fully merits repeated playing.

"Les Miserables," Victor Hugo's ageless classic, with the stars, Fredric March and Charles Laughton, is scheduled for Wednesday-Thursday of next week. It will be remembered Jean Valjean had stolen a loaf of bread. After serving his monstrous sentence he was free —free to live a lifetime of terror, —a hunted thing bereft of love, honor and a name.

WHEELING

Mrs. O. W. Ellwood and her young daughter, returned home from Kansas last week accompanied by Mrs. Ellwood's sister. Upon arriving at Ottawa, Kansas about a month ago the Ellwoods had the unique experience of traveling about four blocks down the main streets of the city in a motor boat in order to reach the section of the city in which their people reside which fortunately was on higher ground. By the time they left, however, rain was again needed.

A baby boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Mike Melzer at the Wheeling hospital on Wednesday, July 10. Mother and baby are doing nicely.

Six members of Wheeling Boy Scout Troop are enjoying a week at Camp Oh-Da-Ko-Ta, Wisconsin. They are Alfred Krueger, James Utpadel, Elwin Kruse, Arthur Miller, Arthur Fassbender and Edward Wesolek.

Mrs. Ackerman of Milwaukee is visiting here with her son.

Rev. E. L. Shaw spent several days of this week at his father's home in Alexis where he planned to meet his brother's family from the east.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Sigwalt visited relatives here on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Clark and their son, John, are away on a trip to England. Their daughter, Margaret, who spent the past year studying at the University of Edinburgh, Scotland, will meet them to return to America.

Last call for the 8th Annual Wheeling Day celebration, which will be held Saturday and Sunday of this week, July 20 and 21, being sponsored by the Wheeling Chamber of Commerce and the Volunteer Fire Dept. The program of activities will start off with a ball game between Glenview and Wheeling on Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Races for all ages will be held Saturday afternoon also. The Queen of Wheeling will be selected on Saturday. Girls aspiring to the title should inform their friends that votes will be sold at 1 cent each. All voting will be done on Saturday. A seven piece German brass band will furnish music for dancing on both days, playing both modern and old time music. On Sunday afternoon Wheeling baseball team will meet Long Grove. Refreshments will be on sale and many other attractions for your entertainment. Come and bring your friends.

MUDDY FIELDS, LODGED STRAW IRK FARMERS

Agricultural Engineer
Gives Methods to Solve
Difficulties

Urbana, Ill., July 17—A little special equipment and a lot of patience are the only means for farmers to overcome lodged straw and muddy fields in harvesting the state's crop of 2,200,000 acres of wheat, rye, oats and barley this year, according to A. L. Young, agricultural engineer at the College of Agriculture, University of Illinois. Heavy rains have made harvesting a far more complicated problem than it usually is, he said.

Suitable drive-wheel lugs and a power take-off will usually solve the muddy field problem for the farmer who uses a tractor and power binder. The owner of a horse binder, whether he pulls it with horses or tractor, has a different problem to meet in a muddy field, since the bul wheel of the binder skids and the binder will not work.

The only satisfactory solution to this problem is the use of a small gasoline engine attached to the binder and coupled to the cutting and binding mechanism of the machine, Young stated.

Lodged straw offers a difficult problem at the best, said Young. Extension guards attached to the regular guards of the binder are of some help in picking up and straightening the straw. Varying grain conditions also call for frequent changes of the reel. If the grain is badly lodged, it may be necessary to cut only in one direction, that is, opposite the way the straw lays.

Cutting with a mower and raking is not a satisfactory method, but may be used with some success for small fields and where the straw is so badly lodged and tangled as to prevent binding.

During rainy years, such as the present, it is advisable to set the bundles up in long, narrow shocks to give them plenty of opportunity to dry out. It is also best to delay cutting until the grain is fairly ripe and make small bundles that will dry readily.

TWO QUESTIONS ANSWERED

Why is it that one farmer raises 100 bushels of corn to the acre, and the other one, on the other side of the fence, raises 25 bushels to the acre? Why is it that one farmer produces 100 pounds of pork on five bushels of corn, and another uses 25 bushels? Not until power machinery, scientific principles of soil fertilization and restoration, rotation of crops, diversification of crops and economical feeding are applied to the farm, will the farmers' problem be solved, says an authority.

Significant economic developments to be expected in the next decade are listed by a prominent business writer as follows: (1) Higher standard of living. (2) Continued advances in technical processes of production. (3) Factory built houses, better and cheaper than hand made houses. (4) Somewhat cheaper money. (5) Faster travel. (6) News printed by radio. (7) Mechanical cotton picker, revolutionizing the South. (8) Cheaper electric power. (9) Better distribution of goods; more chain stores. (10) Another depression five or six years hence, preceded by an inflationary boom.

WARN FARMERS OF SNAKEROOT POISON WEED

Pastures Endangering
Livestock

Urbana, Ill., July 17—Heavy rains which have made Illinois pastures luxuriant this year have not ended the danger of white snakeroot poisoning to man and to livestock during the coming months, according to a warning in a newly revised circular, "White Snakeroot Poisoning," which has just been issued by the College of Agriculture, University of Illinois.

Even though pasture grass is abundant, animals may eat the leaves of the poisonous white snakeroot weed from time to time. Overstocking pastures, even if they are good ones, increases the risks from the poisoning, which occurs every year in Illinois, the circular warns.

Persons using dairy products or meat of animals affected by "trembles," as white snakeroot poisoning is known, may contract milk sickness, an ailment which runs a rapid course and has a high mortality rate.

Keeping livestock away from white snakeroot and eradicating the weed from pastures and woodlots are the only sure ways of preventing the poisoning, according to the circular.

The plant is a tall, slender perennial herb which usually grows in partially cleared woodlots, swamps, along streams. The greatest danger is from July until late in the fall. This is especially true during dry years when pastures are short and dry. White snakeroot can generally be recognized by its broadly oval leaves, set opposite each other and having sharply-toothed, or serrated, edges. The non-poisonous varieties usually have narrower leaves.

In small patches the weed is best eradicated by pulling each plant by the roots. In large patches proper cropping is the most satisfactory means of eradication. Livestock should be kept out of pastures containing any of the weed.

Weakness, loss of appetite, constipation and a trembling of the voluntary muscles when the animal is forced to move are among the early symptoms of poisoning. When these symptoms are observed the stock should be taken from pasture and a reliable veterinarian called. The immediate attention of a physician should be given to cases of milk sickness among humans.

SEES INFLATION A SLOW PROCESS

A Real Danger for the Future,
Col. Ayres Tells Banking
Groups.

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J.—Present prospects do not indicate that inflation severe enough to cause further dollar devaluation will come soon in this country, but as an ultimate development it seems to be a very real danger, Leonard P. Ayres, Vice President Cleveland Trust Company, said here tonight in an address before the Graduate School of Banking. He believed this statement to be true "unless the government enters frankly upon a policy of issuing fiat money with which to meet its expenses." At present that does not seem to be in sight, he said.

The Graduate School is operated jointly by the American Institute of Banking Section of the American Bankers Association and Rutgers University to offer advanced studies for bank officers.

"We have so enormously increased the capacity of our banking system for credit expansion that it is difficult to see how we could have a vigorous business revival without having it develop into a credit inflation," Colonel Ayres declared.

Inflation does come it will be a slow process, he said, pointing out that in Germany, France, Belgium and Italy it took about five years to develop from the time when the governments entered upon policies of financing large peace-time deficits by bank credit up to the time when the public generally began to spend money rapidly because of fear that it would still further depreciate.

"If we are to go through such a period here it would seem likely that it might last rather longer than the corresponding periods did abroad," he said. "Its beginning would date from the spring of 1933 when we left the old gold basis for our money and entered upon the policy of financing large governmental deficits by the sale of Federal securities mainly to banks rather than to private investors."

"The method that we are following is the one that proved disastrous in Europe for in all those countries including Germany, the increasing issues of money that caused the inflation were not mere printing press issues of fiat currency, but were secured by government bonds and notes discounted at the banks."

Among the clearest lessons taught by the European experience, Colonel Ayres asserted, is that there are "no good hedges against inflation."

Did Not Lighten Debt Burdens
"One of the strange facts about these inflations is that while they destroyed the values of most existing debts, they did not succeed in lightening the debt burdens of either the people as a whole, or of the corporations."

"Inflation destroys the value of bonds and mortgages and so confiscates the property of these holders of obligations and hands it over to the shareholders and the equity owners. However, it introduces so many new economic difficulties that these share and equity holders are at once forced to incur new indebtedness so that when stabilization comes the problems of debt are about as troublesome as they were before, or even more so."

The five requisites of inflation were listed by Colonel Ayres as first, a period of sustained active business; second, a rising stock market; third, real credit expansion; fourth, greater out-flow of gold "than we can tolerate which would force us to cut our currency entirely free from gold"; and fifth, continued large budget deficits in government operation.

Clark Gable and Loretta Young Star in "Call of The Wild" Coming to the United Artists Theater Soon

Clark Gable, the star of 20th Century's production "Call of The Wild" coming to the United Artists theater soon was born in Cadiz, Ohio, February 1, 1901.

Clark was educated in his home town and in Hopedale, Ohio. After graduating from high school, he worked as a time-keeper. Ambitious to become a doctor, he enrolled in premedical classes of the night school of the University of Akron.

He worked with his father for a while in the Oklahoma oil fields. Then went "barnstorming" and wound up in Portland, Oregon. He took another fling at the theater, then worked with an engineering group on lumber surveys. He sold advertising, worked for the telephone company and saved a small sum and decided to cast his lot definitely with pictures.

His recent film appearances include "Men in White," "Dancing Lady," "Chained," "Forsaking All Others," and "It Happened One Night," for which he received the award of the Motion Picture Academy of Art and Sciences.

146 on County Payroll At Wheaton Says Survey

According to a survey published in the Hinsdale Doings last week, there are 146 persons, employed at Wheaton in the conduct of the county business. This list includes elected and appointed officials and their clerical help. The salaries range from $20 to over a $100 a week. Many of these employees, however, are not year 'round workers.

An interesting sidelight on this survey is the representation that DuPage communities enjoy at the Wheaton court house. Wheaton has 39 out of the 146, Elmhurst 19, Glen Ellyn 16, Naperville 11, Downers Grove 10, West Chicago 10, Westmont 9, Villa Park 6, Winfield 5, Hinsdale 4, Lombard 4, Warrenville 2, Lisle 2, Bloomingdale 2, Addison 1, Itasca 1, Pleasant Hill 1, Bensenville 1, Wayne 1, Roselle 1, Clarendon Hills 1.

Ten Take Anti-rabies Treatment Because They Contacted Sick Dog

Because they came in contact with a pet dog which later was found to have rabies, 10 Downers Grove people, including the policeman who shot the animal, are undergoing anti-rabies treatments.

It was necessary to kill the dog when it became violent. The head was sent to the Illinois Research Laboratory in Chicago for examination and rabies discovered.

Anti-rabies treatment requires 14 different injections of serum.

Boards of Review Meet With Tax Commission

Last week the DuPage county board of review of which N. W. Lies is chairman, along with like bodies from the other 101 counties of the state met at Springfield with the state tax commission, consisting of John C. Martin, Barnett Hodes and Simeon E. Leland. The object of the meeting was for the purpose of outlining a more equitable system of reviewing the assessments on property in the State.

Mr. Martin informed the Boards of Review in attendance that "cooperation with the local taxing officials, not coercion, is the policy of the State body. There is no desire on the part of the Tax Commission to dictate to you as to how you should do your job."

Tax Commissioner, Barnett Hodes of Chicago, gave the warning to the local officials that "if you would avoid any form of 'tax dictatorship,' which none of us want, it is up to you to show that the local agencies can and will assess property so that every property owner bears his own share of the tax burden, no more—no less."

Governor Henry Horner addressed the meeting and gave a short resume of the things accomplished by the State Government in the way of taxes and reductions.

NILES CENTER

Mrs. Gertrude E. Baumhardt and son, Elmer, with Mrs. Martha Kindt, Mrs. Ella Tess and Mrs. Ida Harms motored to Niagara Falls on Monday.

Mrs. Henry Maierhofer is expected home this week from St. Francis hospital.

Last Friday the infant seven months old daughter, Joan, of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Harte, was laid to rest in St. Peter's Evangelical cemetery. Rev. Paul E. Winger officiated.

Sunday, July 14, Mrs. Edward Steel and Mrs. Dorothy Mayer, observed their natal days.

On Wednesday, Mrs. Henry Remke, Miss Elsie Stielow, Mrs. Louise Klehn, Mrs. Frank Noetting, Mrs. Armin Mayer and children, helped Miss Erna E. Koellner of Norwood Park celebrate her birthday.

We are happy to report that Mrs. Adam Koester is improving so nicely after her operation she is anxious to come home.

Miss Elsie Stielow was a dinner guest of Mrs. Florence Freund of Wilmette last Wednesday evening. Thursday evening Miss Stielow entertained the Center Social club at her home on Floral avenue.

Instead of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Luebke accompanying Mr. and Mrs. C. Schurke to Atlanta, Georgia, as stated in last week's news, Mrs. Theodore Lerman and son and Mr. Rudolph Schurke made the trip with their parents.

Miss Mildred Tess and Miss Evelyn Brown, spent a week at the Meyer cottage at Sylvan Lake.

Miss Elizabeth Stielow and nephew, Billy, are vacationing at McHenry.

Mrs. Albert Huber, Lincoln avenue, was hostess to her card club Thursday afternoon.

The Hawks and Jackson Park teams had a batting fest on the Terminal diamond Sunday, the former winning by a score of 16 to 11. Sounds like a football score.

The Niles Center Woman's club, who sponsors camp fire is very happy to have so many of the girls go to camp near South Haven this year. They are Grace Endre, Dorothy Schmidt, Bernice and Elsie Santucci, Frances and Margaret Busscher, Cecilia Paroubec, Florence Schmidt, Jane Brown, Rosemarie Krier, Evelyn Hoetzer, Cecilia Blameuser and Mae Schoenberger. Their guardian, Mrs. Margaret Lies Buescher, accompanied them on the boat to Camp Nawake. She will return Wednesday, the girls will stay two weeks.

Mrs. Axel Stolberg was injured in an auto accident when her car was struck by a train.

Junior Noetting and Norman Sondermann left Wednesday morning on their bicycles to Crystal Lake. Mrs. Noetting, Mrs. Witte, Mrs. Sondermann and Howard Capt., and Mrs. Stenson, motored there later to meet the boys with a grand picnic lunch.

Mr. and Mrs. Armin J. Mayer and children spent an evening with Mr. and Mrs. Eugene J. Mayer, who make their home at the DeWitt hotel in Chicago.

A Rhyme O' Health

Fresh milk will keep your body young, And that's Life's greatest wealth; Remember folks, milk dairies are in business for YOUR health!

IF YOU'VE never visited a model dairy plant you can't possibly imagine the scrupulous care that is observed in order to bring you milk that is pure and sanitary.

Did you know that almost two-thirds of the workers' time in a dairy plant is given over to scrubbing and sterilizing utensils used in the pasteurization of milk? Or that every worker is required to wear a spotless white uniform? Or that each bottle in which fresh pasteurized milk is sold is washed in seven different solutions and carefully sterilized before the milk is ever placed in it? That's why you are sure of perfectly clean milk when you buy bottled milk.

When you buy fresh pasteurized milk you can rest assured that you are getting "first choice" milk because the milk sold in the Chicago area is produced only on "first choice" farms.

Did you know all these facts? Well, you do now.

BANKS AND COLLEGE LAUNCH NEW SCHOOL

Aims to Offer Studies in Advanced Banking Subjects to Bank Executives

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J. — The Graduate School of Banking, an unprecedented educational project, operated under the joint auspices of the American Institute of Banking Section of the American Bankers Association and Rutgers University, with 220 enrolled students from 35 states and the District of Columbia, inaugurated in June its first resident session.

The states represented and the number of registrants from each are as follows: Alabama, 2; Arkansas, 2; California, 2; Connecticut, 9; Delaware, 3; District of Columbia, 6; Florida, 2; Georgia, 3; Idaho, 1; Illinois, 8; Indiana, 2; Iowa, 1; Kansas, 1; Kentucky, 2; Louisiana, 3; Maryland, 1; Massachusetts, 9; Michigan, 5; Minnesota, 1; Missouri, 5; Nebraska, 1; New Jersey, 31; New York, 50; North Carolina, 8; North Dakota, 1; Ohio, 7; Oklahoma, 1; Oregon, 2; Pennsylvania, 32; Rhode Island, 1; Texas, 5; Virginia, 6; Washington, 1; West Virginia, 1; Wisconsin, 4; Wyoming, 1.

The annual resident sessions of the graduate school will be supplemented between periods by continued extension work for the students at their homes. The purpose of the school is described as being to offer in a three year course a comprehensive approach to an advanced study of the various administrative problems in banking and trust institutions. The teaching procedure is a combination of the case system and the lecture discussion method.

The Curriculum

The curriculum embraces banking administrative problems and policies, bank investment problems, legal and managerial aspects of trust business, legal phases of bank administration and economic problems in the field of money and credit. The public relations and responsibilities of banks and methods for meeting these obligations are emphasized in the courses.

It is planned to set up similar schools in cooperation with other universities in various parts of the country. The school will add 200 registrants each year for two years until 600 are enrolled.

CLASSIC DAY SATURDAY AT ARLINGTON

Good Weather, Large Crowds, Big Mutuel
Play This Season

The eyes of the turf world are centered upon Arlington Park this week where on Saturday afternoon the Arlington Classic, greatest three year old race of the year will be run before a crowd of probably upwards of 20,000 fans.

The Classic will decide the three year old championship of the year and will bring together Omaha and Black Helen, for the first time this season. Both of these horses have won prominent stakes and derbies and when they meet in the Classic, it should be the event of the year in the racing world.

While most of the early interest is centered around Mr. Woodward's Omaha and Col. Bradley's Black Helen, there are some other mighty fine horses who are going to try to turn back both of these outstanding champions. There will be St. Bernard, who ran the fastest mile of the season about a week ago. There will be Mrs. Hertz Count Arthur, which has thundered home in hot pursuit of Black Helen on several occasions and there will be Roman Soldier, a big winner on the winter tracks and winner of the Detroit Derby. There will also be Tearout, Whiskala, Advantage, Sun Portland and other lesser lights all of whom their owners hope may furnish the big upset of the year by coming home in front of the outstanding stars of the year.

At any rate the Classic shapes up as the greatest horse race of the year and if the track stays fast it would not be surprising to see a new track record hung up in the race. Society people, horse owners and plain ordinary racing fans are flocking to Arlington from all over the country for this great race and Arlington Park will be the center of the turf world on Classic day.

Good weather and a fast track during the last week has brought added interest in the Arlington races and fine week day crowds are on hand daily.

Last Saturday 18,000 people turned out for the running of the Lassie stakes and saw just about the hottest finish of the season when the Milky Way stables Forever Yours won the rich two year old feature by a nose and a head from the Vanderbilt entry of Balcony and Parade Girl. The mutuel handle on Saturday was the second largest of the season, over $500,000 passing through the machines.

The daily programs at Arlington Park continues to be of high class and these attractive programs coupled with good weather and the vacation season are bringing crowds to Arlington which averages the most successful meeting in years in the Chicago area.

Palatine Glider Expert Caught in N. Y. Floods

Elmira, N. Y., July 15.
Cook County Herald

It might be of interest to my friends in Palatine, to know that I have been here in Elmira, N. Y. for the past three weeks attending the National Gliding and Soaring contest as a contestant. It so happens that we have been in the center of the New York flood area which I can say, is very, very bad. For two days all of us were marooned on the mountain from which we do our soaring. Food and water was dropped to us from an airplane. On the second evening several of us started walking down the mountains for the town of "Big Flats." This was only a distance of some six miles, but because of heavy rains and landslides, we did not arrive at that town until fifty-three the following morning. When we did arrive, the main street was under five feet of water, all persons with the exception of two men, had been sent or taken to Elmira. All in all, it was a great experience. I took some fine pictures.

Speed Westphal.

Credits Cook County Herald for Increased Used Car Business

Purnell & Wilson, Ford dealers at Arlington Heights and Des Plaines, announce one of the best years on record. They have moved a large volume of both new and used cars this spring and summer. Mr. Wilson who believes in advertising and is a regular advertiser in the Paddock newspapers credits the Cook County Herald with bringing them a large portion of their business.

"Through persistent advertising in the Cook County Herald this spring and summer," he states, "we have moved the greatest volume of used cars in our history, which means a great number of satisfied customers who become familiar with our service. We certainly owe a vote of thanks to the Cook County Herald and associate papers for the results we have obtained."

Elks Plan Another Good Time at Annual Picnic Next Sunday

Again the Elks and their friends will frolic all day long at North-western Park, Des Plaines, Sunday, July 21. The Des Plaines lodge is staging their ninth annual picnic and they have planned something to do every minute of the day. The features of the day are games and races with plenty of refreshments, and a 100 free prizes given away. The All-Stars of Arlington Heights and Des Plaines will meet in a softball game. Dancing will occupy the evening. Admission to the grove is free. Everybody is invited.

JAIL ROSELLE FARMHAND FOR CHECK FORGERY

Harry Thomas Buys New Car With Bum Check; Passes Others

Authorities have finally apprehended the whereabouts of Harry Thomas, erstwhile farmhand and now check forger extraordinaire. He was nabbed in Minnesota last Friday and brought back to Illinois by Chief of Police Ernest Baade of Barrington. Thomas who was employed on the farm of H. C. Wilkening one half mile north of Roselle, set out on a check forging spree June 20, and since that time has passed about a dozen bad ones amounting to about $1,000.

Many of the checks have been drawn on the Roselle state bank. One of the checks cashed at the Herman Lohse filling station in Roselle on which Henry Wilkening's name was forged was for $15. It was drawn on the Roselle State bank and cashed in Glen Ellyn.

Thomas began his first adventure with the purchase of a brand new Plymouth sedan at Barrington. He gave Percy Dwyer, the Plymouth dealer there, a check for $830 in payment. The check drawn on the DuPage Trust Company at Glen Ellyn was cashed in Barrington and immediately bounced back as Thomas had no account at this bank.

Since then many other checks were passed for amounts from $15 to $20 and drawn on the Roselle State bank and the DuPage Trust Company. The latest one which arrived last Friday at the Roselle State bank from Plainview, Neb., indicates that Thomas covered considerable ground. On June 28, a similar check arrived from Heathen, Minn. Both are for amounts of $15.

Thomas did not use the Roselle bank blank checks. Instead, he picked up a blank check anywhere, crossed out the name of the bank, wherever it happened to be, and wrote "Roselle State Bank." The checks are made out in pencil. He signed his name "Harry Thomas," "Ira Thomas" and "Ira T. Thomas."

Before leaving Roselle vicinity about the 25th of June, Thomas had worked at the Wilkening farm for about two and a half months. He is 45 years of age and has a daughter living in Chicago.

Red Wings Meet Guy Bush Gassers Sunday

The Arlington Red Wings will be hosts to a strong Chicago aggregation, the Guy Bush Gassers, this Sunday. The local team will have to be at their best if they expect to out-run these reputed players from Chicago.

The Red Wings met defeat at the hands of the Peters Colored Union Giants last Sunday. The home club was held to four hits while the opposing team collected nine hits to win 4 to 0. Schaefer and Diederich pitched for the Red Wings, with Bolte behind the plate.

New Motorcycle Arrives Cruising Speed 90 M.P.H.

No longer will drivers of high speed cars be able to laugh at Arlington Heights. That village received this week a new Indian motorcycle, the cruising speed of which is 90 miles per hour. The police department of that village, however, has not been waiting for a new motorcycle to stop speeders as 43 arrests were made since the first of June.

The Paddock Club, located on Rand road west of Wilke road, is now under new management. Ed. Wayne, new proprietor, is the owner of the Noosegaw Cafe, 2521 Milwaukee Ave., and has had much experience in running popular dine and dance halls. For the present the place will be open every Friday and Saturday evening, with four floor shows nightly. Free fish fry Friday night.

FINES PROVE ACTIVITY OF POLICE DEPT.

Arlington buys new Street Truck; Appropriations To Be Made Next

The Arlington Heights village board held a busy meeting Monday night, completing the session in time to view the eclipse of the moon, between 11 and 12 o'clock. The police department of Arlington Heights has been conducting an active campaign against speeders and other violators of the motor vehicle law. The report of that department gave a total of $149 received in fines since June 1 with 12 cases pending. A total of 43 arrests have been made. The special motorcycle fund will soon be able to pay the cost of the new motorcycle, reported Alderman Schenberger, chairman of that committee.

The Chicago Motor Club has promised to send a safetyman to Arlington Heights to investigate general safety conditions here. Five bids for furnishing fire hose were reported to the board, the lowest being 72c a foot for double strength. Upon motion the matter was referred to the fire and water committee and a committee from the fire department.

Attorney Thal reported that the PVA had acknowledged receipt of letter regarding plea of village that bond No. 3 be included as among those to be cancelled by the government, in place of a bond of last issue.

Spencer White & Co., with the approval of Attorney Cassidy, has asked that the village enter into an arrangement whereby receipts to be credited to the big sewer, can be used to pay bonds in the order in which they are issued, in place of pro-rating said amount to all the bonds. Attorney Thal was directed to inform the contractors that the board was agreeable to such a plan provided the bond holders would connect. Spencer White & Co. control all of the outstanding bonds, except about $50,000, which are held more or less locally.

Auditor Laurin reported that the treasurer had been accepting anticipation warrants in payment for water rentals, business licenses and vehicle tags and at the present time are $1300 of 1932 warrants held as cash.

Mayor Flentje reported that the repairs had been made by the village to the concrete mixer that had been borrowed from the owner, who now offered to sell it to the village for $100. A motion was passed directing its purchase for that amount.

Alderman Schenberger reported that the hospital bill and the physician fee in the Skoog accident still remained unsettled. An investigation was ordered with inquiry to be made of the insurance company.

The board offered the contract for a new street truck to the International people, whose bid of $1,115 with the allowance of $115 for the old truck, was accepted with the provision that the truck manufacturers return the old truck to the village without cost to them. The vote stood five to one; trustee Schenberger voting no.

Bids opened at previous meeting ranged from $885 for a Ford truck to $1,146 for a Studebaker truck. Advance for trade-in ranged from $200 offered by Chevrolet to $50 in the bid of G. M. C.

The street committee reported the laying of 1532 square feet of sidewalk with the aid of relief labor. Three-quarters of the July 1 water bills were paid within the discount period, reported trustee Burns.

An invitation was read asking that the village be represented at a meeting to be held Thursday night in Geneva, when members of the state sanitary water board and engineers will be present to discuss treatment problems. The matter was referred to the sanitary committee, of which G. Framberg is chairman with the recommendation that operator Geo. Harris attend with any others who can do so.

Bills and payroll amounting to $1,060.20 were passed. The treasurer's report was referred to the finance committee.

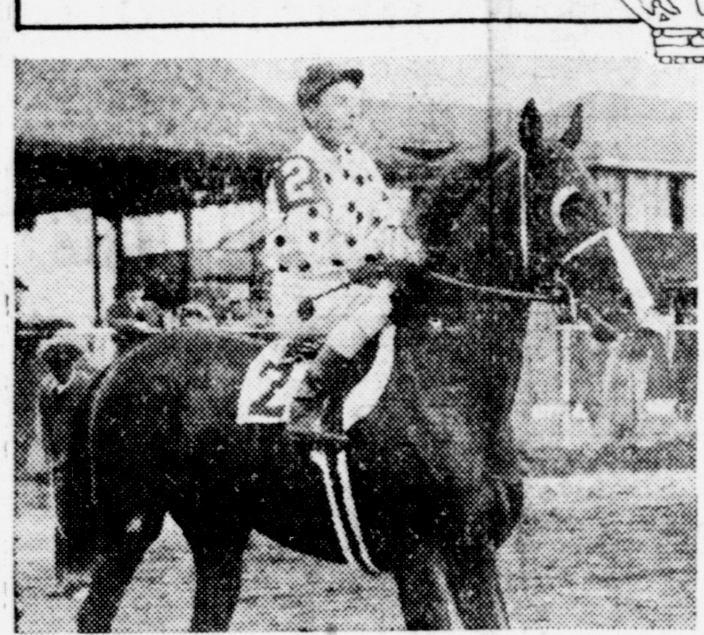

The board was informed that the Workman's liability insurance extended to all employees, but the village would have to reimburse the insurance company for any payments made on account of a relief laborer.

The board adjourned to Wednesday evening when the annual appropriation ordinance will be considered and passed.

Many Bargains at Hagenbrugg Coupon Clearance Sale

Hagenbrugg's 5c to $1 store, the home of bargains in Arlington Heights every day in the year, is holding a clearance coupon sale starting Friday and continuing until next Wednesday night. Many of the items are closeouts upon which especially low prices are quoted. There is probably not a home that does not have use for some of the items shown in the adv. upon page 5 of this issue.

THREE-YEAR-OLD CHAMPIONSHIP

OMAHA

BLACK HELEN

Florida Derby, are the principals in the seventh running of the $40,000 Classic Stakes at Arlington Park Saturday, July 20. A victory for either will give Omaha or Black Helen undisputed possession of the three-year-old title. They will be opposed by about ten others over the testing route of one mile and a quarter.

Railroad Engineers and Village Agree on Width Of Three Cross Streets

There is something more than just laying the concrete to the widening with relief labor of Vail, Dunton and Evergreen streets across the railroad property. An engineer from the North Western railroad was in Arlington Heights Tuesday and reached a tentative agreement with Mayor Flentje relative to this work. It will be necessary to change crossing gates, as well as stop signs. Vail street widening will only be six feet on each side of the present pavement.

Dunton and Evergreen streets will be widened an additional 20 feet, making them the same width as adjoining portions of those streets. Actual work on the widening was started Tuesday under direction of street commissioner Luehring.

Wife of Barrington Theatre Owner Burned To Death in Garage

Mrs. Wright Catlow, wife of Barrington theatre owner met a tragic death Friday evening when fire broke out in the garage, which was partially destroyed by fire. When the firemen arrived upon the scene they were not aware that a body was within the building. Mr. Catlow was called to the scene of the fire, only to learn a few minutes later that his wife had met her death. It is supposed that she was cleaning with naphtha, which occasioned the fire.

The funeral services were held at the Baptist church Monday afternoon.

Old Age Pension Provisions Announced By Secretary State

Due to the widespread interest in the passage of the Old Age Security Act which was promptly signed by Gov. Horner and which is to go into effect January 1, 1936, the Paddock Publications are publishing the essential features of the law, a copy of which has been sent by the secretary of state to all newspapers in Illinois.

Those who had painted a roseate picture of the benevolence that was being bestowed upon the aged by a bounteous legislature are going to be a trifle chagrined when they examine the Old Age Security Act closely. They will find it "not so hot." The condition of the aged, propertyless people without income, the completely destitute, will be improved somewhat. Outside of that, the new act provides practically nothing.

A recipient of the pension must be 65 years of age, a citizen of the United States, a resident of the state at least ten of the last fifteen years and not an inmate of any municipal, state, county or national institution.

The amount of the pension will be fixed with due regard to conditions existing in each case, but in no case shall it exceed one dollar per day.

To receive the pension, no applicant may have an income in excess of $5 per week nor possess property amounting to more than $5,000 in value.

The net income of the applicant and the pension he receives shall in no case when added together exceed $550 per year.

At the death of the recipient of a pension the total amount paid under this act shall be allowed as a claim against his estate. If the recipient was possessed of income or property in excess of the amount provided by the Act or obtained relief by false representation, double the amount paid in excess of what he was legally entitled shall be allowed as a claim against the estate.

But no claim shall be enforced against any real estate of a recipient while it is occupied by a surviving spouse, provided the spouse is not more than 15 years younger and does not remarry.

If a recipient should come into possession of property or income in excess of the amount provided by this Act, he shall notify the state department of administration.

Wedding Ceremony for Libertyville Couple Was Performed Here

Mr. Arthur E. Armstrong and Miss Ruby E. Williams of Libertyville, Ill., were happily united at a pretty wedding celebrated at the Methodist parsonage on Thursday afternoon. The happy couple were accompanied by the bride's mother and friends from Libertyville where the bride and groom are popular young people.

Mr. Armstrong is manager for the Quaker Oats Experimental farm located west of their home town where they will reside after August 1. After a drive into Canada the young housekeepers will be at home to their friends.

Former Des Plaines Treasurers Defendants In $90,000 Suit

Seven former treasurers and collectors of Des Plaines will be included as defendants in the suit involving $90,000 in eight special assessments. The complaint alleges that the city has used special assessment funds for general corporate purposes. The suit may include officials from the year 1925 to date, along with individuals and bonding corporations who signed their respective bonds. Plaintiff in the suit, which will be heard before Judge Epstein in the Circuit Court of Cook County is the Cedar Rapids Life Insurance company and a list of other holders of unpaid bonds and interest in the eight assessments involved.

Swimming Popular Recreation for Many Children

The summertime recreation which the boys and girls of Arlington Heights are enjoying, is proving still more popular. The need of a swimming pool in Arlington Heights is especially being demonstrated by the increasing number of young people who join the parties to the Barrington pool. Transportation is furnished and the fee for swimming for children is only ten cents.

Public Invited to Meeting

The general public is invited to attend the next meeting of the Arlington Heights recreation association, which will be held in the municipal building Monday evening. Parents are especially invited.

FISH DAY IS EVERY DAY AT THE A & P

It is fish day every day at the A & P store. Meeting a demand for choice fish other than Fridays, special fish refrigerated counters have been placed in these stores. John Angelloff, manager of the Campbell street store, says, "there is no reason why the public can not enjoy desired fish food oftener than once a week" and his customers are welcoming the opportunity. From three to five kinds are received fresh daily.

CCC Boys Home on Leave, Report Many Experiences in camp

Four Arlington Heights boys who have been members of 635th company of the CCC stationed at Camp Ontonagon, Michigan, have been home the past two weeks having completed their six months period. A number of them are returning to camp well satisfied with the treatment accorded them. There are few dull moments in the camp, but the boys put on weight. There are a number of extra activities, including the publication of a camp newspaper.

All of the expenses of the boys are paid and they receive $30 a month as salary. Five dollars is given them for incidental expenses and the remainder is sent home to their parents.

Six Arlington Heights boys went to camp last January. Christopher Dettman and Charles Weisenbach returned home in April. The others, Clarence Schaeffer, George Sheldon, Fred Durni and Louis Van Gelder remained the full six months.

NEW DIRECTORY SHOWS GAINS IN POPULATION

Descendants of German Pioneers Predominate; A Town of Meyers

A perusal of the 1935 municipal directory of Arlington Heights shows a gain in population of an even hundred since the 1930 census when the last directory was issued. It also shows that the majority of the Arlington Heights citizens are of German parentage. There are over sixty citizens, over 18 years of age whose last name is Meyer. The total number in these families is 94. There is no other family name that approaches that one in numbers. The nearest is Johnson, with a score of 18, and Niemeyer with 16. The Garms and Gieseke family have 11 and 10 respectively. There are a great many other families in the nine and ten bracket. Incidentally there are only seven Buses in Arlington Heights, compared with several times that number who reside in Elk Grove.

The Smiths who usually head the list in most communities have only six in Arlington Heights, although their German cousins, Schmidt or Schmitt, number as many more.

The 1935 municipal directory will be ready for distribution within the next few days. It was compiled by Daisy Daniels and printed by H. C. Paddock & Sons. It is made possible by local business firms who contracted for advertising space. The business directory in the center of the book is a new innovation and received the cooperation of the majority of business houses, although there are a few business and professional vocations that are not represented.

Outside firms are listed only where such trades are not represented in Arlington Heights.

The books will be distributed free to every home in Arlington Heights with an additional copy to every business house cooperating.

Friendly Class to Hold Ice Cream Social

The Friendly class of the Presbyterian church will give an ice cream social this Friday evening on the church lawn. A dinner will also be given by the class next Tuesday evening. Meals will be served from 5:30 to 7:30 p. m. in the parish hall. Tickets are 50c and 25c.

St. John's Church Plans Summer Program

The pastor of the St. John's Evangelical church of Arlington Heights is planning to overcome the summer-slump in church interest by creating a series of Sunday morning programs which will become a special inducement to the congregation.

A choir concert was the feature of the service last Sunday. Rev. Rech of Prairie View is on the program this Sunday. July 28, let open for a sermon by Rev. M. L. Straube, and the following service will be taken up by Rev. and Mrs. M. Albrecht, Missionaries from India. Rev. Prof. C. Bauer of Elmhurst college will be the speaker August 11. Rev. J. Ellerbrake is scheduled for August 18. Plans are also under way for a great September rally. Announcements will be made.

REFORM IN ELECTIONS UNPOPULAR

Judge Jarecki Fails to Create Enthusiasm for One Election Date

The court room of Judge Jarecki in the county building Monday afternoon was crowded with representatives from the so-called country towns. Judge Jarecki had called them together for the evident purpose of popularizing the new election law passed by the recent state legislature which provides means by which all of the spring elections could be held upon one date.

The judge entertained his hearers with a patriotic address but did not get very far in the popularizing of the new law. Delegates from the country towns not under the supervision of the election commissioners freely expressed their disapproval of the new plan. It was not only termed impracticable but also impossible of accomplishment.

In opening his remarks Judge Jarecki denied that he was a Democrat. "I am the people's choice, independent of party," declared the judge. When it was evident that "the crowd" did not look with favor upon the new plan, the judge repeatedly stated that it was optional with the various taxing bodies. To put the new plan into effect, it would be necessary for each interested taxing body to pass a resolution or ordinance declaring that hereafter its election shall be held upon the first Tuesday in April. The only body who would "sit tight" and pass no resolution would be the townships, which normally hold their elections upon that date—now once every four years.

In commenting upon the crazy-ness of the plan, an official of Wheeling township outlined the confusion that would result in that one township.

"In the village of Arlington Heights there are six elective boards but the boundaries of territory of only two of them coincide. There would necessarily have to be five different ballots; five registration lists and five separate and distinct poll books. A voter desiring to vote would have to declare himself as to how many of the territories his residence entitled him to vote. Many of the voters would not know and recourse would have to be to maps and records."

"If it were possible for one set of election officials to handle all the above, imagine the time that would elapse while votes are being counted."

"Still more confusion would probably result where the high school district territory extends into adjoining townships. A man residing in sections 18 and 26, of Palatine township but paying taxes to the Arlington Heights high school, would necessarily vote at the village hall in Palatine, where votes on the Arlington Heights high school must be kept separate from the Palatine high school votes. Then again, suppose the Arlington Heights high school board voted to make the change in election date and no such action was taken by any of the taxing bodies in Palatine or Elk Grove townships. Taxpayers and residents within the Arlington Heights high school district, who happen to reside in Elk Grove and Palatine township would be disfranchised, or a special election would have to be held in those townships to accommodate such residents of those towns who have a right to vote at the Arlington high school election."

"All in all," declared this official, "it is the craziest plan ever to receive the approval of the state legislature. It is so crazy that one wonders how it happened that the law makers did not make it compulsory."

Mr. and Mrs. Evert Wallenfelt and children have returned from a two week's vacation spent at Fall Creek, Wisconsin. While they were there, Mrs. Wallenfelt's parents celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary, making it a vacation long to be remembered.

Paul Fellingham, who recently had an appendicitis operation at Ann Arbor, Michigan, is expected this week end to spend some time with his brother, Warren Fellingham and sister, Mrs. John Monroe.

Several ladies, who belong to a bridge club of which Mrs. Milton Daniels is a member, are to be her guests Friday at her cottage at Twin Lakes, Wis.

Last week Mrs. George Dolbins, with Mr. and Mrs. Bert Martens of Des Plaines, went to Rockville, Indiana, to visit cousins.

Practically the only requirements needed to receive an invitation to Farm Adviser Barrett's party Saturday evening, were that the person have come from a farm and have attended a university. Several universities were represented with Illinois predominating. Among those present was Miss Laura Witt from near Barrington, who was crowned dairy queen at Illinois two years ago.

The Pope girls have been taking turns visiting relatives in the city and having guests here. Last week Miss Marguerite was here; this week Betty is visiting and Lorraine Wilms is here.

COMPETITION

IT IS an excellent human quality, this ambition to excel. It is the stimulus of growth. Few of us can run our best without a pacemaker and a goal with a prize in view. Teachers found this out long ago and made the most of it.

"Look at this, John Smith. Five right out of ten. Fifty per cent. Harold, you got a hundred. That's a mark to be proud of. If I were you, John Smith, I wouldn't let Harold show me up like that. Maybe he is smarter than you are?"

Such prodding stirs the competitive instinct to action.

Ambition has been stirred but it was of that kind of ambition worthy men have died. It is an unworthy ambition. It rested on personal grudging, fear, and finally hatred. Bitter feeling is the certain result of such competition. The children take sides, the parents take sides and soon the community is involved in a wasteful struggle to place their entry first. Victory costs too much.

Competition is essential to sturdy ambition but the competition should be centered upon one's self. It is much harder to get a child to compete with his self of yesterday than it is to stir him to fight against his classmate. But when we consider the aim of this competition there can be no question about the sort we want to foster. We will put a soft pedal on any competition that pits one child against another, one class against another. The only growth the child is concerned in is his own. It should be that growth he competes against and for.

Let each child have a plotting sheet. Teach him how to make a curve of his progress in the subjects that you think he needs to cultivate. Spur his interest on with all your might but keep it on that red line he is tracing on the sheet. He will be just as thrilled to see it take on heights as ever he could be to see himself downing a classmate.

Even then we have to be on guard against the wrong sort of competition. One child will have a higher peak than another, and more of them but if you have made the meaning of the chart plain no harm can be done.

tainment. Their hostesses, the Misses Gertrude and Grace Weise, arranged a picnic for their last meeting. It was held at Dam No. 2 where they put into action the belief that "you are as young as you feel" and enjoyed all the rides and a picnic supper.

The surprise party Saturday evening on Mrs. Louis Pederson, State road, turned out to be a surprise on the guests. Mr. Pederson had taken Mrs. Pederson in to a show in Chicago that the guests might assemble. After waiting in the dark for nearly three hours for the host and hostess' return they were at last rewarded. Eighteen guests enjoyed the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Pederson, who are royal entertainers.

A group of girls, twelve in number, have formed a Camp Fire troop, with Mrs. A. D. Hines, substitute guardian and Lorraine Nelson, assistant guardian. The officers of the troop are: President, Margaret Allison; vice president, Ruth Mary Koerber; secretary, Katherine Hines; treasurer, Joyce Brown.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

"Sacrament" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, July 14.
The Golden Text was, "Whether therefore ye eat, or drink, or whatsoever ye do, do all to the glory of God" (1 Cor. 10:31).
Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "Moreover, brethren, I would not that ye should be ignorant, how that all our fathers were under the cloud, and all passed through the sea; And were all baptized unto Moses in the cloud and in the sea; And did all eat the same spiritual meat; And did all drink the same spiritual drink; for they drank of that spiritual Rock that followed them: and that Rock was Christ" (1 Cor. 10:1-4).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "Our Master taught no mere theory, doctrine, or belief. It was the divine Principle of all real being which he taught and practised. His proof of Christianity was no form or system of religion and worship, but Christian Science, working out the harmony of Life and Love" (p. 26).

ARLINGTON HEIGHTS

What is the news folks please excuse the wave-lengths of our skyline views; All day, all night kept up the row, Of when the shadow went and how, Why patter o'er a moon's eclipse? Is suddenly the balance tips Our town may hear news fly about, Of big star mortals jolted out; And fortunes wheel may turn some day, To help true builders clear the way; When no eclipse shall dim the light, Of noble souls who build for right.

This the day after the eclipse, July 16 and it was staged exactly on scheduled time, not a flaw in presentation. Hot weather had been a few days preceding the show, but the night sky of 15 and 16 was clear and perfect. The movement of stars and moon wonderful.

Vacation days are here—"One flew east and one flew west" and think of the family groups in the grandest latest model auto seeing America first. All sending cards with the cherrio "Wish you were here."

Mrs. C. F. Becker and family have gone up to Northern Wisconsin to enjoy the blueberry season and share in harvesting them.

Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Capps have gone for their summer vacation, leaving home last of the week.

The J. A. Daltens of North Belmont avenue started last week to join the sights and summer breezes of some more delightful place than this old prairie town.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Mitzlaff leased their home in Stonegate for the park season and have gone to spend the time at Camp Barrington.

Last Sunday the Emmanuel Reimer family, Mr. and Mrs. Schnurstein and Mr. Poedicker from Chicago, spent the day as guests of the Allen Schulte family.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Landmeier returned home last week from their vacation outing.

Don't forget the luncheon served by the Presbyterian Aid Society in the church dining hall Wednesday each week in July from 11:30 morning to 1:30 afternoon, wholesome, satisfying menu—35 cents.

Barbara McWhorter and her classmate, Mary Moss, spent three days this week with Barbara's grandmother, Mrs. A. F. Volz, in her summer home, Geneva Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter H. Dick of North State Road returned home last week after spending some time at Hayward, Northern Wisconsin. They enjoyed a pleasant time camping and fishing, yes and they brought home fish to prove their fishing brought results, besides getting a rare cosmetic that gave them a complexion brown as berries.

The Arthur Schmitz family are again at their summer camp on the Fox River at Cary, where they enjoy a variety of summer pastime and change.

Mrs. William Schoepke's birthday was on Friday, July 12, when she entertained a company of her friends to leave a happy memory of the date in her home on South Vail. Choice refreshments, games and a pleasant evening with their genial hostess who received sincere wishes for many returns of her birthday, each one happier than the last.

Miss Marion Fessler spent several days recently the guest of relatives in Chicago.

This cool northwest breeze is delightful today, but it may not be good for corn.

Mrs. J. D. Flentie and her daughter, Mrs. G. H. Wilke, spent a fortnight or longer up at Potter's Lake in the Northland. A delightful place to go in hot weather.

Miss Elizabeth Bray and Miss Bella Grimm of Mount Prospect, are spending their vacation among the scenic wonders of the west, including the Worlds Fair at San Diego, California.

Mr. George F. Peterson returned to his work in Chicago, after enjoying a two weeks vacation with his wife at Long Lake, Wisconsin. With them were two friends from Evanston. They rented a summer cottage and enjoyed every passing minute of the change and freedom of the out of doors.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Schulte and family accompanied by Miss Ruth Karstens, have gone to visit friends and relatives at Logansville and Reedsburg in Wisconsin.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Flentie have leased their home for the Park season and are making their home for a vacation change with his parents, Mayor and Mrs. J. D. Flentie on North Belmont avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Crane spent most of their vacation in side trip around their home vicinity. One day at Milwaukee, one day at Geneva to visit Mrs. Volz in her lake side home.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Palmer came home last week from their pleasant stay in the vicinity of the White mountains, where they could from a lofty height, gain a wonderful view of the ocean. Their stay in that beautiful place was with their daughters, whose home is there.

Mr. and Mrs. George Prasinos returned first of this week from their wedding tour. The bride's parents were in their home on West Euclid to welcome their returning, where they stayed to keep the home fires burning during their tour.

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Wilke of No. Belmont avenue have leased their home during the Park season to people whom they knew, and in the meantime will rest and enjoy the hospitality of his parents on North Wilke road.

The Social Five Hundred meet with Mrs. August Schulten in her home on South Evergreen avenue Thursday this week.

More July babies, Mr. and Mrs. Steven Kovick are the parents of a little daughter born July 5, 1935.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Kosmin are parents of a little daughter, born July 6, 1935.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Graham are the parents of a little son born July 9, 1935.

The Little Flower Club were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Albert Goelke Thursday last week in their home on West Wing street.

Miss Myrtle Thomas entertained a group of seven friends from Chicago last Sunday in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Thomas on Kensington Road. It was a delightful day in the pure country air, and an ideal party with an ideal hostess.

The Friendly class of the Presbyterian church are giving a dinner in the church hall Tuesday next week, served from 5:30 to 7:30 evening—choice menu, don't miss it.

Mrs. Edna Held returned Monday this week to her employment in the city after a week's vacation spent at home.

Miss K. J. Kealey spent last Sunday with her friend, Mrs. Huldah Beth in her home in Michigan.

Mrs. Richard Wilcox was a guest in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Watson, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Schmitz entertained a family gathering of relatives and friends in their home July 4. It was indeed one of the Schmitz frequent "Open House" days and there were more than 60 guests who enjoyed their cheerful "open air" hospitality. Athletic games and plentiful refreshments. Their son, Earl Schmitz, came from Rockford, bringing one of his friends to share the family party. The large grounds about the old family home and the cheerful hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Schmitz, make their entertainment a joy to their guests.

Mrs. Martin Wilke and her two daughters are spending this week with relatives at Kaneville and Geneva.

Mr. Nathan Richardson spent Sunday in Chicago with his cousins, the Reed brothers.

Little Donald, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Cunningham, of North Elgin, who has been ill for several weeks past, is now convalescing. A recent visit from his grandfather and aunt, Dorothy, from Indianapolis, helped to cheer the little invalid.

Mrs. Hefferen and her daughter, Miss Rath, had a happy surprise visit Sunday from Mrs. Whitehead from St. Louis. They had not seen her for some time and were joyful to have her as their guest. Mrs. Whitehead was formerly forelady of the department when Miss Ruth worked in the Benjamin Electric.

In all your pleasant summer activities, don't forget to be boarding white elephants for that autumn rummage sale.

The auxiliary of V. F. W. went to Elgin one day last week to carry cheer and friendly greetings to our boys in the hospital there. Ice cream, cup cakes as "cats." The V. F. W. post sent their usual contribution of cigarettes to assure their buddies they were thinking of them. They also took for our shut-in heroes, six suits of underwear, six day shirts and three straw hats and one bag of carpal rags to employ busy fingers. Those who went were Mesdames Rose Foley, Martha Moss, Birdie Nimmennan and Johan Kloeppel.

Mr. Charles Kenny and his wife were staying for the Park season with the Roy Dickersons in the home of Mrs. Fred Schmitt, who spent the time as a vacation with friends. Mr. Kenny was taken sick last week and his parents, Dr. and Mrs. Kenny came up and took him home to Kentucky last of the week.

The Friendly class are giving a dinner Tuesday next week in the Parish dining hall from 5:30 to 7:30. A fine menu is to be prepared, be sure and get tickets early from the class—price 50 cents.

Fan Death Notices Used
In the days when there were no newspapers in the Henderson (N. C.) section to announce deaths, it was the custom to write notices longhand, faster than to a palm leaf fan and have a servant carry them to the doors of friends.

Whale Killers Fined

NOTES FROM THE PALATINE COMMUNITY HOSPITAL

The Community hospital at Palatine is used by so many Arlington Heights people, this paper will hereafter give reports in this column of local people who are receiving care at that institution.

Edwin H. Meyer, of Arlington Heights, was operated upon for acute appendicitis Wednesday morning.

Miss Clara Maede of Arlington Heights, had an operation for chronic appendicitis at Community hospital recently and is doing well.

Irwin Niemeyer after convalescing nicely from a recent operation for acute appendicitis has returned to his home in Arlington Heights.

Verlie Wickenkamp, a victim of a recent automobile crash, is recovering from her injuries at Community hospital. During the past week she had an operation for open wiring of two fractures of the lower jaw.

Mrs. John Haemker of Arlington Heights who has been a patient at the hospital for medical treatment, has returned home.

Bert Blomquist has returned home from the local hospital where he received treatment for automobile injuries.

University Sunday At Lutheran Church Dr. Baur will Preach

St. Peter Lutheran church has set aside both services Sunday morning in the interest of the Lutheran university at Valparaiso, Indiana. This institution of higher learning has been in the hands of the Lutheran people since 1925, and since that time it has been completely transformed into one of the outstanding universities of the country on the basis of scholastic achievements. It has become known as "the poor man's university" because of the opportunities it offers to young people of moderate means to acquire a college education. Several young men of Arlington Heights are now students of this school, Robert Meyer, Fred Gieseke, Lester Malzahn and Edgar Flentie. The latter acquired his degree and was graduated in June.

The purpose of the special services Sunday is to stimulate on the part of the Lutheran public an active interest in their school of higher learning. Dr. John Baur, a representative of Valparaiso University, will deliver the sermons on the subject of "Christian College Education" in German at 9:30 and in English at 11 a. m. All friends of religious education are cordially invited to hear this noted speaker make a plea for a Christ-centered education.

Pure Carbon
Pure carbon exists in three modifications — amorphous (charcoal, lampblack, or coke), graphite, and diamond. Needless to say, the first form burns quite readily. The other two can be burned, but not under ordinary conditions. Compressed oxygen and a fairly high ignition temperature are usually necessary for their combustion. The heat given off in burning, however, is much the same for all three forms. The minerals or ash of coal contribute nothing to its heat value. The heat comes entirely from the oxidation of the coal's carbon and hydrogen, and chiefly from the former.

Once Called Sommer
Beranda has not always had its present name. According to an old record, it was first called "Sommer Island," as well in respect to the continual temporal area as in remembrance of Sir George Sommer.

Fifteen-Foot Tusk Found
The American Museum of Natural History received from Texas an imperial mammoth tusk 15 feet 4 inches long, believed to have weighed as fresh ivory almost 300 pounds.

Indians Were Planters
When the first explorers came to the lower Mississippi River valley they found the aborigines skillfully growing maize, beans, potatoes, artichokes, squash, peanuts, tobacco and cabbage.

Dinosaurs Short-Lived
Dinosaurs were short-lived, large-headed creatures some six feet in length and mere miniatures when compared with some of the reptiles which later dominated earth and water.

Boy Scouts

Quite Active This Summer

A series of dramatic sketches dedicated to the Boy Scouts of the nation who are observing their 25th anniversary this year and who are preparing for their first National Jamboree at Washington, D. C., Aug. 21 to 30, will be heard Monday evening, July 22 at 6:45 p. m. and three successive Mondays at the same time, according to an announcement released by the Headquarters of the Northwest Suburban Council. This nation wide series of broadcasts entitled "Heading for the Jamboree" will present skits depicting adventures and efforts of Scout Tommy Webster in his plans to attend this great gathering in Washington. The Jamboree in the nation's capital will be the largest gathering of boys ever held on American soil. The Scouts will erect a "tent city" of their own within the shadow of the Washington monument. "Jamboree City" will have its own telephone exchange, newspaper called the "Jamboree Journal," sewage and water system and hospitals. Over 400 Scouts from 30 foreign countries are expected to take part in the Jamboree.

Scout Leaders Attend Mid-Summer Training Course

A good group of Scout leaders and officials attended the opening of the mid-summer training course in Scouting Administration at the Mary Wilson House last Tuesday evening. Under the direction of Scout Executive Nimitz these men will discuss the various phases and features of Scouting, its program, organization and purpose. At last Tuesday's session the evening was given over to the discussion of the philosophy of Scouting and the organization that has made it possible to grow and expand to the world over in the past 25 years. The next session will be held next Tuesday evening, July 23, at which time the fundamentals of the administration of scouting in the troop will be the major part of the work. The course is open to all men and national training certificates will be issued to those that complete the work. The course is conducted under the leadership of the leadership and training committee of the Northwest Suburban Council.

Local Delegation Growing

Scout Executive C. O. Nimitz announced that 15 local Scouts were already registered with the Northwest Suburban Council contingent, six more boys have made tentative registrations and several others are contemplating registering before the deadline next Sunday. At least five Scout leaders will accompany the local contingent which is headed by Mr. Edw. H. Stehman, Scoutmaster of Troop 1 of Park Ridge. Serving with him in leadership capacity will be Scoutmaster R. H. Boettcher of Troop 28 of Morton Grove and Asst. Scoutmaster Edw. Fritz of Troop 2 of Park Ridge. President of the Council, Clifford C. Gregg and Scout Executive Nimitz will also accompany the group and it is expected other members of the Executive Board and local scouters will make reservations. The local contingent will leave for Washington, Monday evening, August 19, arriving there the afternoon of the following day after a short stopover at Harpers Ferry. They will travel in special air-conditioned coaches. They will leave Washington Saturday, August 31, arriving home on Sunday morning.

Two Local Leaders Added to Camp Staff

Due to the large enrollment at Camp Oh-Da-Ko-Ta the summer home of Northwest Suburban Scouts at Dyer Lake, Wisconsin, two additional leaders have been added to the already large camp staff. Both are from the Northwest Suburban Council. Asst. Scoutmaster, Fred Cheever, of troop 20, Des Plaines, will assist in the water front work and the administration of the nautical unit. Eagle Scout Geo. Hand of troop 1 of Park Ridge will assist in the base camp and help in the direction of the two troops making up that unit.

Camp Filled to Capacity

The camp is filled to capacity this week with the registrations constantly increasing for the remaining two weeks which may be necessary to extend the camp season for another week. All Scouts desiring to attend camp are urged to get registrations in to the local Scout Headquarters so that they may be assured places in the unit of their choice.

Honor Camper
Robt. Frankhauser of Troop 20 of Des Plaines was selected as the honor camper for last week. This selection is made on the basis of best all around camper and will entitle Scout Frankhauser to a medal which will be awarded at the first Court of Honor of the season this fall. Due to the details involved in preparation for the Scout Jamboree the usual honor campers trip will not be possible this year.

Those in camp at the present time are: George Johnson, Duane Rowe, Jack Sweeney, Robt. White, Kent Burgess, Wm. Steiner, Howard Ward, Lewis Sale, Wm. Johnson, Geo. Pasternak, Frank Gregg, Grant Watson, Robt. Mielke, Ed. Lawson of Park Ridge.

Erwin Blaha, Billy Raymond, Billy Kinder, Geo. Hackmeister, Albert Hackmeister, Howard Yates, Alex Campbell, Dick Richards and R. Frankhauser of Des Plaines.

Chas. Proctor and Alan Reinshagen of Arlington Heights; A. Fassender, Edw. Vasilik, Arthur Miller, Jas. Uptade, Elwin Kruse of Wheeling, Wm. Saul of Barrington. John Harpham of Park Ridge and Ted Foster of Niles Center have been on the camp staff since the camp opened.

MRS. ALICE B. WHITING

From the Tribune last week we quote the following: "Alice B. Whiting, July 12; daughter of the late David and Hattie Barringer, sister of Walter M. Barringer, funeral services private, in chapel, 4227 Cottage Grove avenue, Saturday, July 13. Private interment in Mount Hope cemetery." In Arlington she was known as Mrs. J. V. Whiting, their home beautified and made into a slightly modern home by Mr. and Mrs. Whiting. One of the features to mark it as an American home was a large flag of enduring beauty and material, the pride of J. V. Whiting's heart, always unfurled on our national holidays. This flag was given to the public school where Mr. Whiting was often a member of the board. There are many here who can sincerely testify to the kindness of Mrs. Alice Whiting's heart and who remember as helping many in need of a kind friend have heard of her going with regret. The former home of Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Whiting on Campbell street, is now known as the American Legion Home.

AMANDA FASSE

Amanda Fasse was born February 20, 1893 in Schaumburg, Ill., and was baptized and confirmed in the Schaumburg Lutheran church. She passed away Thursday afternoon, July 11, 1935, at the home of her sister, Mrs. August Licht, at Schaumburg, at the age of 42 years, 4 months and 21 days. She leaves to mourn her departure, one sister, Mrs. Aug. Licht, of Schaumburg; one brother, Mr. Herman Fasse of Elgin; one sister-in-law; two brothers-in-law. Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at Karstens Funeral Home at Arlington Heights, at 1:00 p. m., and interment was in Schaumburg cemetery.

following year he received Holy Baptism and was confirmed in 1875. At the age of 22 he came to America with his parents in 1883, where they located in Arlington Heights. February 15, 1892, he was united into the bonds of holy matrimony with Mrs. Catherine Koebemann, nee Kuehing, who survives him. This union was blessed with six children, three sons and three daughters, of whom one daughter, Elsie preceded her father in death at the age of 17 years in 1918. After their marriage, Mr. and Mrs. Krueger lived for several years on a farm in Town Elk Grove. From there they moved to near Bensenville, where they resided about 20 years. The last 8 years Mr. Krueger had retired from farm life to Arlington Heights. Since last winter his health began to fail and in the last months he was very weak and feeble. He passed away Friday afternoon, July 5, about 2 p. m., thus attaining the age of 73 years, 6 months and 15 days.

He leaves to mourn his demise his grief-stricken wife, Catharine Krueger; five children, William of Itasca; Albert of Bensenville; Mrs. Maria Pingel of Elk Grove; Mrs. Ida Ringe of Mt. Prospect; Alfred of Elk Grove; one step-daughter, Mrs. Lillie Pingel of Arlington Heights; 12 grandchildren; one brother of Nebraska; one sister, Mrs. August Radtke of St. James, Minn.; three sons-in-law; three daughters-in-law; two brothers-in-law and other relatives and many friends.

Mr. Krueger was a faithful and devoted member of St. John's church. Let us cherish his memory. May the Lord console the mourning

"Grow old gracefully," this phrase it's irony who shall explain? The lofty mountain wins your gaze Yet you seek life and growth in vain, Grow old gracefully as a tree Upward and outward it's spread Shade and shelter ever to be A boon to the weary ones head, On life's pathway ever to trace Kindness and joy—the spirit of grace.

Is this better to not think about self or age too much, just keep on growing. If the spirit of grace rules your acts, and your purposes, it will be sure to radiate from you to bless the lives about you.

We know how Jane Addams grew old gracefully, thinking of others more than of self. Not one bit worrying about the grace of outward appearance, not her added years. The spirit never grows old. Though the poor house it lives in does bother us getting out of repair.

Along comes the moon staging a total eclipse at an unconscionable hour Monday night and Tuesday morning. Whether Madam Luna wears a jeweled crown watch or the latest radiated Buloxer her dates are rigidly kept. If you as me, I think she is a pert old dame to shut off her glim at such an hour. Anyway be sure and see the eclipse.

There is so much of intense interest going on, picnics, banquets and private parties, and best of all came my good old Kentucky friend "Mac" with gentle wife, one of my own children. And besides themselves a luscious watermelon, to share with us for fear Vera would eat too much of it.

This perfect weather, so many pleasant things come to pass, and so many kind friends are sharing their wealth of pleasant happenings and experiences, within the week past. One going up in Michigan to spend the day with a dear friend, another had a raise in wages. Others wrote or told of little joy all unexpected which came to them.

This is the sharing of real riches. If only our newspapers could learn that the telling and bringing over crime suggest and bring about more crime. One of our daily papers, (and all do the same) had a whole page of pictures showing those who had taken part or were to be witnesses, a gory tale of horror. Will not some wise journalist do the world a favor by giving us a paper devoted to telling of good accomplished and pictures of good people, who are making the world a better place to live in.

Had a letter from a dear friend the other day who used to breeze in and tell us the latest rumor especially if it held a touch of humor. In her letter she sent a clipping from some paper or magazine, pretty soon I am going to share it with you, just as that kind friend shared her cheery riches with me. Here it is:

"A big silver dollar and a little brown cent, Rolling along together went; Rolling along on the smooth sidewalk."

When the dollar remarked (for dollars do talk) "You poor little cent, you cheap little mite I am bigger and twice as bright, I'm worth more than you a hundred fold."

And written on me in letters bold In a motto drawn from a pious creed In God we trust which all may read."

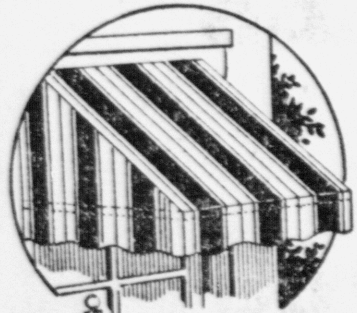

"Yes, I know," said the cent, "I'm a cheap little mite, And I know I'm not big nor good nor bright, And yet, said the cent with a meek little sigh, You don't go to church as often as I."

Pretty cute wasn't it? When more people will cultivate sharing the good deeds they hear of our own people minded folks will be urged to look on the bright side, to think of good and kindly deeds and most of all to cultivate cheerfulness and a sense of humor, and share their best thoughts, the world will grow better for all.

Sunday, July 14, the St. James R. C. church held a picnic in Meyers Park and St. Peters held their Altenheimfest. Strains of music came to us over the air in perfect 1893. We attended the first one given, as the home was dedicated. It was an impressive service. Many were there who are no more in the earthly congregation.

Arlington Heights citizens have cause to be thankful that the races are not carried on Sunday. I trust

there are those in town who look after the strangers here and invite them into our churches. There may be those who are far from home and in trouble.

Why be grumbling and brooding over trouble. Why find fault when something has gone wrong? Don't you know "From the day you are born till you ride in your hearse, there is nothing so bad that might not be worse." This is a good old world, the best you ever lived in. Cheer up, don't be a grouch.

You get up in the morning, Ready to jaw and flout, First your coffee you are scorning, You've a mind to throw it out.

You pick up the morning paper, Ready to read the news, Of Congress' latest caper, And that Eagle with the "blues."

Your church is in a muddle, Heels overhead in debt; The church board in a huddle Give you greater grouches yet.

You grouch about the weather, The assessments and the taxes, Politicians altogether Are now grinding axes.

O can't you cease complaining? Cheer up, Cease help us try Our standards high maintaining, If you will, so will I.

In true cooperation Let us at once begin; Thus in church, in town and nation, We shall as victors win.

It is a pleasure to have surprise visits from friends, old or young. Such a surprise we enjoyed one day last week when Miss Margaret Teller, who so completely belongs, breezed in with three of her cousins, one of them Mrs. Davies, who bought us a sketch of the life of Prof. Jesse Lowe Smith as printed in the Highland Park Press at the time of his death, April, 1934. As this wonderful humanitarian and nature lover had given two or three of his informing talks in this town and is known to many, we quote a brief extract from this sketch.

"Thirty-two years over the schools in Highland Park, half of his lifetime. What one got from him was not limited or restricted by what he was willing to give, but only by what one was capable of receiving." He was a public spirited citizen; in him was finely manifested that thing America must recover, an interest in the community, its organized life. Just before going to the hospital he said to one of his assistants, "Take care of the children's garden, the garden in which they worked, played and grew." Mrs. Davies, whose husband was Prof. Smith's assistant, loaned us this sketch.

Other old friends heard from last week were the W. Don Smiths. Yes, a letter from another branch of the Smith family, well known, respected and beloved by many in Arlington Heights, where Mr. Smith was for eight years in charge of our public school and in example, teaching and influence has never been excelled. Mrs. Smith was Mistress of the "Permanent waves" of good cheer and humor.

Yes, Mrs. Maude Smith, when all seemed down and out would breeze in with some amusing gossip, some picturesque account of our town's highlights or "Old Best families." How we missed Smiths, always glad to hear from them and that they are well. Would be gladder yet for a good old time visit from them.

Reckon will be compelled to close the chapter about the Smith family that though numerous, has no blot on its essence and dates back to the first Smith who hammered out the gold for the crown of England's first king. Could you beat that for a family record. Its now time to preach a bit.

A few years ago a great tidal wave destroyed many lives, homes and vast wealth on the coast of Texas. In speaking of this sad destruction of life and property, several Christian ministers referred to it as coming "In the Providence of God." And one whom never forgets stood up bravely and said the terrible was caused not by the Providence of God, but was "due to the improvidence of man." They builded on a spot known to have been often swept by tidal waves, yet in their foolish improvidence, headed not the danger.

So do we abuse the things which, if used sanely and right are for our good. In our improvidence we allow people on the highways to drive autos who are mentally unfit either by nature or a drink that upsets the nerves of their brains and death and destruction result. We read so many tragic tales of automobile accidents and sometimes question whether the motor car has brought to us more of good than of evil. However, when we think of the number of families in Arlington Heights who have taken motor trips north, south, east and west, seeing America first, the appeal of the automobile, rightly used outweighs the evil.

Swiftly over the great highway, Happy families ride today; Father, mother, daughter and son, Glad in their going, everyone.

Into the lands of spruce and pine, Round the rims of lakes that shine; Cool are the breezes, blue the skies, Quickly the glad vacation flies.

Who can measure the good that flows Where the family auto goes? On and on, where billows break Over the shores of our greatest lake.

On to the mammoth waterfalls, Where the voice of ceaseless wonder calls, On where historic scenes are spread, Mountains towering overhead.

Into the heart of our cities great, Crown of the proud old Empire state; Through the hub of the universe, Boston famed in story and verse.

Then to our Nations capitol, Pride of patriots, great or small; Some may swing to the southern clime, Of palms ad endless summer time.

Oldest Symbol

The fish is considered the oldest symbol of Christianity. When the pagans first became Christians they were afraid of being persecuted and put to death by those who still believed in pagan gods; so they invented a secret sign, giving it the form of a fish. When they wanted to make their new and beautiful belief known to each other and wanted to find out whether the man with whom they associated was pagan or Christian, they drew the sign of the fish in the sand, and if the person responded in the same way, they felt safe to speak of their new faith.

BANKING READY

NEW YORK—There is abundant evidence that banks are in an unusually favorable position to finance a period of industrial growth, says the June issue of "Banking" published by the American Bankers Association.

Curry, a Condiment

Curry is defined as a kind of condiment introduced from India, containing tumeric (which gives it a yellow color), curry leaves, garlic, pepper, ginger and other strong spices.

Reveille

Of more than unusual interest will be the raising of the main Camp Flag at the Boy Scouts' Jamboree in Washington, August 21-30, for that flag will have been the first dedicated by having one of its stars sewn on by none other than the great-grand grand niece of The Flag's maker, Betsy Ross, in the very home in Philadelphia where Betsy Ross received General Washington when he came to ask her to design the emblem for the new country, and, first flown from the 80-foot steel flag staff standing in the park about that humble cottage. Other than the very first flag which Betsy Ross made for General Washington, it is probable that no other flag ever flown has received such a notable christening. The Boy Scouts of America should feel proud that they will be the first to gaze upon these Country's Colors, when they are raised to their camp's main staff, at the Jamboree.

Timely Garden Hints

By MR. and MRS. C. H. MARBACH

To combat mildew and black spot on roses which are fungus diseases use nine parts of dusting sulphur and one part of powdered lead arsenate, mix these two dusts together. Then dust both sides of the leaves. Continue this process once a week until you are positive you have conquered these blights. The fine hairs of the leaves will hold the dust to be ready for the spores of the diseases as they come about.

Aphis, or lice is a pest that likes to live on the young stems of rose growth and can be destroyed by nicotine in some form.

A prepared fungicide called Trigon, costs more than the dust, but the result is worth the difference. Dusting or spraying should be done before a rain as the fungus troubles are worse when the weather is damp.

An old fashioned flower of grandmothers' day that is becoming popular and is easy of culture and free of disease is the Hemerocallis or Day Lily. They can be had now in colors from near white through many shades of yellow, orange and near red on stems five feet in height. Their blooming period lasts about a month during July and August.

A morning glory that is very prominent and popular now is the Heavenly Blue that makes a desirable climbing vine. Wherever seen growing and in bloom, you are amazed by its beautiful shade of heavenly blue from which it derives its name.

Shed Leaves Early

When water is scarce from drouth or some such cause, deciduous trees shed their leaves early as a protective device, since it is through its leaves that a tree loses most of its moisture.

Mrs. P. H. Frey entertained friends from Chicago on Wednesday at a 1 o'clock luncheon.

Ray and Billie Salzman left Thursday morning with their grandmother, Mrs. Bush for a vacation trip to Greenville, Texas. They arrived at their destination early Friday afternoon.

Robert Landeck, son of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Landeck, preached last Sunday at Park Ridge. The Sunday before he occupied the pulpit at Barrington, and next Sunday he will conduct the services in the Elk Grove church.

Mrs. J. Bernhard was the guest of Palmer Unit of the American Legion Auxiliary on Tuesday evening.

Mr. E. T. Wolfe and family left Monday for a three-day trip to the Indiana State Park at Turkey Run.

The Misses Viola Holste, Evelyn Holste, Dorothy Landeck, Leona Maleske, Elvira Meyn, and Emma Seidel enjoyed a week's stay at Devils Lake, Wisconsin, returning last Sunday. The six young ladies drove up and occupied a beautiful cottage for the week, and returned enthusiastic over the fine time they had enjoyed at the popular Wisconsin resort.

Miss Phyllis Frey of Chicago, spent a few days visiting her grandmother, Mrs. P. H. Frey.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Schirmer were callers in Mt. Prospect on Friday evening.

NINTH DISTRICT AMERICAN LEGION AUXILIARY

The Ninth District Board meeting was held at the home of Mrs. I. Gahl of Park Ridge. At that time our membership was 1723.

Mrs. Helen Klock, rehabilitation chairman, is planning on taking cigarettes to the boys at Elgin. We, of the District, were sorry to learn of the death of Mrs. Melin. She was a member of Melin and Romer unit. We extend sympathy to the family.

The next meeting of the District will be held at Barrington, with Barrington unit the hostess. This will be past director's night. We expect to have as our guest Mrs. Bessie Smith, past president of the state.

COOK COUNTY BOYS STATE SUCCESSFUL39 Boys from this County Take Part in Gov't; 9th Dist. Represented

Thirty-nine Cook County boys have been conspicuous in bringing to an unusually brilliant conclusion the first Boys' State ever attempted as an instruction in actual operation of government, which closed June 29 with a ceremonial visit to Lincoln's tomb, where a wreath bought by pennies of the boys, was placed upon the sarcophagus of the Emancipator.

The Cook county lads showed their political sagacity in capturing four of the six top "state" offices in the general election.

The camp was divided into six cities and three counties. The boys divided into two political parties called the Nationals, or conservative element; and the Federals, or liberals.

While the Nationals won the three top state offices, the liberal Federals caught the money offices and an overwhelming majority in both houses of the general assembly.

A state police force under Superintendent W. S. Schlenker displayed a discipline which caused their Illinois state police mentors to say they, rather, were learning from the boys.

Two corporations were recognized and issued certificates by the Secretary of State. One was for a newspaper called the Boys State, and the other for a telephone company, which, though only 24 feet long, won from the boys industrial commission on a certificate of necessity and convenience.

The State Supreme Court issued certificates to lawyers to practice in the courts. Police Chiefs struggled with the original sin of the citizenry. Health officials checked food and sanitary conditions.

In honor of a deceased state Legion commander, the camp's first aid hospital, manned daily by doctors and nurses, who had little to do, was named the Bullington Memorial Hospital.

When the boys had organized their governments, their elders ceased all work except supervision and guidance. The national headquarters of the Legion at Indianapolis sent three national officers to watch the unique experiment in teaching good government.

The camp was incorporated under Illinois laws and will be introduced all over the nation.

Date Set for Annual Carnival Under the Firemen Management

The annual carnival which alternates under the management of the Veterans of Foreign Wars and the firemen, will be in charge this year of the Village firemen. The carnival is an event to which the villagers look from one year to the next for everyone has a good time. The date set for this year is the four days from Wednesday, August 14 to Saturday, August 17. No details are available yet regarding the affair, but the firemen are at work and particulars will be given later in the REVIEW.

Wonderful Show In Sky Monday Night

After seeing the complete eclipse of the moon which took place on Monday night, beginning at 10:11 o'clock one can well sympathize with the ancients who believed at such times that a great catastrophe was at hand. A few hundreds of years ago, and perhaps even less than that in more backward communities, local prophets brought many converts into the fold by predicting the end of the world at a date and time which coincided with a total eclipse. Even today there are tribes of benighted humans who gather together and pound on drums, blow hideous horns and use all manner of noise making instruments to keep the dragon from devouring the moon.

At ten-fifteen, when the eclipse was first very noticeable, radios were playing all over the Village, people were talking and laughing and going about their ordinary affairs as if nothing unusual were happening, except for a few who had enough curiosity about natural phenomena to be interested.

At ten-thirty the eclipse was well under way, the shadow was deepening over the face of the moon. Train-men were blowing their locomotive whistles just a little louder and longer because of the lessening visibility.

At eleven o'clock only a small part of the moon was visible. The dragon had almost completely swallowed the moon. And at eleven-fifteen, the moon was completely in the shadow of the earth. The cloudless sky showed little of the reflected rays of the moon, and the stars shone in all their glory unhampered by any greater light. The moon was visible as a mere outline after the eclipse was complete. Before then it looked like an extremely large yellow Japanese lantern very far away. The eclipse lasted until almost one o'clock, then the moon gradually began its emergence from the shadow.

No one was excited, except a few astronomers gathered at observatories where they could see the effects of the light through their instruments. And yet some pessimists say that the human race is not progressing. Years ago an eclipse of the moon would have been in the nature of a major catastrophe, but not in this scientific age. Monday night astronomers grasped the opportunity to observe the moon because this is the first total eclipse since 1928, and the last until 1938, and for the ordinary non-scientific man it was a wonderful sight.

If you missed it, you'll have a chance again in 1938 to make up for an opportunity lost on Monday night, July 15.

Lions Club Annual Picnic Will Take Place Sunday In Forest Preserve

The annual Lions picnic will be this next Sunday in the Elk Grove Forest Preserve, at the same spot as in previous years. The picnic will begin about one o'clock in the afternoon, when all Lions and their families and friends will gather for an afternoon of fun and merriment. There will be a basket dinner in the evening, and refreshments will be served in addition.

The committee to arrange for the picnic as appointed by Lion President, Fred Meeske is E. T. Wolfe, Fred W. Busse, and Henry Kruse. A good time is assured to all who attend with such a committee in charge.

Games of all sorts will be played in the afternoon to whet jaded appetites. A soft ball game will be used for the devotees of that sport and many other games will be played. All Lions and their families are urged to attend the picnic. Those who have attended in previous years know what a good time it is to be had and will need no urging.

FHA TITLE II LOANS IN THIS AREA ACTIVEReport of Week Ending July 3 Shows Active Building Continues

For the week ending July 3, commitments and new applications for FHA Title II insured mortgage loans totaled 19 in amount of $136,520 for the northern Illinois district, which comprises 16 counties, according to Carroll H. Sudler, district director. This brings the total to date of approved loans and applications for the district to 276 amounting to $1,422,595.

Title II covers government-insured loans in two divisions; one, loans for new construction and the other, loans for the refinancing of old mortgages on existing structures.

Of the total, 11 are approved loan commitments for $65,490 and the remaining 8 are new applications totaling $71,030. The 11 commitments are divided into 7 loans amounting to $40,450 for refinancing old mortgages on existing construction, and 4 loans amounting to $25,040 for new home construction. The 8 new applications are all for new construction and, adding these to the loans previously approved by the northern Illinois office, the total reaches $994,734 for new home construction to date.

Attention is directed to the fact that five of the new applications average more than $11,500 each, which makes the week "a record one," said Mr. Sudler, "not for number of applications received, but for quality of the home to be built."

The applications for the week are one from each town as follows: De Kalb, $11,400; Hinsdale, $10,200; Winnetka, $10,880; Kenilworth, $12,500; Glenview, $12,650; Des Plaines, $4,400; Oregon, $4,500; Elgin $4,500.

Percy Wilson, FHA regional director, reports that June commitments for new home construction and refinancing in the 7th region which comprises the states of Illinois, Indiana, Iowa and Wisconsin, show a 54 per cent increase over the figure for May. New applications in June for the region amounted to $6,569,946, a 29 per cent increase over May.

Number of Mad Dogs Sets Record This Year

During the current season Illinois has had the greatest crop of mad dogs in several years, according to Dr. Frank J. Jirka, of the Department of Public Health. The report shows that for the first six months of 1935 no less than 459 dogs' heads have been examined for rabies and one half of that number showed positive evidence of the disease. Many hundreds of people have been exposed to hydrophobia through the bites of mad dogs.

At an expense of about $15,000, the State Department furnished the Pasteur treatment for 1,220 people who have been bitten during the first six months. In addition to this cost there was an additional expense of medical fees for giving the treatments which consist of fourteen to twenty-one doses for each person.

Golf Stages A Come-back

Golf is again becoming popular. Like other things which are not absolute necessities, the ancient honorable game lost followers during the past several years. Now the managers of the courses around the Village report a very decided gain in the number of players engaged in this maddening yet fascinating sport.

The American Legion is playing at Rob Roy every Thursday night, and Doc Cunningham is said to be swinging a mean club. Rob Roy has its followers and is enjoying quite a bit of play from the neighboring towns.

The Northwest Hills Country Club course offers inducements to the golfer far beyond the ordinary. The course is an extremely sporty one, and the management is very accommodating.

Old Orchard is one course which the golf-playing reporter of the REVIEW has not yet played, but it has its followers also, who are very enthusiastic.

The pros at the courses visited proved to be very accommodating gentlemen. They are willing to take time to discuss golfing in all its phases with the rank amateur.

AT THE CATLOW

"The Informer" which plays the Catlow theatre Friday night, gives Victor McLaglen an outstanding story, well produced and enhanced by very fine photography. The situations are laid in Ireland, and concerns the betrayal by McLaglen of his best friend. Saturday night brings Heather Angel and Lytle Talbot in "It Happened In New York." It is a comedy drama, rapid and light, built around the attempt of a movie star to steal a little stenographer's boy friend. A 9:00 p. m. feature, both Friday and Saturday night will be an item of importance to all patrons who are holding registration numbers.

Ring Lardner's classic of baseball and blondes "Alibi Ike" is scheduled for the Sunday-Monday spot with Joe E. Brown as the dizzy miracle man in the box. It will be a near call for the great game on account of laughter as fans howl, "What a pitcher! what a picture!" Charlie Chase in "Poker at 8," Mickey Mouse in "Service Station," News Band Act and Community singing will build the Sunday-Monday program to a new high in light entertainment.

Bargain night offering next Tuesday will be a return showing of Gary Cooper's, "Lives of a Bengal Lancer," a production rated among the best of the entire year, —one that fully merits repeated playing.

"Les Miserables," Victor Hugo's ageless classic, with the stars, Fredric March and Charles Laughton, is scheduled for Wednesday-Thursday of next week. It will be remembered Jenn Valjean had stolen a loaf of bread. After serving his monstrous sentence he was free —free to live a lifetime of terror,—a hunted thing bereft of love, honor and a name.

WHEELING

Mrs. O. W. Ellwood and her young daughter, returned home from Kansas last week accompanied by Mrs. Ellwood's sister. Upon arriving at Ottawa, Kansas about a month ago the Ellwoods had the unique experience of traveling about four blocks down the main streets of the city in a motor boat in order to reach the section of the city in which their people reside which fortunately was on higher ground. By the time they left, however, rain was again needed.

A baby boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Mike Melzer at the Wheeling hospital on Wednesday, July 10. Mother and baby are doing nicely.

Six members of Wheeling Boy Scout Troop are enjoying a week at Camp Oh-Da-Ko-Ta, Wisconsin. They are Alfred Krueger, James Utpatel, Elwin Kruse, Arthur Miller, Arthur Fassbender and Edward Wesolek.

Mrs. Ackerman of Milwaukee is visiting here with her son.

Rev. E. L. Shaw spent several days of this week at his father's home in Alexis where he planned to meet his brother's family from the east.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Sigwalt visited relatives here on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Clark and their son, John, are away on a trip to England. Their daughter, Margaret, who spent the past year studying at the University of Edinburgh, Scotland, will meet them to return to America.

Last call for the 8th Annual Wheeling Day celebration, which will be held Saturday and Sunday of this week, July 20 and 21, being sponsored by the Wheeling Chamber of Commerce and the Volunteer Fire Dept. The program of activities will start off with a ball game between Glenview and Wheeling on Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Races for all ages will be held Saturday afternoon also. The Queen of Wheeling will be selected on Saturday. Girls aspiring to the title should inform their friends that votes will be sold at 1 cent each. All voting will be done on Saturday. A seven piece German brass band will furnish music for dancing on both days, playing both modern and old time music. On Sunday afternoon Wheeling baseball team will meet Long Grove. Refreshments will be on sale and many other attractions for your entertainment. Come and bring your friends.

MUDDY FIELDS, LODGED STRAW IRK FARMERS

Agricultural Engineer
Difficulties

Urbana, Ill., July 17—A little special equipment and a lot of patience are the only means for farmers to overcome lodged straw and muddy fields in harvesting the state's crop of 2,200,000 acres of wheat, rye, oats and barley this season, according to A. L. Young, agricultural engineer at the College of Agriculture, University of Illinois. Heavy rains have made harvesting a far more complicated problem than it usually is, he said. Suitable drive-wheel lugs and a power take-off will usually solve the muddy field problem for the farmer who uses a tractor and power binder. The owner of a horse binder, whether he pulls it with horses or tractor, has a different problem to meet in a muddy field, since the bull wheel of the binder skids and the binder will not work.

The only satisfactory solution to this problem is the use of a small gasoline engine attached to the binder and coupled to the cutting and binding mechanism of the machine, Young stated.

Lodged straw offers a difficult problem at the best, said Young. Extension guards attached to the regular guards of the binder are of some help in picking up and straightening the straw. Varying grain conditions also call for frequent changes of the reel. If the grain is badly lodged, it may be necessary to cut only in one direction, that is, opposite the way the straw lays.

Cutting with a mower and raking is not a satisfactory method, but may be used with some success for small fields and where the straw is so badly lodged and tangled as to prevent binding.

During rainy years, such as the present, it is advisable to set the bundles up in long, narrow shocks to give them plenty of opportunity to dry out. It is also best to delay cutting until the grain is fairly ripe and make small bundles that will dry readily.

TWO QUESTIONS ANSWERED

Why is it that one farmer raises 100 bushels of corn to the acre, and the other one, on the other side of the fence, raises 25 bushels to the acre? Why is it that one farmer produces 100 pounds of pork on five bushels of corn, and another uses 25 bushels? Not until power machinery, scientific principles of soil fertilization and restoration, rotation of crops, diversification of crops and economical feeding are applied to the farm, will the farmers' problem be solved, says an authority.

Significant economic developments to be expected in the next decade are listed by a prominent business writer as follows: (1) Higher standard of living. (2) Continued advances in technical processes of production. (3) Factory built houses, better and cheaper than hand made houses. (4) Somewhat cheaper money. (5) Faster travel. (6) News printed by radio. (7) Mechanical cotton picker, revolutionizing the South. (8) Cheaper electric power. (9) Better distribution of goods; more chain stores. (10) Another depression five or six years hence, preceded by an inflationary boom.

WARN FARMERS OF SNAKEROOT POISON WEED

Heavy Rains Infest Illinois
Livestock

Urbana, Ill., July 17—Heavy rains which have made Illinois pasture luxuriant this year have not ended the danger of white snakeroot poisoning to man and to livestock during the coming few months, according to a warning in a newly revised circular, "White Snakeroot Poisoning," which has just been issued by the College of Agriculture, University of Illinois.

Even though pasture grass is abundant, animals may eat the leaves of the poisonous white snakeroot weed from time to time. Overstocking pastures, even if they are good ones, increases the risks from the poisoning, which occurs every year in Illinois, the circular warns.

Persons using dairy products or meat of animals affected by "trembles," as white snakeroot poisoning is known, may contract milk sickness, an ailment which runs a rapid course and has a high mortality rate.

Keeping livestock away from white snakeroot and eradicating the weed from pastures and woodlots are the only sure ways of preventing the poisoning, according to the circular.

The plant is a tall, slender perennial herb which usually grows in partially cleared woodlots, swampy areas, shady ravines and in groves along streams. The greatest danger is from July until late in the fall. This is especially true during dry years when pastures are short and dry. White snakeroot can generally be recognized by its broadly oval leaves, set opposite each other and having sharply-toothed, or serrated, edges. The non-poisonous varieties usually have narrower leaves.

In small patches the weed is best eradicated by pulling each plant by the roots. In large patches proper cropping is the most satisfactory means of eradication. Livestock should be kept out of pastures containing any of the weed.

Weakness, loss of appetite, constipation and a trembling of the voluntary muscles when the animal is forced to move are among the early symptoms of poisoning. When these symptoms are observed the stock should be taken from pasture and a reliable veterinarian called. The immediate attention of a physician should be given to cases of milk sickness among humans.

SEES INFLATION A SLOW PROCESS

A Real Danger for the Future,
Col. Ayres Tells Banking
Groups.

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J.—Present prospects do not indicate that inflation severe enough to cause further dollar devaluation will come soon in this country, but as an ultimate development it seems to be a very real danger, Leonard P. Ayres, Vice President Cleveland Trust Company, said here tonight in an address before the Graduate School of Banking. He believed this statement to be true "unless the government enters frankly upon a policy of issuing fiat money with which to meet its expenses." At present that does not seem to be in sight, he said.

The Graduate School is operated jointly by the American Institute of Banking Section of the American Bankers Association and Rutgers University to offer advanced studies for bank officers.

"We have so enormously increased the capacity of our banking system for credit expansion that it is difficult to see how we could have a vigorous business revival without having it develop into a credit inflation," Colonel Ayres declared.

Inflation is a slow process. If inflation does come it will be a slow process, he said, pointing out that in Germany, France, Belgium and Italy it took about five years to develop from the time when the governments entered upon policies of financing large peace-time deficits by bank credit up to the time when the public generally began to spend money rapidly because of fear that it would still further depreciate.

"If we are to go through such a period here it would seem likely that it might last rather longer than the corresponding periods did abroad," he said. "Its beginning would date from the spring of 1933 when we left the old gold basis for our money and entered upon the policy of financing large government deficits by the sale of Federal securities mainly to banks rather than to private investors."

"The method that we are following is the one that proved disastrous in Europe for in all those countries including Germany, the increasing issues of money that caused the inflation were not mere printing press issues of fiat currency, but were secured by government bonds and notes discounted at the banks."

Among the clearest lessons taught by the European experience, Colonel Ayres asserted, is that there are "no good hedges against inflation." He added:

Did Not Lighten Debt Burdens
"One of the strange facts about these inflations is that while they destroyed the values of most existing debts, they did not succeed in lightening the debt burdens of either the people as a whole, or of the corporations."

"Inflation destroys the value of bonds and mortgages and so confiscates the property of these holders of obligations and hands it over to the shareholders and the equity owners. However, it introduces so many new economic difficulties that these share and equity holders are at once forced to incur new indebtedness so that when stabilization comes the problems of debt are about as troublesome as they were before, or even more so."

The five requisites of inflation were listed by Colonel Ayres as first, a period of sustained active business; second, a rising stock market; third, real credit expansion; fourth, greater out-flow of gold "than we can tolerate which would force us to cut our currency entirely free from gold"; and fifth, continued large budget deficits in government operation.

THEATRE NOTES

Clark Gable and Loretta Young
Star in "Call of the Wild" Coming to the United Artists
Theater Soon

Clark Gable, the star of 20th Century's production "Call of the Wild" coming to the United Artists theater soon was born in Cadiz, Ohio, February 1, 1901.

Clark was educated in his home town and in Hopedale, Ohio. After graduating from high school, he worked as a time-keeper. Ambitious to become a doctor, he enrolled in premedical classes of the night school of the University of Akron. He worked with his father for a while in the Oklahoma oil fields. Then went "barnstorming" and wound up in Portland, Oregon. He took another fling at the theater, then worked with an engineering group on lumber surveys. He sold advertising, worked for the telephone company and saved a small sum and decided to cast his lot definitely with pictures.

His recent film appearances include "Men in White," "Dancing Lady," "Chained," "Forsaking All Others," and "Happened One Night," for which he received the award of the Motion Picture Academy of Art and Sciences.

146 on County Payroll At Wheaton Says Survey

According to a survey published in the Hinsdale Doings last week, there are 146 persons, employed at Wheaton in the conduct of the county business. This list includes elected and appointed officials and their clerical help. The salaries range from $20 to over a $100 a week. Many of these employees, however, are not year 'round workers.

An interesting sidelight on this survey is the representation that DuPage communities enjoy at the Wheaton court house. Wheaton has 39 out of the 146, Elmhurst 19, Glen Ellyn 16, Naperville 11, Downers Grove 10, West Chicago 10, Westmont 9, Villa Park 6, Winfield 5, Hinsdale 4, Lombard 4, Warrenville 2, Lisle 2, Bloomingdale 2, Addison 1, Itasca 1, Pleasant Hill 1, Bensenville 1, Wayne 1, Roselle 1, Clarendon Hills 1.

Ten Take Anti-rabies Treatment Because They Contacted Sick Dog

Because they came in contact with a pet dog which later was found to have rabies, 10 Downers Grove people, including the policeman who shot the animal, are undergoing anti-rabies treatments. It was necessary to kill the dog when it became violent. The head was sent to the Illinois Research Laboratory in Chicago for examination and rabies discovered.

Anti-rabies treatment requires 14 different injections of serum.

Boards of Review Meet With Tax Commission

Last week the DuPage county board of review of which N. W. Lies is chairman, along with like bodies from the other 101 counties of the state met at Springfield with the state tax commission, consisting of John C. Martin, Barnett Hodges and Simeon E. Leland. The object of the meeting was for the purpose of outlining a more equitable system of reviewing the assessments on property in the State.

Mr. Martin informed the Boards of Review in attendance that "co-operation with the local taxing officials, not coercion, is the policy of the State body. There is no desire on the part of the Tax Commission to dictate to you as to how you should do your job."

Tax Commissioner, Barnett Hodges of Chicago, gave the warning to the local officials that "if you would avoid any form of 'tax dictatorship,' which none of us want, it is up to you to show that the local agencies can and will assess property so that every property owner bears his own share of the tax burden, no more—no less."

Governor Henry Horner addressed the meeting and gave a short resume of the things accomplished by the State Government in the way of taxes and reductions.

NILES CENTER

Mrs. Gertrude E. Baumhardt and son, Elmer, with Mrs. Martha Kindt, Mrs. Ella Tess and Mrs. Ida Harms motored to Niagara Falls on Monday.

Mrs. Henry Maierhofer is expected home this week from St. Francis hospital.

Last Friday the infant seven months old daughter, Joan, of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Harte, was laid to rest in St. Peter's Evangelical cemetery. Rev. Paul E. Winger officiated.

Sunday, July 14, Mrs. Edward Steel and Mrs. Dorothy Mayer, observed their natal days.

On Wednesday, Mrs. Henry Remke, Miss Elsie Stielow, Mrs. Louise Klehm, Mrs. Frank Noettinger, Mrs. Armin Mayer and children, helped Miss Erna E. Koellner of Norwood Park celebrate her birthday.

We are happy to report that Mrs. Adam Koester is improving so nicely after her operation she is anxious to come home.

Miss Elsie Stielow was a dinner guest of Mrs. Florence Freund of Wilmette last Wednesday evening. Thursday evening Miss Stielow entertained the Center Social club at her home on Floral avenue.

Instead of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Luebbe accompanying Mr. and Mrs. C. Schurke to Atlanta, Georgia, as stated in last week's news, Mrs. Theodore Isenman and son and Mr. Rudolph Schurke made the trip with their parents.

Miss Mildred Tess and Miss Evelyn Brown, spent a week at the Meyer cottage at Sylvan Lake.

Miss Elizabeth Stielow and nephew, Billy, are vacationing at McHenry.

Mrs. Albert Huber, Lincoln avenue, was hostess to her card club Thursday afternoon.

The Hawks and Jackson Park teams had a batting fest on the Terminal diamond Sunday, the former winning by a score of 16 to 11. Sounds like a football score.

The Niles Center Woman's club, who sponsors camp fire, is very happy to have so many of the girls go to camp near South Haven this year. They are Grace Endre, Dorothy Schmidt, Bernice and Elsie Santucci, Frances and Margaret Buscher, Cecilia Paroubek, Florence Schmidt, Jane Brown, Rosemarie Krier, Evelyn Hoetzer, Cecilia Blameuser and Mae Schoenberger. Their guardian, Mrs. Margaret Lies Buescher, accompanied them on the boat to Camp Nawaka.

She will return Wednesday, the girls will stay two weeks.

Mrs. Axel Stolberg was injured in an auto accident when her car was struck by a train.

Junior Noettinger and Norman Sondermann left Wednesday morning on their bicycles to Crystal Lake. Mrs. Noettinger, Mrs. Witte, Mrs. Sondermann and Howard, Capt., and Mrs. Stenson, motored there later to meet the boys with a grand picnic lunch.

Mr. and Mrs. Armin J. Mayer and children spent an evening with Mr. and Mrs. Eugene J. Mayer, who make their home at the DeWitt hotel in Chicago.

A Rhyme O' Health

Fresh milk will keep your body young, And that's Life's greatest wealth; Remember folks, milk dairies are In business for YOUR health!

IF YOU'VE never visited a model dairy plant you can't possibly imagine the scrupulous care that is observed in order to bring you milk that is pure and sanitary.

Did you know that almost two-thirds of the workers' time in a dairy plant is given over to scrubbing and sterilizing utensils used in the pasteurization of milk? Or that every worker is required to wear a spotless white uniform? Or that each bottle in which fresh pasteurized milk is sold is washed in seven different solutions and carefully sterilized before the milk is ever placed in it? That's why you are sure of perfectly clean milk when you buy bottled milk.

When you buy fresh pasteurized milk you can rest assured that you are getting "first choice" milk because the milk sold in the Chicago area is produced only on "first choice" farms.

Did you know all these facts? Well, you do now.

BANKS AND COLLEGE LAUNCH NEW SCHOOL

Aims to Offer Studies in Advanced Banking Subjects to Bank Executives

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J. — The Graduate School of Banking, an unprecedented educational project, operated under the joint auspices of the American Institute of Banking, Section of the American Bankers Association and Rutgers University, with 220 enrolled students from 35 states and the District of Columbia, inaugurated here in June its first resident session.

The states represented and the number of registrants from each are as follows: Alabama, 2; Arkansas, 2; California, 2; Connecticut, 9; Delaware, 3; District of Columbia, 6; Florida, 2; Georgia, 3; Idaho, 1; Illinois, 8; Indiana, 2; Iowa, 1; Kansas, 1; Kentucky, 2; Louisiana, 3; Maryland, 1; Massachusetts, 9; Michigan, 5; Minnesota, 1; Missouri, 5; Nebraska, 1; New Jersey, 31; New York, 50; North Carolina, 8; North Dakota, 1; Ohio, 7; Oklahoma, 1; Oregon, 2; Pennsylvania, 32; Rhode Island, 1; Texas, 5; Virginia, 6; Washington, 1; West Virginia, 1; Wisconsin, 4; Wyoming, 1.

The annual resident sessions of the graduate school will be supplemented between periods by continued extension work for the students at their homes. The purpose of the school is described as being to offer in a three year course a comprehensive approach to an advanced study of the various administrative problems in banking and trust institutions. The teaching procedure is a combination of the case system and the lecture discussion method.

The Curriculum The curriculum embraces banking administrative problems and policies, bank investment problems, legal and managerial aspects of trust business, legal phases of bank administration and economic problems in the field of money and credit. The public relations and responsibilities of banks and methods for meeting these obligations are emphasized in the courses.

It is planned to set up similar schools in cooperation with other universities in various parts of the country. The school will add 200 registrants each year for two years until 600 are enrolled.

FINES PROVE ACTIVITY OF POLICE DEPT.

Arlington buys new Street Truck; Appropriations To Be Made Next

The Arlington Heights village board held a busy meeting Monday night, completing the session in time to view the eclipse of the moon, between 11 and 12 o'clock.

The police department of Arlington Heights has been conducting an active campaign against speeders and other violators of the motor vehicle law. The report of that department gave a total of $149 received in fines since June 1 with 12 cases pending. A total of 43 arrests have been made. The special motorcycle fund will soon be able to pay the cost of the new motorcycle, reported Alderman Schneberger, chairman of that committee.

The Chicago Motor Club has promised to send a safetyman to Arlington Heights to investigate general safety conditions here.

Five bids for furnishing fire hose were reported to the board, the lowest being 72c a foot for double strength. Upon motion the matter was referred to the fire and water committee and a committee from the fire department.

Attorney Thiel reported that the PWA had acknowledged receipt of letter regarding plea of village that bond No. 3 be included as among those to be cancelled by the government, in place of a bond of later issue.

Spencer White & Co., with the approval of Attorney Cassidy, has asked that the village enter into an arrangement whereby receipts to be credited to the big sewer, can be used to pay bonds in the order in which they are issued, in place of pro rating said amount to all the bonds. Attorney Thiel was directed to inform the contractors that the board was agreeable to such a plan provided the bond holders would connect. Spencer White & Co. control all of the outstanding bonds, except about $50,000, which are held more or less locally.

Auditor Laurin reported that the treasurer had been accepting anticipation warrants in payment for water rentals, business licenses and vehicle tags and at the present time there are $1300 of 1932 warrants held as cash.

Mayor Flentje reported that the repairs had been made by the village to the concrete mixer that had been borrowed from the owner, who now offered to sell it to the village for $100. A motion was passed directing its purchase for that amount.

Alderman Schneberger reported that the hospital bill and the physician fee in the Skoog accident still remained unsettled. An investigation was ordered with inquiry to be made of the insurance company. The board offered the contract for a new street truck to the International people, whose bid of $1,115 with an allowance of $115 for the old truck, was accepted with the provision that the truck manufacturers return the old truck to the village without cost to them. The vote stood five to one; trustee Schneberger voting no.

Bids opened at previous meeting ranged from $885 for a Ford truck to $1,146 for a Studebaker truck. Allowance for trade-in ranged from $200 offered by Chevrolet to $50 in the bid of G. M. C.

The street committee reported the laying of 1532 square feet of sidewalk with the aid of relief labor. Three-quarters of the July 1 water bills were paid within the discount period, reported trustee Burns.

An invitation was read asking that the village be represented at a meeting to be held Thursday night in Geneva, when members of the state sanitary water board and engineers will be present to discuss treatment problems. The matter was referred to the sanitary committee, of which G. Framberg is chairman with the recommendation that operator Geo. Harris attend with any others who can do so.

Bills and payroll amounting to $1,060.20 were passed. The treasurer's report was referred to the finance committee.

The board was informed that the Workman's liability insurance covered to all employees, but the village would have to reimburse the insurance company for any payments made on account of a relief laborer.

The board adjourned to Wednesday evening when the annual appropriation ordinance will be considered and passed.

Many Bargains at Hagenbrink Coupon Clearance Sale

Hagenbrink's 5c to $1 store, the home of bargains in Arlington Heights every day in the year, is holding a clearance coupon sale starting Friday and continuing until next Wednesday night. Many of the items are closeouts upon which especially low prices are quoted. There is probably not a home that does not have a use for some of the items shown in the adv. upon page 5 of this issue.

Palatine Glider Expert Caught in N. Y. Floods

Elmira, N. Y., July 15.
Cook County Herald

It might be of interest to my friends in Palatine, to know that I have been here in Elmira, N. Y. for the past three weeks attending the National Gliding and Soaring contest as a contestant. It so happens that we have been in the center of the New York flood area which I can say, is very, very bad. For two days all of us were marooned on the mountain from which we do our soaring. Food and water was dropped to us from an airplane. On the second evening several of us started walking down the mountains for the town of "Big Flats." This was only a distance of some six miles, but because of heavy rains and landslides, we did not arrive at that town until five-thirty the following morning. When we did arrive, the main street was under five feet of water, all persons with the exception of two men, had been sent or taken to Elmira. All in all, it was a great experience. I took some fine pictures.

PALATINE SCHOOLS OUT OF THE RED

Finances of Nearly All Schools Show Big Improvement

With an exception of an occasional district the finances of all of the schools in Palatine township are much better today than a year ago. The reduction in tax anticipation warrants totals $30,000, leaving only $36,265 outstanding July 1. Outstanding teachers orders were reduced from over $11,000 to $1,500.

While a large part of this improvement is due to the final settlement with the bank receiver, whereby considerable funds were released to the treasurer, the cash balances in the majority of schools are much greater than a year ago.

District 19, which in previous years, has been occupying an envious financial position, is in an entirely different condition this year, due to the non-payment of taxes by the jockey club. A new well was constructed and the first time in its history anticipation warrants to the amount of $500 were issued. The inability to pay taxes on the part of many of the new people having homes in the subdivisions included a large part of district 16, has created a financial problem there.

District 17 solved its financial troubles by reducing to one teacher, in place of two.

School districts 14 and 18 have no outstanding tax warrants. District 13 installed a new furnace at a cost of $300 and has $500 in tax warrants. District 12, where for two years the teacher received only tax warrants for her salary, was able last year to pay half of the salary in cash. Tax warrants were reduced $2500.

School district 15 was able to pay $10,000 in back special assessments and to reduce outstanding tax warrants $5,000. The high school reduced its tax warrants by $20,000 as a result of settlement with receiver and the RFC.

The township and distributive fund were both reimbursed for cash balances that were in the State bank when it closed.

The annual report of F. J. Oltendorf, school treasurer, is published in this issue and gives an accurate account of the finances of all school districts in the township and for what purposes expenditures have been made.

It is no easy task to properly handle the school funds and to keep a rein upon the individual school districts to prevent the expenditure of uncollected funds. Mr. Oltendorf thoroughly understands the school law and has been a great help to the districts in keeping their finances ship-shape.

CCC Boys Home on Leave, Report Many Experiences in camp

Four Arlington Heights boys who have been members of 635th company of the CCC stationed at Camp Ontonagon, Michigan, have been home the past two weeks having completed their six months period. A number of them are returning to camp well satisfied with the treatment accorded them. There are few dull moments in the camp, but the boys put on weight. There are a number of extra activities, including the publication of a camp newspaper.

All of the expenses of the boys are paid and they receive $30 a month as salary. Five dollars is given them for incidental expenses and the remainder is sent home to their parents.

Six Arlington Heights boys went to camp last January. Christopher Dettman and Charles Weisenbach returned home in April. The others, Clarence Schaeffer, George Sheldon, Fred Durni and Louis Van Gelder, remained the full six months.

CLASSIC DAY SATURDAY AT ARLINGTON

Good Weather, Large Crowds, Big Mutuel Play This Season

The eyes of the turf world are centered upon Arlington Park this week where on Saturday afternoon the Arlington Classic, greatest three year old race of the year will be run before a crowd of probably upwards of 20,000 fans.

The Classic will decide the three year old championship of the year and will bring together Omaha and Black Helen, for the first time this season. Both of these horses have won prominent stakes and derbies and when they meet in the Classic, it should be the event of the year in the racing world.

While most of the early interest is centered around Mr. Woodward's Omaha and Col. Bradley's Black Helen, there are some other mighty fine horses who are going to try to turn back both of these outstanding champions. There will be St. Bernard, who ran the fastest mile of the season about a week ago. There will be Mrs. Hertz Count Arthur, which has thundered home in hot pursuit of Black Helen on several occasions and there will be Roman Soldier, a big winner on the winter tracks and winner of the Detroit Derby. There will also be Tearout, Whiskala, Advantage, Sun Portland and other lesser lights all of whom their owners hope may furnish the big upset of the year by coming home in front of the outstanding stars of the year.

At any rate the Classic shapes up as the greatest horse race of the year and if the track stays fast it would not be surprising to see a new track record hung up in the race. Society people, horse owners and plain ordinary racing fans are flocking to Arlington from all over the country for this great race and Arlington Park will be the center of the turf world on Classic day.

Good weather and a fast track during the last week has brought added interest in the Arlington races and fine week day crowds are on hand daily.

Last Saturday 18,000 people turned out for the running of the Lassie stakes and saw just about the hottest finish of the season when the Milky Way stables' Forever Yours won the rich two year old feature by a nose and a head from the Vanderbilt entry of Balcony and Parade Girl. The mutuel handle on Saturday was the second largest of the season, over $500,000 passing through the machines.

The daily programs at Arlington Park continue to be of high class and the attractive programs coupled with good weather and the vacation season are bringing crowds to Arlington which presages the most successful meeting in years in the Chicago area.

Takes Too Much Liquor; Takes Somebody's Car; Police Take Joy Rider

An eastside resident of Palatine on the relief rolls, is in trouble all because he embezzled in too much liquor Tuesday evening. When the local tavern closed near midnight, he wanted some excitement even if he had to hunt for it. He broke open a window of the Ed. Haemker garage and took his car on a joy ride on Route 58. The fullness of the driver did not extend to the gas tank. Without gas the car would not go and when morning arrived he started to walk home.

The case worker from Evanston recognized him and brought him to Palatine, where the theft of the car had been reported to the police.

Officer Folz had a hunch and questioned the "reliever" about the car, who confessed that he remembered taking the car but did not know where he had left it. The case worker directed Officer Kable and the "subject" to the place the latter was picked up. The car was found.

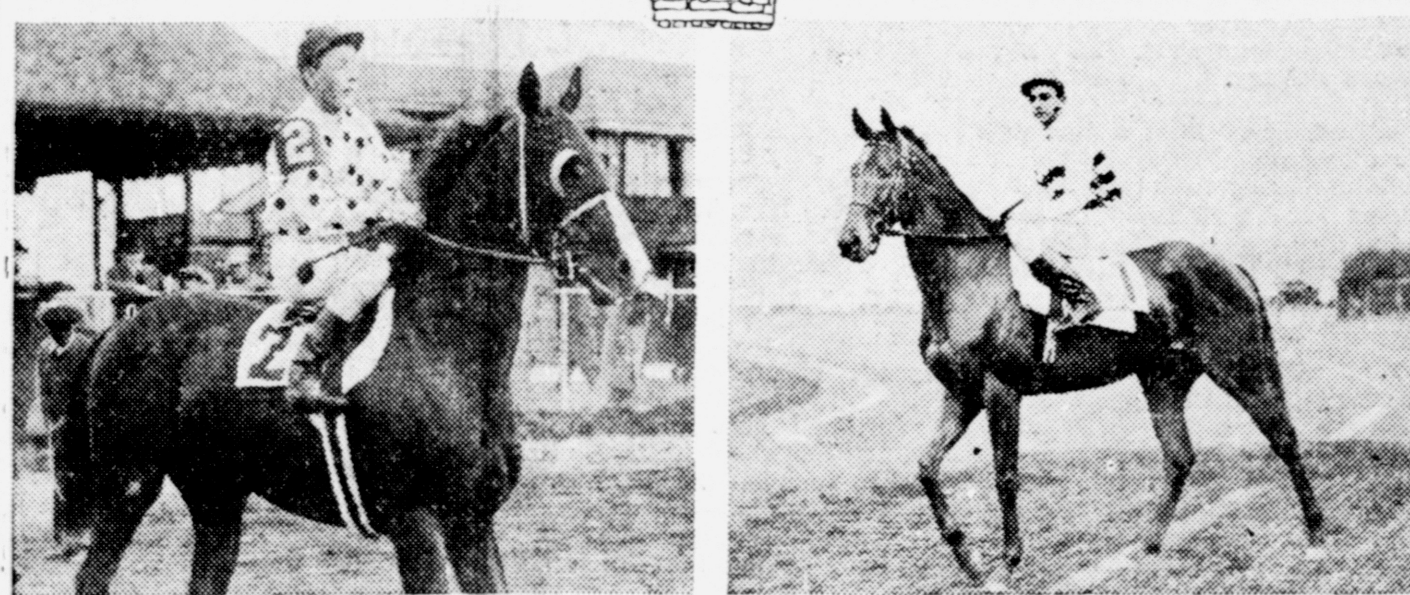

Credits Cook County Herald for Increased Used Car Business

Purnell & Wilson, Ford dealers at Arlington Heights and Des Plaines, announce one of the best years on record. They have moved a large volume of both new and used cars this spring and summer. Mr. Wilson who believes in advertising and is a regular advertiser in the Paddock newspapers credits the Cook County Herald with bringing them a large portion of their business.

"Through persistent advertising in the Cook County Herald this spring and summer," he states, "we have moved the greatest volume of used cars in our history, which means a great number of satisfied customers who become familiar with our service. We certainly owe a vote of thanks to the Cook County Herald and associate papers for the results we have obtained."

WILLIAM WOODWARD'S Omaha, outstanding among the three-year-old colts by virtue of victories in the Kentucky Derby, Preakness, Belmont Stakes and Dwyer Stakes, and Col. E. R. Bradley's Black Helen, queen of the fillies with triumphs in the American Derby, Coaching Club American Oaks and

Florida Derby, are the principals in the seventh running of the $40,000 Classic Stakes at Arlington Park Saturday, July 20. A victory for either will give Omaha or Black Helen undisputed possession of the three-year-old title. They will be opposed by about ten others over the testing route of one mile and a quarter.

SCHAUMBURG WOMAN DIES BY OWN HAND

Miss Amanda Fasse Was Found Dead in Base- ment by Sister

Miss Amanda Fasse, age 42 years, of Schaumburg, took her life last Thursday afternoon at the farm of her sister, Mrs. Lichthardt, on Bode road, in Schaumburg township. Mrs. Lichthardt found the body suspended from the rafter in the basement. An inspection of the corpse by Dr. J. C. Schmidtke of Palatine, who was immediately called indicated that death had occurred about an hour before his arrival.

An inquest held by Coroner English last Friday concluded that Miss Fasse had committed suicide while temporarily insane during dependency. The jury consisted of O. C. Taege, Herbert Kolle, Geo. Duntun, Gilbert and Charles Lackey, and O. G. Bolte.

JAIL ROSELLE FARMHAND FOR CHECK FORGERY

Harry Thomas Buys New Car With Bum Check; Passes Others

Authorities have finally apprehended the whereabouts of Harry Thomas, erstwhile farmhand and now check forger extraordinaire. He was nabbed in Minnesota last Friday and brought back to Illinois by Chief of Police Ernest Baade of Barrington. Thomas was employed on the farm of H. C. Wilkening one half mile north of Roselle, set out on a check forging spree June 20, and since that time has passed about a dozen bad ones amounting to about $1,000.

Many of the checks have been drawn on the Roselle state bank. One of the checks cashed at the Herman Lohse filling station in Roselle on which Henry Wilkening's name was forged was for $15. It was drawn on the Roselle State bank and cashed in Glen Ellyn.

Thomas began his first adventure with the purchase of a brand new Plymouth sedan at Barrington. He gave Percy Dwyer, the Plymouth dealer there, a check for $830 in payment. The check drawn on the DuPage Trust Company at Glen Ellyn was cashed in Barrington and immediately bounced back as Thomas had no account at this bank.

Since then many other checks were passed for amounts from $15 to $20 and drawn on the Roselle State bank and the DuPage Trust Company. The latest one which arrived last Friday at the Roselle State bank from Plainview, Neb., indicates that Thomas covered considerable ground. On June 28, a similar check arrived from Heathen, Minn. Both are for amounts of $15.

Thomas did not use the Roselle bank blank checks. Instead, he picked up a blank check anywhere, wherever it happened to be, and wrote "Roselle State Bank." The checks are made out in pencil. He signed his name "Harry Thomas," "Ira Thomas" and "Ira T. Thomas."

Before leaving Roselle vicinity about the 25th of June, Thomas had worked at the Wilkening farm for about two and a half months. He is 45 years of age, and has a daughter living in Chicago.

Old Age Pension Provisions Announced By Secretary State

Due to the widespread interest in the passage of the Old Age Security Act, which was promptly signed by Gov. Homer and which is to go into effect January 1, 1936, the Paddock Publications are publishing the essential features of the law, a copy of which has been sent by the secretary of state to all newspapers in Illinois.

Those who had painted a rosy picture of the benevolence that was being bestowed upon the aged by a bounteous legislature are going to examine the Old Age Security Act closely. They will find it "not so hot." The condition of the aged, propertyless people without income, the completely destitute, will be improved somewhat. Outside of that, the new act provides practically nothing.

A recipient of the pension must be 65 years of age, a citizen of the United States, a resident of the state at least ten of the last fifteen years and not an inmate of any municipal, state, county or national institution.

The amount of the pension will be fixed with due regard to conditions existing in each case, but in no case shall it exceed one dollar per day.

To receive the pension, no applicant may have an income in excess of $5 per week nor possess property amounting to more than $5,000 in value.

The net income of the applicant and the pension he receives shall in no case when added together exceed $50 per year.

At the death of the recipient of a pension the total amount paid under this act shall be allowed as a claim against his estate. If the recipient was possessed of income or property in excess of the amount provided by the Act or obtained relief by false representation, double the amount paid in excess of what he was legally entitled shall be allowed as a claim against the estate.

But no claim shall be enforced against any real estate of a recipient while it is occupied by a surviving spouse, provided the spouse is not more than 15 years younger and does not remarry.

If a recipient should come into possession of property or income in excess of the amount provided by this Act, he shall notify the state department of administration.

Former Des Plaines Treasurers Defendants In $90,000 Suit

Seven former treasurers and collectors of Des Plaines will be included as defendants in the suit involving $90,000 in eight special assessments. The complaint alleges that the city has used special assessment funds for general corporate purposes. The suit may include officials from the year 1925 to date, along with individuals and bonding corporations who signed their respective bonds. Plaintiff in the suit, which will be heard before Judge Epstein in the Circuit Court of Cook County, is the Cedar Rapids Life Insurance company and a list of other holders of unpaid bonds and interest in the eight assessments involved.

New Law to End Non-District Problems At High School

An end to the tuition problem as concerns students from non-high school districts is seen in the passage on June 20 of House Bill 297 which provided for the assessment of seventy-five cents per one hundred dollars assessed value for high school purposes in non-high school districts. The former limit was fifty cents.

It is believed that this will allow the non-high school board, which must pay the tuition of students living outside the district, to raise sufficient funds for the purpose.

NEW DIRECTORY SHOWS GAINS IN POPULATION

Descendants of German Pioneers Predominate; A Town of Meyers

A perusal of the 1935 municipal directory of Arlington Heights shows a gain in population of an even hundred since the 1930 census when the last directory was issued. It also shows that the majority of the Arlington Heights citizens are of German parentage. There are over sixty citizens, over 18 years of age whose last name is Meyer. The total number in these families is 94. There is no other family name that approaches that one in numbers. The nearest is Johnson, with a score of 18, and Niemeyer with 16. The Garms and Gieseke families have 11 and 10 respectively. There are a great many other families in the nine and ten bracket. Incidentally there are only seven Busses in Arlington Heights, compared with several times that number who reside in Elk Grove.

The Smiths, who usually head the list in most communities have only six in Arlington Heights, although their German cousins, Schmidts or Schmitts, number as many more.

The 1935 municipal directory will be ready for distribution within the next few days. It was compiled by Daisy Daniels and printed by H. C. Paddock & Sons. It is made possible by local business firms who contracted for advertising space.

The business directory in the center of the book is a new innovation and received the cooperation of the majority of business houses, although there are a few business and professional vocations that are not represented.

Outside firms are listed only where such trades are not represented in Arlington Heights.

M'CULLEN IS APPOINTED TO FEDERAL POST

District Director of Three Counties; In Charge of PWA Work

H. M. McCullen, former Mayor of Glenview and district Democratic leader in the townships of Northfield and Wheeling, Wednesday, was appointed district director for the federal works progress administration of the counties of Kane, DuPage and Will and for that portion of Cook county that lies outside of the city of Chicago.

The projects that will come under his supervision will be those that will participate in the four billion dollar federal works relief fund. Among such projects is the mosquito abatement district along the Des Plaines river valley in Cook county which asked $227,000 from the government.

Mr. McCullen is an experienced realtor and served as deputy sheriff for some time. He has a large acquaintance throughout this part of Cook county and has been prominent for many years in Democratic affairs in the country towns.

Elks Plan Another Good Time at Annual Picnic Next Sunday

Again the Elks and their friends will frolic all day long at Northwestern Park, Des Plaines, Sunday, July 21. The Des Plaines lodge is staging their ninth annual picnic and to every minute of the day. The features of the day are games and races with plenty of refreshments, and a 100 free prizes given away. The All-Stars of Arlington Heights and Des Plaines will meet in a softball game. Dancing will occupy the evening. Admission to the grove is free. Everybody is invited.

LAW REGARDING TAX PENALTIES IS MADE CLEAR

Does not Cover Delinquent Assessments; Respite Lasts Two Years

Some important information concerning House Bill 568 was recently given out by Clarence V. Wagemann, county clerk of DuPage county. This bill is the one which waives the penalties on unpaid taxes for the years 1929, 1930, 1931, 1932, and 1933.

Before becoming law the measure was amended several times, not being called for third reading and passage in the Senate until May 7, although it came to the upper house from the House of Representatives on April 10.

Payment of taxes without penalties must take place within the years 1935 or 1936 and applies only in cases where taxes for 1928 are paid. The taxes assessed for the year 1934 are in process of collection now and have not yet become delinquent and subject to sale or forfeiture.

The new law provides that "any person having an interest in any tract or tracts or lot or lots that was or were forfeited to the State because of delinquency in general taxes for the years 1929, 1930, 1931, 1932, or 1933, or one or more of said years, and desiring to redeem the same, may, during the years 1935 and 1936, apply to the county clerk, who shall issue his order to the county collector, directing him to receive from said person only the principal of all such general taxes and all costs due thereon, exclusive of penalties and forfeiture fees, in full payment for the redemption of such tract or tracts or lot or lots so forfeited to the State; Provided, however, that the provisions of this section shall not apply unless all the taxes upon any such property for the year 1928, shall have been paid in full; and provided, further, that from and after August 1, 1935, five per cent per annum of such delinquent general taxes shall be added thereto."

The DuPage County Tax Collecting agencies are now preparing to accept back taxes, minus the penalties, according to the new law, and County Clerk Clarence V. Wagemann is prepared to issue the proper certificates to property owners applying for them. For the past year collections of back taxes have been improving and County Collector Arthur L. Hellyer has reported from time to time the improvement in such collections.

Certificates for the payment of back taxes permitted to be paid without penalty under this new law will be issued by the county clerk only upon the request of the property owner.

Payment of delinquent special assessments is not covered by this law, the taxpayer being required to take that matter up with his local municipal collector. Neither does the new statute cover the redemption of such property as has been sold for taxes. Redemption of such property must be made in the manner previously provided for by the state law.

It is felt by tax collection officers that this measure will result in many property owners with large tax bills making payment at this time. The elimination of penalties will also make it easier for the small taxpayer to redeem his home. The consequent increase in tax receipts will aid materially in assisting local governments in carrying on their functions which have, in so many instances, been impaired during the past two or three years.

Colored Race Track Stableman Dies Because He Did Not Obey Doctor

J. W. Carter, 33, employed as a stableman at the race track, died Wednesday morning on account of a bad heart. The direct reason for his death was his unwillingness to obey the orders of a local physician who the previous evening, ordered him to stay in bed. He did not do it and fell over dead. The man was taken to the county morgue.

REFORM IN ELECTIONS UNPOPULAR

Judge Jarecki Fails to Create Enthusiasm for One Election Date

The court room of Judge Jarecki in the county building Monday afternoon was crowded with representatives from the so-called country towns. Judge Jarecki had called them together for the evident purpose of popularizing the new election law passed by the recent state legislature which provides means by which all of the spring elections could be held upon one date.

The judge entertained his hearers with a patriotic address but did not get very far in the popularizing of the new law. Delegates from the country towns not under the supervision of the election commissioners freely expressed their disapproval of the new plan. It was not only termed impracticable but also impossible of accomplishment.

In opening his remarks Judge Jarecki denied that he was a Democrat. "I am the people's choice, independent of party," declared the judge. When it was evident that "the crowd" did not look with favor upon the new plan, the judge repeatedly stated that it was optional with the various taxing bodies. To put the new plan into effect, it would be necessary for each interested taxing body to pass a resolution or ordinance declaring that hereafter its election shall be held upon the first Tuesday in April. The only body who would "sit tight" and pass no resolution would be the townships, which normally hold their elections upon that date—now once every four years.

In commenting upon the crazy-ness of the plan, an official of Wheeling township, outlined the confusion that would result in that one township.

"In the village of Arlington Heights there are six elective boards but the boundaries of territory of only two of them coincide. There would necessarily have to be five different ballots; five registration lists and five separate and distinct poll books. A voter desiring to vote would have to declare himself as to how many of the territories his residence entitled him to vote. Many of the voters would not know and recourse would have to be made to maps and records.

"If it were possible for one set of election officials to handle all the above, imagine the time that would elapse while votes are being counted."

"Still more confusion would probably result where the high school district territory extends into adjoining townships. A man residing in sections 19 and 26, of Palatine township but paying taxes to the Arlington Heights high school, would necessarily vote at the village hall in Palatine, where votes on the Arlington Heights high school must be kept separate from the Palatine high school votes. Then again, suppose the Arlington Heights high school board voted to make the change in election date and no such action was taken by any of the taxing bodies in Palatine or Elk Grove townships. Taxpayers and residents within the Arlington Heights high school district, who happen to reside in Elk Grove and Palatine township would be disfranchised, or a special election would have to be held in those townships to accommodate such residents of those towns who have a right to vote at the Arlington high school election."

"All in all," declared this official, "it is the craziest plan ever to receive the approval of the state legislature. It is so crazy that one wonders how it happened that the law makers did not make it compulsory."

War or No War, Tire Prices are Low at Gaare Palatine Station

Whether or not it is another tire war or not, the writer does not know but Otto Gaare of the Gaare Service Station and Gaare Oil Co. at Palatine says that he is selling tires cheaper today than at any other period this summer. He is also prepared to meet all competition. This all sounds rather good to the autoist who needs new tires before starting upon that vacation trip. A year's guarantee goes with the tires sold by Gaare. A few of the low prices are given in the adv. on page two of this issue.

Wife of Barrington Theatre Owner Burned To Death in Garage

Mrs. Wright Catlow, wife of Barrington theatre owner, met a tragic death Friday evening when fire broke out in the garage, which was partially destroyed by fire. When the firemen arrived upon the scene they were not aware that a body was within the building. Mr. Catlow was called to the scene of the fire, only to learn a few minutes later that his wife had met her death. It is supposed that she was cleaning with naphtha, which occasioned the fire.

The funeral services were held at the Baptist church Monday afternoon.

A daughter was born July 4 to Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hinberg.

The reporter of this column throws up his hands so far as the younger crowd is concerned. He was informed Thursday morning in no uncertain terms that the doings and going-ons of the "high school group" was no business of the enterprise. As much as we would enjoy publishing society news of this modern age group, our hands are tied. Confidentially, the reporter was informed that sometimes the stories told to parents by an occasional member of this group varied from the newspaper item.

In other words the young people are going to handle their publicity direct to the parents without any reporter's help. Even if the Reporter is a 1933 model, he sees the point and says, "more power to you."

The Brotherhood, or to be correct, a few members of that group had an outing at the Langhoff woods Sunday. They had such a good time that they did not notice those who were not there.

Mrs. Janet Holtze was operated upon for appendicitis at the Sherman hospital, Monday.

Mrs. Cornelia Smith of Schiller Park spent last week at the home of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Gertrude L. Smith.

The Lutheran Ladies Aid society held their annual picnic yesterday at the farm of Fred Glade.

Mrs. Nabel is entertaining her sister, Mrs. Plote of Burlington, Ia.

Mr. and Mrs. Dwyer and family of Council Bluffs, Iowa, are visiting in Palatine. Mrs. Dwyer is a sister to Mrs. Beckman.

The new Plymouth of Ray Flesch is taking the Flesch family and friends from Mount Prospect, to Yellowstone Park on a two weeks holiday.

Esther Joers finds a two weeks vacation quite "enjoyable" even if it is necessary to stay in Palatine. Plans for short visits to nearby points have gone awry, but it has not seemed to bother Miss Joers at all.

The Palatine bowlers met the Wheeling club in a game of softball last Thursday evening. Although the local boys may bowl rings around the Wheeling squad, they found it more difficult to outrun them. The score ended at 4 to 2 against the Palatine league.

Falling from a load of hay, Martin Phibbin was injured while working at a farm west of Palatine Wednesday.

Herman Zinn and Howard Krambier are employed on the farm of Fred Glade.

Fire Alarm Empties School in 35 Seconds

The Palatine elementary school closed a month ago, but at the meeting of fire chiefs held at Palatine Monday night, the speaker, as an illustration of the effectiveness of fire control methods in Palatine, stated that at a recent unannounced fire drill held by the undersigned when the town was inspected, the school was emptied in 35 seconds after the sounding of the alarm.

"This was one of the reasons," stated the speaker, "why Palatine has its present low insurance rate."

Palatine Man Badly Burned by Paraffin

While Mrs. Fred Moss of Palatine was preparing to cover glasses of jelly with paraffin, the latter started to burn. Mr. Moss in attempting to hurl the grease thru the open window, was severely burned about the face and arms, when the wind blew the boiling paraffin back into the room.

FISH DAY IS EVERY DAY AT THE A & P

It is fish day every day at the A & P store. Meeting a demand for choice fish other than Fridays, special fish refrigerated counters have been placed in these stores. Ed Neagle, manager of the Campbell street store, says, "there is no reason why the public can not enjoy desired fish food oftener than once a week"—and his customers are welcoming the opportunity. From three to five kinds are received fresh daily.

JACK IS AN ICE MAN NOW

Jack Thompson is sure to find some way of keeping cool. Once it was driving an open air Model T. Now it's lugging 50 pounds of ice around on his back. His brother, Don, has full charge of the newspaper business while Jack is helping Mr. Lang deliver ice in Palatine during the summer months.

NOTES FROM THE PALATINE COMMUNITY HOSPITAL

Edwin H. Meyer, of Arlington Heights, was operated upon for acute appendicitis Wednesday morning.

Miss Clara Maede of Arlington Heights, had an operation for chronic appendicitis at Community hospital recently and is doing well. Irwin Niemeyer after convalescing nicely from a recent operation for acute appendicitis has returned to his home in Arlington Heights. Verlie Wickenkamp, a victim of a recent automobile crash, is recovering from her injuries at Community hospital. During the past week she had an operation for opening of two fractures of the lower jaw.

Mrs. John Haemker of Arlington Heights who has been a patient at the hospital for medical treatment, has returned home.

Bert Blomquist has returned home from the local hospital where he received treatment for automobile injuries.

IN MEMORIAM

Garms Marie—In memory of our dear wife and mother who passed away 7 years ago, July 23, 1928:

The world may change from year to year,
And friends from day to day;
But never will the one we loved
From memory pass away.
Wm. L. Garms and Children.

Swimming Popular Recreation for Many Children

The summertime recreation which the boys and girls of Arlington Heights are enjoying, is proving still more popular. The need of a swimming pool in Arlington Heights is especially being demonstrated by the increasing number of young people who join the parties to the Barrington pool. Transportation is furnished and the fee for swimming for children is only ten cents.

Public Invited to Meeting

The general public is invited to attend the next meeting of the Arlington Heights recreation association, which will be held in the municipal building Monday evening. Parents are especially invited.

GLENVIEW

Mrs. Henry Mompier, Glenview road, was honored by a visit Monday of a girlhood chum, Mrs. Lydia Harms of Chicago. Both girls lived in the vicinity of Niles Center, attended school together, and were members of the same confirmation class. Both girls married and moved away from their old home-lands. Now after fifty years they came together, and needless to say, had an enjoyable afternoon recalling the good old days. Mrs. Mompier says that she was happily surprised and much pleased when Mrs. Harms came to call on her.

Glenview days in the village have been announced for September 7 and 8, to be held in the usual place, across from the Glenview Civic building. Frank Rugen has been elected general chairman, O. J. Lamberg, vice chairman; Edwin F. Rugen elected treasurer; Hubert Nelson, secretary. An automobile will again be given away by H. F. Mueller, chairman of this part of the program.

Mrs. John Rugen and daughter, Grace, are enjoying a vacation in New York state.

Frank Appleyard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Appleyard, a student at the Missouri School of Mines, is spending his vacation in Glenview with his parents and family and friends.

Mrs. William Lubnow was feted at a birthday surprise party in the Congregational church hall Friday afternoon, it being her 84th anniversary. Games were played, Mrs. Lubnow was given a beautiful bouquet of flowers and a birthday cake, and other gifts. Following the games tasty refreshments were served, and many good wishes extended. Mrs. Lubnow was completely surprised at her lovely party.

Mrs. Charles Palmgren and Lillie called on Miss Florence Anderson at the Henrotin hospital and Miss Maud Bailey at the St. Luke's hospital Sunday afternoon.

Word has been received from the Louis Paulsen family and Mrs. Florence Wiegand, who is traveling with them on their tour of the west, that they greatly enjoyed the snow storm of Mt. Ranier in the State of Washington. They say it was a "grand feeling."

Mr. Edmund H. Waterhouse, former village manager of Glenview, has accepted the appointment of village manager of the city of Gladstone, Michigan, in the upper peninsula. This population is 5,000, so the field is larger than Glenview, naturally a higher salary is granted. Mr. Waterhouse was singled out from a number of applications because of his efficient qualifications as a competent business executive.

At Rialto Theatre

The long heralded John Hay (Jack) Whitney invasion of the motion picture field is a fact. The first Whitney, full-length, color feature, "Becky Sharp" is ready.

The Whitney experimental short, "La Cucaracha" met with such universal public approval that the young financier and sportsman decided to proceed immediately with the tentatively planned program of productions in the new Technicolor.

"Becky Sharp" is an adaptation of the Langdon Mitchell stage adaptation of Thackeray's famous "Vanity Fair."

Robert Edmond Jones, outstanding designer of the New York stage, was in charge of color direction. Rouben Mamoulian is the director. "Becky Sharp" is an RKO Radio release.

MORTON GROVE

The Ladies' Aid of Jerusalem Lutheran church, Morton Grove, is giving a bazaar party Tuesday afternoon, July 23, at 2 p. m. in the church hall. Everybody welcome.

Scoutmaster Mr. Richard Boettcher of Morton Grove Troop 28, and assistant scoutmaster, Wm. Sonne and 14 boys, members of 28, left early Monday morning for two weeks camping in northern Wisconsin.

Little Carlisle Huscher left Tuesday morning to spend two weeks with his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Julius Bigler in Sigel, Ill.

Mrs. Lottie Sigel assisted by Mrs. Tillie Wendt entertained members and friend of the O. E. S. club, 28 in all at the home of Mrs. Sigel, Tuesday afternoon.

Members of the ladies' aid of Jerusalem Lutheran church, spent Thursday at Lily Lake this being the annual outing.

The next meeting for the coming Morton Grove Day will be Monday, July 22, at 8 p. m., at the village hall. Anyone interested is requested to be present and come and bring new suggestions. Help make the day a success.

The Morton Grove Ramblers traveled many miles Sunday to take a trimming from the field. Failure to hit in the pinches again meant defeat for the luckless travelers. They outthrew the winners, had more left on bases, more extra base hits, but unfortunately had less runs. Their only consolation came in grabbing the fielding honors for the day when Kuester, Hendricks and Nieman turned in numerous fielding gems.

Next Sunday is an open date in the schedule for the Gypsies. Then they will play Half Day, Silver Lake, Libertyville, Arlington Heights, Glen Ellyn and Des Plaines in the order named.

ST. PETER'S EVANGELICAL CHURCH

Oakton St. at Laramie Ave.

Paul Emmanuel Winger, Pastor

The outing for the children scheduled to be held Sunday afternoon will be held Wednesday afternoon

August 7, in Harns Woods.

The committee feels that this arrangement will prove much more satisfactory to all concerned.

We hear a great deal of talk on the necessity of "security" legislation.

There certainly is necessary a law or several laws protecting the people against such high-handed and high-sounding exploitation and fleeing as was practiced by such

domain. But this in itself will not make such men honest and upright and fair who inherently have no mind to be that way.

A new crop of even bigger public thieves will grow out of the protected soul and the people held in bondage in a still larger scale if we can only succeed in enacting mild, regulatory legislation not too radical or exacting, and fail utterly to pit a new spirit, of the Christ, into the hearts and lives of our people. There is a sense in which we can become too sheltered and protected to secure for our own good. We can become too pampered and restricted like hot-house plants which cannot stand the open air. There is a sense in which we must again expose ourselves to dangers and risks to steel our spiritual muscles and strengthen our moral fiber and undergird our will. Above all we need to put ourselves at the disposal of God's directive and purposive will regardless of exposure or protection.

The League will stage a hare and hound race Friday evening as part of its program of outdoor activity. It is in part a preparation for the two day stay at Starved Rock in August.

Again we want to issue an hearty invitation to all not to forgo church attendance in the summer time. It is most refreshing to think God's thoughts with Him as He meets with us in the House of the Lord.

NILES CENTER

Mrs. Gertrude E. Baumhardt and son, Elmer, with Mrs. Martha Kindt, Mrs. Ella Tess and Mrs. Ida Harms motored to Niagara Falls on Monday.

Mrs. Henry Maierhofer is expected home this week from St. Francis hospital.

Last Friday the infant seven months old daughter, Joan, of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Harte, was laid to rest in St. Peter's Evangelical cemetery. Rev. Paul E. Winger officiated.

Sunday, July 14, Mrs. Edward Steel and Mrs. Dorothy Mayer, observed their natal days.

On Wednesday, Mrs. Henry Remke, Miss Elsie Stielow, Mrs. Louise Klehm, Mrs. Frank Noetting, Mrs. Armin Mayer and children, helped Miss Erna E. Koellner of Norwood Park celebrate her birthday.

We are happy to report that Mrs. Adam Koester is improving so nicely after her operation she is anxious to come home.

Miss Elsie Stielow was a dinner guest of Mrs. Florence Freund of Wilmette last Wednesday evening. Thursday evening Miss Stielow entertained the Center Social club at her home on Floral avenue.

Instead of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lubbe accompanying Mr. and Mrs. C. Schurke to Atlanta, Georgia, as stated in last week's news, Mrs. Theodore Iernan and son and Mr. Rudolph Schurke made the trip with their parents.

Miss Mildred Tess and Miss Evelyn Brown, spent a week at the Meyer cottage at Sylvan Lake.

Miss Elizabeth Stielow and nephew, Billy, are vacationing at McHenry.

Mr. Albert Huber, Lincoln avenue, was hostess to her card club Thursday afternoon.

The Hawks and Jackson Park teams had a battling fest on the Terminal diamond Sunday, the former winning by a score of 16 to 11. Sounds like a football score.

The Niles Center Woman's club, who sponsors camp fire is very happy to have so many of the girls go to camp near South Haven this year. They are Grace Endre, Dorothy Schmidt, Bernice and Elsie Santucci, Frances and Margaret Buscher, Cecilia Paroubec, Florence Schmidt, Jane Brown, Rosemarie Krier, Evelyn Hoetzer, Cecilia Blaneuser and Mae Schoenberger. Their guardian, Mrs. Margaret Lies Buescher, accompanied them on the boat to Camp Nawaka. She will return Wednesday, the girls will stay two weeks.

Mrs. Axel Stolberg was injured in an auto accident when her car was struck by a train.

Junior Noetting and Norman Sordemann left Wednesday morning on their bicycles to Crystal Lake, Mrs. Noetting, Mrs. Witte, Mrs. Sordemann and Howard, Capt. and Mrs. Stenson, motored there later to meet the boys with a grand picnic lunch.

Mr. and Mrs. Armin J. Mayer and children spent an evening with Mr. and Mrs. Eugene J. Mayer, who make their home at the DeWitt hotel in Chicago.

CARL KRUEGER

Carl Krueger was born December 20, 1861, in Wendemark, Province Saxony, Prussia. Jan. of the following year he received Holy Baptism and was confirmed in 1875.

At the age of 22 he came to America with his parents in 1883, where they located in Arlington Heights. February 15, 1892, he was united into the bonds of holy matrimony with Mrs. Catherine Kuebbemann, nee Kuehing, who survives him.

This union was blessed with six children, three sons and three daughters, of whom one daughter, Elsie preceded her father in death at the age of 17 years in 1918.

After their marriage, Mr. and Mrs. Krueger lived for several years on a farm in Town Elk Grove. From there they removed to near Bensenville, where they resided about 20 years. The last 8 years Mr. Krueger had retired from farm life to Arlington Heights. Since last winter his health began to fail and in the last months he was very weak and feeble. He passed away Friday afternoon, July 5, about 2 p. m., thus attaining the age of 73 years, 6 months and 15 days.

He leaves to mourn his demise his grief-stricken wife, Catharine Krueger, five children, William of Tascas; Albert of Bensenville; Mrs. Maria Pingel of Elk Grove; Mrs. Ida Runge of Mt. Prospect; Alfred of Elk Grove; one step-daughter, Mrs. Lillie Pingel of Arlington Heights; 12 grandchildren; one brother of Nebraska; one sister, Mrs. Auguste Radtke of St. James, Minn.; three sons-in-law; three daughters-in-law; two brothers-in-law and other relatives and many friends.

Mr. Krueger was a faithful and devoted member of St. John's church. Let us cherish his memory. May the Lord console the mourning hearts of those who survive and grant them a happy reunion in the harbor of blessed eternity.

The funeral services were held Monday, July 8, at 1:30 from the residence at Arlington Heights, to St. John's church, Town Addison, Rev. H. L. Barth officiating. Interment took place in the congregations cemetery.

AMANDA FASSE

Amanda Fasse was born February 20, 1893 in Schaumburg, Ill., and was baptized and confirmed in the Schaumburg Lutheran church.

She passed away Thursday afternoon, July 11, 1935, at the home of her sister, Mrs. August Licht-hardt, at Schaumburg, at the age of 42 years, 4 months and 21 days.

She leaves to mourn her departure, one sister, Mrs. Aug. Licht-hardt of Schaumburg; one brother, Mr. Herman Fasse of Elgin; one sister-in-law; two brothers-in-law.

Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at Karstens Funeral Home at Arlington Heights, at 1:00 p. m., and interment was in Schaumburg cemetery.

ARLINGTON HEIGHTS

What is the news folks please excuse

The wavelenghts of our skyline views; All day, all night went up the row, O! when the shadow went and how, Why patter o'er a moon's eclipse? If suddenly the balance tips Our town may hear news fly about, Of big star mortals jolted out; And fortunes wheel may turn some day, To help true builders clear the way; When no eclipse shall dim the light, Of noble souls who build for right.

This the day after the eclipse, July 15-16 and it was staged exactly on scheduled time, not a flaw in the presentation. Hot weather had been a few days preceding the show, but the night sky of 15 and 16 was clear and perfect. The movement of stars and moon wonderful.

Vacation days are here—"One flew east and one flew west" and think of the family groups in the grandest latest model auto seeing America first. All sending cards with the cherrio "Wish you were here."

Mrs. C. F. Decker and family have gone up to Northern Wisconsin to enjoy the blueberry season and share in harvesting them.

Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Capps have gone for their summer vacation, leaving home last of the week.

The J. A. Daltons of North Belmont avenue started last week to join the sights and summer breezes of some more delightful place than this old prairie town.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Mitzlaff leased their home in Stonegate for the park season and have gone to spend the time at Camp Barrington.

Last Sunday the Emmanuel Reimer family, Mr. and Mrs. Schnurstein and Mr. Poedicker from Chicago, spent the day as guests of the Allen Schulte family.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Landmeier returned home last week from their vacation outing.

Don't forget the luncheon served by the Presbyterian Aid Society in the church dining hall Wednesday each week in July from 11:30 morning to 1:30 afternoon, wholesome, satisfying menu—35 cents.

Barbara McWharter and her classmate, Mary Mors, spent three days this week with Barbara's grandmother, Mrs. A. F. Volz, in her summer home, Geneva Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter H. Dick of North State Road returned home last week after spending some time at Hayward, Northern Wisconsin. They enjoyed a pleasant time camping and fishing, yes and they brought home fish to prove their fishing brought results, besides giving a rare cosmetic that gave them a complexion brown as berries.

The Arthur Schmitz family are again at their summer camp on Lake Michigan, where they enjoy a variety of pleasures at the same time and change.

Mrs. William Schoepke's birthday was on Friday, July 12, when she entertained a company of her friends to leave a happy memory of the date in her home on South Vail. Choice refreshments, games and a pleasant evening with their genial hostess who received sincere wishes for many returns of her birthday, each one happier than the last.

Miss Marion Fessler spent several days recently the guest of relatives in Chicago.

This cool northwest breeze is delightful today, but it may not be good for corn.

Mrs. J. D. Flentie and her daughter, Mrs. G. H. Wilke, spent a fortnight or longer up at Potter's Lake in the Northland. A delightful place to be in hot weather.

Miss Elizabeth Bray and Miss Bella Grimm of Mount Prospect, are spending their vacation among the scenic wonders of the west, including the Worlds Fair at San Diego, California.

Mr. George F. Peterson returned to his work in Chicago, after enjoying a two weeks vacation with his wife at Long Lake, Wisconsin. With them were two friends from Evanston. They rented a summer cottage and enjoyed every passing minute of the change and freedom of the out of doors.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Schulte and family accompanied by Miss Ruth Karstens, have gone to visit friends and relatives at Logansville and Reedsburg in Wisconsin.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Flentie have leased their home for the Park season and are making their home for a vacation change with their parents, Mayor and Mrs. J. D. Flentie on North Belmont avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Crane spent most of their vacation in side trips around their home vicinity. One day at Milwaukee, one day at Geneva to visit Mrs. Volz in her lake side home.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Palmer came home last week from their pleasant stay in the vicinity of the White mountains, where they could from a lofty height, gain a wonderful view of the ocean. Their stay in that beautiful place was with their daughters, whose home is there.

Mr. and Mrs. George Prasinos returned first of this week from their wedding tour. The bride's parents were in their home on West Euclid to welcome their returning, where they stayed to keep the home fires burning during their tour.

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Wilke of No. Belmont avenue have leased their home during the Park season to people whom they knew, and in the meantime will rest and enjoy the hospitality of his parents on North Wilke road.

The Social Five Hundred meet with Mrs. August Schlenburg in her home on South Evergreen avenue Thursday this week.

More July babies, Mr. and Mrs.

Steven Kovick are the parents of a little daughter born July 5, 1935.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Kosmin are parents of a little daughter, born July 6, 1935.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Graham are the parents of a little son born July 9, 1935.

The Little Flower Club were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Albert Goedke Thursday last week in their home on West Wing street.

Miss Myrtle Thomas entertained a group of seven friends from Chicago last Sunday in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Thomas on Kensington Road. It was a delightful day in the pure country air, and an ideal party with an ideal hostess.

The Friendly class of the Presbyterian church are giving a dinner in the church hall Tuesday next week, served from 5:30 to 7:30 evening—choice menu, don't miss it.

Mrs. Edna Held returned Monday this week to her employment in the city after a week's vacation spent at home.

Miss K. J. Kealey spent last Sunday with her friend, Mrs. Huldah Beth in her home in Michigan.

Mrs. Richard Wilcox was a guest in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Watson, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Schmitz entertained a family gathering of relatives and friends in their home July 4. It was indeed one of the Schmitz frequent "Open House" days and there were more than 60 guests who enjoyed their cheerful "open air" hospitality. Athletic games and bountiful refreshments. Their son, Earl Schmitz, came from Rockford, bringing one of his friends to share the family party. The large grounds about the old family home and the cheerful hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Schmitz, make their entertainment a joy to their guests.

Mrs. Martin Wilke and her two daughters are spending this week with relatives at Kaneville and Geneva.

Mr. Nathan Richardson spent Sunday in Chicago with his cousins, the Reed brothers.

Little Donald, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Cunningham of North Vail, who has been ill for several weeks past, is now convalescing. A recent visit from his grandfather and aunt, Dorothy, from Indianapolis, helped to cheer the little invalid.

Mrs. Hefferen and her daughter, Miss Ruth, had a happy surprise visit Sunday from Mrs. Whitehead from St. Louis. They had not seen her for some time and were joyful to have her as their guest. Mrs. Whitehead was formerly forelady of the department when Miss Ruth worked in the Benjamin Electric.

In all your pleasant summer activities, don't forget to be hoarding white elephants for that autumn rummage sale.

The auxiliary of V. F. W. went to Elgin one day last week to carry cheer and friendly greetings to our boys in the hospital there. Ice cream, cup cakes as "eats." The V. F. W. post sent their usual contribution of cigarettes to assure their buddies they were thinking of them. They also took for our shut in heroes, six suits of underwear, six day shirts and three straw hats and one bag of carpet rags to employ busy fingers. Those who went were Mesdames Rose Foley, Martha Mors, Birdie Ninneman and Johan Klepper.

Mr. Charles Kenny and his wife were staying for the Park season with the Roy Dickersons in the home of Mrs. Fred Schmitt, who spent the time as a vacation with friends. Mr. Kenny was taken sick last week and his parents, Dr. and Mrs. Kenny came up and took him home to Kentucky last of the week.

The Friendly class are giving a dinner Tuesday next week in the Parish dining hall from 5:30 to 7:30. A fine menu is to be prepared, be sure and get tickets early from the class—price 50 cents.

Mr. and Mrs. Evert Wallenfeldt and children have returned from a two week's vacation spent at Fall Creek, Wisconsin. While they were there, Mrs. Wallenfeldt's parents celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary, making it a vacation long to be remembered.

Paul Fellingham, who recently had an appendicitis operation at Ann Arbor, Michigan, is expected this week end to spend some time with his brother, Warren Fellingham and sister, Mrs. John Monroe.

Several ladies, who belong to a bridge club of which Mrs. Milton Daniels is a member, are to be her guests Friday at her cottage at Twin Lakes, Wis.

Last week Mrs. George Dobbins, with Mr. and Mrs. Bert Martens of Des Plaines, went to Rockville, Indiana, to visit cousins.

Practically the only requirements needed to receive an invitation to Farm Advisor Barrett's party Saturday evening, were that the person have come from a farm and have attended a university. Several universities were represented with Illinois predominating. Among those present was Miss Laura Watt from near Barrington, who was crowned dairy queen at Illinois two years ago.

The Pope girls have been taking turns visiting relatives in the city and having guests here. Last week Miss Marguerite was in the city and June Wilms was here; this week Betty is visiting and Loraine Wilms is here.

Miss Dorothy Catanesa of New York is spending the summer at the home of her uncle, Paul Incapero.

Mrs. George Pfingsten, Mrs. Samuelson and Charles Koppin attended a family reunion and picnic at Madison, Sunday. Their cousin, Virginia Olson, returned with them.

Little Betty Billman, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Allan Billman, is a guest this week at the home of Mrs. Raymond Atkinson.

The "Stitch and Chatter" club decided that it is too hot to stitch during their summer meetings and have found different forms of entertainment. Their hostesses, the Misses Gertrude and Grace Weise, arranged a picnic for their last meeting. It was held at Dam No. 2 where they put into action the belief that "you are as young as you feel" and enjoyed all the rides and a picnic supper.

The surprise party Saturday evening on Mrs. Louis Pederson, State road, turned out to be a surprise on the guests. Mr. Pederson had taken Mrs. Pederson in to a show in Chicago that the guests might assemble. After waiting in the dark for nearly three hours for the host and hostess' return they were at last rewarded. Eighteen guests enjoyed the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Pederson, who are royal entertainers.

A group of girls, twelve in number, have formed a Camp Fire troop, with Mrs. A. D. Hines, substitute guardian and Loraine Nelson, assistant guardian. The officers of the troop are: President, Margaret Allison; vice president, Ruth Mary Koerber; secretary, Katherine Hines; treasurer, Joyce Brown.

Jacob Haasam was 81 years old this week and relatives came out from the city to help him celebrate the event.

The Arthur Wise family is on a three week's vacation trip to Kentucky, Indianapolis and other points.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Bauer went to South Haven, Mich., Wednesday where they left Ruth who will visit her aunt, Mrs. Huldah Beth.

NEW BIRTH ARRIVALS
Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Milligan are the parents of a 9-pound daughter, born Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Collignon are parents of an 8 pound son, born Sunday morning.

University Sunday
At Lutheran Church
Dr. Baur will Preach

St. Peter Lutheran church has set aside both services Sunday morning in the interest of the Lutheran university at Valparaiso, Indiana. This institution of higher learning has been in the hands of the Lutheran people since 1925, and since that time it has been completely transformed into one of the outstanding universities of the country on the basis of scholastic achievements. It has become known as "the poor man's university" because of the opportunities it offers to young people of moderate means to acquire a college education. Several young men of Arlington Heights are now students of this school, Robert Meyer, Fred Giescke, Lester Malzahn and Edgar Flentie. The latter acquired his degree and was graduated in June.

The purpose of the special services Sunday is to stimulate on the part of the Lutheran public an active interest in their school of higher learning. Dr. John Baur, a representative of Valparaiso University, will deliver the sermons on the subject of "Christian College Education" in German at 9:30 and in English at 11 a. m. All friends of religious education are cordially invited to hear this noted speaker make a plea for a Christ-centered education.

Paddock Club Under New Management

The Paddock Club, located on Rand road west of Wilke road, is now under new management. Ed. Wayne, new proprietor, is the owner of the Noosegow Cafe, 2521 Milwaukee Ave., and has had much experience in running popular dine and dance halls. For the present the place will be open every Friday and Saturday evening, with four floor shows nightly. Free fish fry Friday night.

New Motorcycle Arrives
Cruising Speed 90 M.P.H.

No longer will drivers of high speed cars be able to laugh at Arlington Heights. That village received this week a new Indian motorcycle, the cruising speed of which is 90 miles per hour. The police department of that village, however, has not been waiting for a new motorcycle to stop speeders as 43 arrests were made since the first of June.

Friendly Class to Hold Ice Cream Social

The Friendly class of the Presbyterian church will give an ice cream social this Friday evening on the church lawn. A dinner will also be given by the class next Tuesday evening. Meals will be served from 5:30 to 7:30 p. m. in the parish hall. Tickets are 50c and 25c.

Wedding Ceremony for Libertyville Couple Was Performed Here

Mr. Arthur E. Armstrong and Miss Ruby E. Williams of Libertyville, Ill., were happily united at a pretty wedding celebrated at the Methodist parsonage on Thursday afternoon. The happy couple were accompanied by the bride's mother and friends from Libertyville where the bride and groom are popular young people.

Mr. Armstrong is manager for the Quaker Oats Experimental farm located west of their home town where they will reside after August 1. After a drive into Canada the young housekeepers will be at home to their friends.

Red Wings Meet Guy Bush Gassers Sunday

The Arlington Red Wings will be hosts to a strong Chicago aggregation, the Guy Bush Gassers, this Sunday. The local team will have to be at their best if they expect to out-run these reputed players from Chicago.

The Red Wings met defeat at the hands of the Peters Colored Union Giants last Sunday. The home club was held to four hits while the opposing team collected nine hits to win 4 to 0. Schaefer and Diederich pitched for the Red Wings, with Bolte behind the plate.

MUDDY FIELDS, LODGED STRAW IRK FARMERS

Agricultural Engineer
Gives Methods to Solve
Difficulties

Urbana, Ill., July 17—A little special equipment and a lot of patience are the only means for farmers to overcome lodged straw and muddy fields in harvesting the state's crop of 2,209,000 acres of wheat, rye, oats and barley this season, according to A. L. Young, agricultural engineer at the College of Agriculture, University of Illinois. Heavy rains have made harvesting a far more complicated problem than it usually is, he said. Suitable drive-wheel lugs and a power take-off will usually solve the muddy field problem for the farmer who uses a tractor and power binder. The owner of a power binder, whether he pulls it with horses or tractor, has a different problem to meet in a muddy field, since the bull wheel of the binder skids and the binder will not work.

The only satisfactory solution to this problem is the use of a small gasoline engine attached to the binder and coupled to the cutting and binding mechanism of the machine, Young stated.

Lodged straw offers a difficult problem at the best, said Young. Extension guards attached to the regular guards of the binder are of some help in picking up and straightening the straw. Varying grain conditions also call for frequent changes of the reel. If the grain is badly lodged, it may be necessary to cut only in one direction, that is, opposite the way the straw lays.

Cutting with a mower and raking is not a satisfactory method, but may be used with some success for small fields and where the straw is so badly lodged and tangled as to prevent binding.

During rainy years, such as the present, it is advisable to set the bundles up in long, narrow shocks to give them plenty of opportunity to dry out. It is also best to delay cutting until the grain is fairly ripe and make small bundles that will dry readily.

TWO QUESTIONS ANSWERED

Why is it that one farmer raises 100 bushels of corn to the acre, and the other one, on the other side of the fence, raises 25 bushels to the acre? Why is it that one farmer produces 100 pounds of pork on five bushels of corn, and another uses 25 bushels? Not until power machinery, scientific principles of soil fertilization and restoration, rotation of crops, diversification of crops and economical feeding are applied to the farm, will the farmers' problem be solved, says an authority.

Significant economic developments to be expected in the next decade are listed by a prominent business writer as follows: (1) Higher standard of living. (2) Continued advances in technical processes of production. (3) Factory built houses, better and cheaper than hand made houses. (4) Somewhat cheaper money. (5) Faster travel. (6) News printed by radio. (7) Mechanical cotton picker, revolutionizing the South. (8) Cheaper electric power. (9) Better distribution of goods; more chain stores. (10) Another depression five or six years hence, preceded by an inflationary boom.

WARN FARMERS OF SNAKEROOT POISON WEED

Heavy Rains Infest Illinois
Pastures Endangering
Livestock

Urbana, Ill., July 17—Heavy rains which have made Illinois pasture luxuriant this year have not ended the danger of white snakeroot poisoning to man and to livestock during the coming few months, according to a warning in a newly revised circular, "White Snakeroot Poisoning," which has just been issued by the College of Agriculture, University of Illinois. Even though pasture grass is abundant, animals may eat the leaves of the poisonous white snakeroot weed from time to time. Overstocking pastures, even if they are good ones, increases the risks from the poisoning, which occurs every year in Illinois, the circular warns.

Persons using dairy products or meat of animals affected by "trembles" as white snakeroot poisoning is known, may contract milk sickness, an ailment which runs a rapid course and has a high mortality rate.

Keeping livestock away from white snakeroot and eradicating the weed from pastures and woodlots are the only sure ways of preventing the poisoning, according to the circular.

The plant is a tall, slender perennial herb which usually grows in partially cleared woodlots, swampy areas, shady ravines and in groves along streams. The greatest danger is from July until late in the fall. This is especially true during dry years when pastures are short and dry. White snakeroot can generally be recognized by its broadly oval leaves, set opposite each other and having sharply-toothed, or serrated, edges. The non-poisonous varieties usually have narrower leaves.

In small patches the weed is best eradicated by pulling each plant by the roots. In large patches proper cropping is the most satisfactory means of eradication. Livestock should be kept out of pastures containing any of the weed.

Weakness, loss of appetite, constipation and a trembling of the voluntary muscles when the animal is forced to move are among the early symptoms of poisoning. When these symptoms are observed the stock should be taken from pasture and a reliable veterinarian called. The immediate attention of a physician should be given to cases of milk sickness among humans.

SEES INFLATION A SLOW PROCESS

A Real Danger for the Future,
Col. Ayres Tells Banking
Groups.

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J.—Present prospects do not indicate that inflation severe enough to cause further dollar devaluation will come soon in this country, but as an ultimate development it seems to be a very real danger, Leonard P. Ayres, Vice President Cleveland Trust Company, said here tonight in an address before the Graduate School of Banking. He believed this statement to be true "unless the government enters frankly upon a policy of issuing fiat money with which to meet its expenses." At present that does not seem to be in sight, he said. The Graduate School is operated jointly by the American Institute of Banking Section of the American Bankers Association and Rutgers University to offer advanced studies for bank officers.

"We have so enormously increased the capacity of our banking system for credit expansion that it is difficult to see how we could have a vigorous business revival without having it develop into a credit inflation," Colonel Ayres declared.

Inflation a Slow Process
If inflation does come it will be a slow process, he said, pointing out that in Germany, France, Belgium and Italy it took about five years to develop from the time when the governments entered upon policies of financing large peace-time deficits by bank credit up to the time when the public generally began to spend money rapidly because of fear that it would still further depreciate.

"If we are to go through such a period here it would seem likely that it might last rather longer than the corresponding periods did abroad," he said. "Its beginning would date from the spring of 1933" when we left the old gold basis for our money and entered upon the policy of financing large governmental deficits by the sale of federal securities mainly to banks rather than to private investors.

"The method that we are following is the one that proved disastrous in Europe for in all those countries including Germany, the increasing issues of money that caused the inflation were not mere printing press issues of fiat currency, but were secured by government bonds and notes discounted at the banks." Among the clearest lessons taught by the European experience, Colonel Ayres asserted, is that there are "no good hedges against inflation." He added:

Did Not Lighten Debt Burdens
"One of the strange facts about these inflations is that while they destroyed the values of most existing debts, they did not succeed in lightening the debt burdens of either the people as a whole, or of the corporations.

"Inflation destroys the value of bonds and mortgages and so confiscates the property of these holders of obligations and hands it over to the shareholders and the equity owners. However, it introduces so many new economic difficulties that these share and equity holders are at once forced to incur new indebtedness so that when stabilization comes the problems of debt are about as troublesome as they were before, or even more so."

The five requisites of inflation were listed by Colonel Ayres as first, a period of sustained active business; second, a rising stock market; third, real credit expansion; fourth, greater out-flow of gold "than we can tolerate which would force us to cut our currency entirely free from gold"; and fifth, continued large budget deficits in government operation.

THEATRE NOTES

Clark Gable and Loretta Young
Star in "Call of The Wild" Coming to the United Artists
Theater Soon

Clark Gable, the star of 20th Century's production "Call of the Wild" coming to the United Artists theater soon was born in Cadiz, Ohio, February 1, 1901. Clark was educated in his home town and in Hopdale, Ohio. After graduating from high school, he worked as a time-keeper. Ambitious to become a doctor, he enrolled in premedical classes of the night school of the University of Akron.

He worked with his father for a while in the Oklahoma oil fields. Then went "barnstorming" and wound up in Portland, Oregon. He took another fling at the theater, then worked with an engineering group on lumber surveys. He sold advertising, worked for the telephone company and saved a small sum and decided to cast his lot definitely with pictures.

His recent film appearances include "Men in White," "Dancing Lady," "Chained," "Forsaking All Others," and "It Happened One Night," for which he received the award of the Motion Picture Academy of Art and Sciences.

ANTIOCH LAND AUCTION SALE

We Will Sell in Auction Sale in Parish Hall in Antioch, Ill., on Wednesday, July 24, 1935

AT 1:00 P. M. (Standard Time)

The following tracts of land, viz.:

The 277-acre improved farm known as the Cannon Farm, located three miles east of Antioch, Ill., on Route 173, where John Reuter lives as a tenant.

The good, well improved 300-acre William Bryant farm with 80 rods of lake frontage, three miles south of Bristol, Wis., on Route 45.

The 130-acre Cedar Crest tract, located between two golf courses, on Route 59, between Fox Lake and Antioch, Ill. It has a fine well equipped dairy barn with two cement silos, and other good buildings, but no residence.

The 120-acre country home of Helen Mico with 320 rods of lake frontage, located in Kenosha, Wis., three miles northeast of Antioch, Ill. This is a wonderful proposition.

And the 216-acre Fred Crawford farm, five miles east of Antioch, Ill., one mile east and one quarter mile south of Pikeville Corners.

There is splendid investment in these tracts. See illustrated bills in Banks. For further information consult either bank in Antioch, Ill. Look these propositions over well before sale date July 24, 1935. Sales Conductor, E. MARION PETERSON, Monmouth, Illinois. Sales Auctioneer, Col. Faye L. Houtchens, Monmouth, Illinois. Advertising Agent, Robt. A. Mack, Fairbury, Illinois.

Boy Scouts Quite Active This Summer

A series of dramatic sketches dedicated to the Boy Scouts of the nation who are observing their 25th anniversary this year and who are preparing for their first National Jamboree at Washington, D. C., Aug. 21 to 30, will be heard Monday evening, July 22 at 6:45 p. m., and three successive Mondays at the same time, according to an announcement released by the Headquarters of the Northwest Suburban Council. This nation wide series of broadcasts entitled "Heading for the Jamboree" will present skits depicting adventures and efforts of Scout Tommy Webster in his plans to attend this great gathering in Washington.

The Jamboree in the nation's capital will be the largest gathering of boys ever held on American soil. The Scouts will erect a "tent city" of their own within the shadow of the Washington monument. "Jamboree City" will have its own telephone exchange, newspaper called the "Jamboree Journal" and sewage and water system and hospitals. Over 400 Scouts from 30 foreign countries are expected to take part in the Jamboree.

Scout Leaders Attend Mid Summer Training Course

of the mid-summer Training Course in Scouting Administration at the Mary Wilson House last Tuesday evening. Under the direction of Scout Executive Nimitz these men will discuss the various phases and features of Scouting, its program, organization and purpose. At last Tuesday's session the evening was given over to the discussion of the philosophy of Scouting and the organization that has made possible the growth of the movement to the largest boy organization in the world over a short period of 25 years. The next session will be held next Tuesday evening, July 23, at which time the discussion will be continued and the fundamentals of the administration of scouting in the troop will be the major part of the work. The course is open to all men and national training certificates will be issued to those that complete the work. The course is conducted under the leadership of the leadership and training committee of the Northwest Suburban Council.

Local Delegation Growing
Scout Executive C. O. Nimitz announced that 15 local Scouts were already registered with the Northwest Suburban Council contingent, six more boys have made tentative registrations and several others are contemplating registering before the deadline next Sunday. At least five Scout leaders will accompany the local contingent which is headed by Mr. Edw. H. Stehman, Scoutmaster of Troop 1 of Park Ridge. Serving with him in leadership capacity will be Scoutmaster R. H. Boettcher of Troop 28 of Morton Grove and Asst. Scoutmaster Edw. Fritz of Troop 2 of Park Ridge. President of the Council, Clifford C. Gregg and Scout Executive Nimitz will also accompany the group and it is expected other members of the Executive Board and local scouters group will make reservations. The local contingent will leave for Washington, Monday evening, August 19, arriving there after a short stopover at Harpers Ferry. They will travel in special air-conditioned coaches. They will leave Washington Saturday, August 31, arriving home on Sunday morning.

Two Local Leaders Added to Camp Staff
Due to the large enrollment at Camp Oh-Da-Ko-Ta the summer home of Northwest Suburban Scouts at Dyer Lake, Wisconsin, two additional leaders have been added to the already large camp staff. Both are from the Northwest Suburban Council. Asst. Scoutmaster, Fred Cheever, of troop 20, Des Plaines, will assist in the water front work and the administration of the nautical unit. Eagle Scout Geo. Hand of troop 1 of Park Ridge will assist in the base camp and help in the direction of the two troops making up that unit.

Camp Filled to Capacity
The camp is filled to capacity this week with the registrations continuing to increase for the remaining two weeks which may be necessary to extend the camp season for another week. All Scouts desiring to attend camp are urged to get registrations in to the local Scout Headquarters so that they may be assured places in the unit of their choice.

Honor Camper
Robt. Frankhauser of Troop 20 of Des Plaines was selected as the honor camper for last week. This selection is made on the basis of best all around camper and will entitle Scout Frankhauser to a medal which will be awarded at the first Court of Honor of the season this fall. Due to the details involved in preparation for the Scout Jamboree the usual honor campers trip will not be possible this year.
Those in camp at the present time are: George Johnson, Duane Rowe, Jack Sweeney, Robt. White, Kent Burgess, Wm. Steiner, Howard Ward, Lewis Sale, Wm. Johnson, Geo. Pasternak, Frank Gregg, Grant Watson, Robt. Mielke, Ed. Lawson of Park Ridge.
Erwin Blaha, Billy Raymond, Albert Hackmeister, Howard Yates, Alex Campbell, Dick Richards and R. Frankhauser of Des Plaines.
Chas. Proctor and Alan Reinshagen of Arlington Heights; A. Fassbender, Edw. Weslik, Arthur Miller, Jas. Updell, Elwin Kruse of Wheeling, Wm. Saul of Barrington.
John Harpham of Park Ridge and Ted Foster of Niles. Center have been on the camp staff since the camp opened.

146 on County Payroll At Wheaton Says Survey

According to a survey published in the Hinsdale Doings last week, there are 146 persons, employed at Wheaton in the conduct of the county business. This list includes elected and appointed officials and their clerical help. The salaries range from $20 to over a $100 a week. Many of these employees, however, are not year 'round workers.
An interesting sidelight on this survey is the representation that DuPage communities enjoy at the Wheaton court house. Wheaton has 39 out of the 146, Elmhurst 19, Glen Ellyn 16, Naperville 11, Downers Grove 10, West Chicago 10, Westmont 9, Villa Park 6, Winfield 5, Hinsdale 4, Lombard 4, Warrenville 2, Lisle 2, Bloomingdale 2, Addison 1, Itasca 1, Pleasant Hill 1, Bensenville 1, Wayne 1, Roselle 1, Clarendon Hills 1.

Ten Take Anti-rabies Treatment Because They Contacted Sick Dog

Because they came in contact with a pet dog which later was found to have rabies, 10 Downers Grove people, including the policeman who shot the animal, are undergoing anti-rabies treatments.
It was necessary to kill the dog when it became violent. The head was sent to the Illinois Research Laboratory in Chicago for examination and rabies discovered.
Anti-rabies treatment requires 14 different injections of serum.

Boards of Review Meet With Tax Commission

Last week the DuPage county board of review of which N. W. Lies is chairman, along with like bodies from the other 101 counties of the state met at Springfield with the state tax commission, consisting of John C. Martin, Barnet Hodes and Simeon E. Leland. The object of the meeting was for the purpose of outlining a more equitable system of reviewing the assessments on property in the State.
Mr. Martin informed the Boards of Review in attendance that "cooperation with the local taxing officials, not coercion, is the policy of the State body. There is no desire on the part of the Tax Commission to dictate to you as to how you should do your job."
Tax Commissioner, Barnet Hodes of Chicago, gave the warning to the local officials that "if you would avoid any form of 'tax dictatorship', which none of us want, it is up to you to show that the local agencies can and will assess property so that every property owner bears his own share of the tax burden, no more—no less."
Governor Henry Horner addressed the meeting and gave a short resume of the things accomplished by the State Government in the way of taxes and reductions.
